Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Brusasco have received word that their son, 2nd Lt. John M. Brusasco, has been awarded silver wings at Vance AFB, Okla. on graduation from air force pilot training.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Cree attended the 40th wedding anniversary reception for Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Field held at the Pringle Creek Clubhouse in Salem Sunday afternoon from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Mrs. J. C. Dickinson visited at the home of her granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Wehrli and family, while the Cree's attended the reception.

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lake were their grandson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Coryell and Allison of Beaverton. About 1:00 p.m. the Lakes received a phone call to come to the Gates Airport. When they arrived at the airport, they found their 17 year old grandson, Jeff Coryell from Ketchikan, Alaska waiting for them. He was on his way home from Florida where he picked up his own new plane and was returning home. Due to the bad weather for flying, he remained at the Lake home several days. He will visit in the Portland and Seattle area before flying home. He is traveling alone.

Mill City Woman's Club Meets At J. C. Kimmel Home

Mrs. J. C. Kimmel was hostess to 16 members of the Mill City Woman's Club at her home Tuesday evening, Feb. 19, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Youmans and Mrs. Bern Mueller. The patriotic motif was used in the serving of colorful refreshments.

Mrs. W. E. Beyer, vice-president, conducted the business meeting with Mary Youmans as secretary. Following opening ceremonies, Ruth Cummings gave the treasurer's report in the absence of Kate Doble.

Correspondence included information about the spring convention of the Fourth District on April 4, scheduled to be here in Mill City with assistance from the Junior Woman's Club. The club was asked to furnish a representative on the nominating committee for the Marion County Federation of Woman's Clubs. A letter from Camp Fire officials concerned the needs at Camp Kilowan for which the club donates two half-scholarships each year.

Minutes were read from a board meeting held at the home of Alma Beyer on Jan. 25 when the various chairmen gave their reports. Evelyn Pfoertner told of her search for the proper colors for the new club flag.

Discussion was held concerning the luncheon and morning coffee for the Fourth District convention, with numerous committees being named. The event will be held at the IOOF Hall.

A request was received that each club was expected to sell $15.00 worth of advertising for the Clubwoman Magazine. An interesting report was given of the state board of directors' meeting held in Corvallis on Feb. 9 which was attended by five of the local members.

Mary Youmans and Jenny Cauble gave interesting highlights from the talks given. The evening's program consisted of Mae Mowry, community improvement chairman reading a conservation report written by Elaine Russell which gave details of all the work and donations of time and money clubwomen had given toward establishment of the new city park on the river. Listed among accomplishments were comfort stations for use of the handicapped, three parking lots completed, many trees and shrubs planted with help of Boy Scouts, planting-strips fertilized, lawn seed ready to be planted, merry-go-round built, picnic area, path to the river, irrigation pump and all but 100 feet of water system in.

A group of the clubwomen attended the last city council meeting to discuss maintenance of the park but the agenda was over crowded. They expect to attend another meeting in the future.
