Rebekahs Hear Speech Contestants

The speech contest to determine which student from Santiam High School will go to the district finals for the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth Contest was held March 12 at 11:00 a.m. at the Mill City IOOF Hall.

Serving as judges were Evelyn Pfoertner, Mick Davis of the law firm Davis and Corderman, and Dick Halstead, pastor of the Mill City Christian Church.

The UN student advisor from the high school is Mike McClain.

Jill Krecklow, sophomore and Jim Rose, junior, each gave a five minute speech. Prior to the speeches, the judges had studied the essays each student had prepared as part of their point grading.

Mrs. Dave Barnhardt, vice-grand of Santiam Rebekah Lodge #100, was acting chairman for the occasion and welcomed the students and guests. This is the silver anniversary of the founding of the Youth Pilgrimage to the United Nations in New York.

The tours are sponsored by the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges throughout the United States and Canada and was created to acquaint the youth of today, which will be our hope for tomorrow, with the aims and hopes of the United Nations and to know and touch a bit of their own nation, its history, its magnitude and its beauty. The I.O.O.F. is the only fraternal organization to have a seat in the UN.

While the judges were conferring, the contestants and guests were served refreshments in the dining room by Mrs. Barnhardt and Mrs. Albert Carr.

Mr. Halstead, spokesman for the judges announced that they had chosen Jim Rose as winner. He will now go to the district meeting on March 29 for the finals.

Presbyterian Women Plan Receptions

The Presbyterian Women's Assn. met at Fellowship Hall on Thursday afternoon, March 14, with ten ladies present. Attending for the first time were Miss Katie Ewell of Gates and Mrs. Velma Harrison. The dessert luncheon was furnished by Mrs. Arlo Tuers, but she was unable to be present, so it was served by Mrs. Lois Verbeck, who arranged the lovely centerpiece of pussy-willows, daffodils, and heather.

Mrs. Robert Hayes, the president, was in charge of the business meeting which opened with devotions by Mrs. Earl Loucks who read from the Yearbook of Prayer, as well as offering several other short articles.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Fay Verbeck, who also gave the treasurer's report in the absence of Mary Tuers.

Discussion was held concerning arrangements for serving two wedding receptions on Saturday, March 16, one in the afternoon and the other in the evening. Several volunteered to help at these affairs.

The group voted $15.00 for the purchase of five blankets to be donated and sent through Church World Service.

On display were 50 neckerchiefs made by Hazel Hayes, Ruth Cummings and Lettie Swan to be sent for use at the Cameron House day-camp.

The meeting was adjourned and came to a close with prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Cree Attend Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Cree and Mrs. William McClintock went to Portland last Thursday evening where they attended a reception and friendship night honoring Harold Prosch, member of the blood bank of the Grand Chapter of Oregon and also captain of the Grand Page Escorts and Mrs. Clauzelle Fox, grand page of the 1973 session.

Mr. Cree, who was also a grand page escort, took part in the addenda given by the grand pages and grand page escorts after which their chapter, Southgate #149, presented each of them with a lovely gift.

Mr. Prosch and Mrs. Fox served as worthy matron and patron of their chapter the same year Mr. and Mrs. Cree were worthy matron and worthy patron of Marilyn Chapter.

The reception was held in the Neighbors of Woodcraft Bldg.

Shelly Richards Enlists In U. S. Army

Shelly A. Richards, daughter of Mrs. G. L. Richards of Mill City, has enlisted for the army's two-year Enlistment Option and will receive guaranteed training as a dental specialist after entry onto active duty on June 18.

Shelly is currently a senior at Santiam High School.

Gibson-Swan Wed Saturday Evening

A small but impressive ceremony at the United Presbyterian Church at 7:30, Saturday evening, March 16, united Blanche A. Gibson and James A. Swan in marriage before relatives and close friends. The Rev. Robert Roach of Salem, a former pastor here, officiated.

The sanctuary was decorated with large baskets of velvet roses in shades of pink and rose made by Mrs. Jack Spoelstra of Salem, a sister of the bride.

Gowned in a blue street-length dress of double-knit polyester, the bride carried a Bible topped by a corsage of pink roses surrounding an orchid. Her only attendant was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Art (Helen) Andersen of Lyons.

The bridegroom's best man was his brother, John Swan, who stood beside him.

Soloist was Mrs. Calvin Culbertson of Mehama who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wither Thou Goest," accompanied by the organist, Doris Williams.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in Fellowship Hall where pink roses were effectively used surrounding the beautiful wedding cake. Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Thomas Smith (Peggy Andersen) of Richland, Wash., Mrs. Jack Spoelstra (Inez Andersen) of Salem, and Mrs. Darrell Anderson of Mill City.

Mrs. Ron Phelps (Kathy Andersen) of Salem poured coffee and Mrs. Richard Gibson (the brides daughter, Phyllis) of Portland served the punch. Presiding over the gift table were Mrs. Orville Oderman (the groom's daughter, Donola) of Gold Beach, and Mrs. Duane Tolm, his granddaughter, the former Carol Jean Gillenwater, of Mountain View, Calif., near San Francisco.

The velvet rose corsages for those assisting were made by Mrs. Spoelstra.

A short wedding trip was taken by Mr. and Mrs. Swan. He is a retired mill man and, at present, is custodian of the Presbyterian Church properties.

Wedding Guests Visit Freeman Home

Spending their spring vacation at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Freeman, are Esther and Paul Freeman who are students at Northwest Christian College in Eugene.

Friday and Saturday guests of Esther and Paul were Connie Cox of Bozeman, Mont. and Mark Goff of Buil, Ida. They attended the wedding of Wilda Wilson and Montwayne Smith at the local Christian Church Saturday afternoon at 2:00 p.m.

Other guests were Laurie Ball of Boise, Ida. and Dell Harris from Colorado Springs, Colo. They left on Tuesday.

Round Robin Club Meets At Barnhardt Home Monday Eve.

The Round Robin Pinochle Club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. David Barnhardt who has been a guest member during the winter.

Mrs. Barnhardt used the St. Patrick's theme for the evening and a dessert was served by the hostess. Guests enjoyed viewing her many lovely antiques as well as an evening of cards.

Mrs. Virgil Trout won the door prize. Mrs. Adolph Brunner received high. Mrs. John MacGregor, pinochle and Mrs. Robert Pratt, low.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Trout, Mrs. Brunner, Mrs. Joe Fencil, and Mrs. Francis Bodeker. Members present were Mrs. Al Yankus, Mrs. Donald Carlson, Mrs. John MacGregor, Mrs. Charlie Stewart, Sr. Mrs. Arey Podrabsky, Mrs. Rocky Moore from Lyons, Mrs. Robert Pratt and the hostess, Mrs. Barnhardt.

The next party will be at the home of Mrs. John MacGregor.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kelly Become Grandparents

It has been learned that Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hadden (Jeanie Kelly) of Sunnyvale, Calif. became the parents of a 9 lb. baby boy, Scott Patrick, on Wednesday, March 13. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kelly. The Kellys, who had spent two months in Hawaii, flew back to the mainland on Tuesday and Mrs. Kelly will help with the new baby's care. Carl was expected to return home over the weekend.

Mrs. Blanche Kelly had two new great-grandchildren at the same time, as Bette Kelly's eldest daughter, Sarah, had a baby boy in Spokane, Wash., where he joined an older sister.
