Smith-Hayter Vows Given In Church
Ceremony at Everett, Washington

The First Presbyterian Church in Everett, Wash., was the setting for the wedding of Mrs. Jacqueline K. Smith to Roderick C. Hayter on Saturday, April 6.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard C. Smith, former Mill City residents now residing in Portland. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Woodcock of Lake Wenatchee, Wash.

Miss Norrine Crawford was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Shelley Smith, sister of the bride, Miss Karen Ward and Miss Holly Robinson, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride's sister, Pamela Smith, and Angela Hayter, niece of the groom, were candlelighters. Roberta Rohac and Jackie Sugitowiz, niece of the bridegroom, were flower girls.

Art Wright served as best man and ushers were Mark Bell, Dave Buchanan and Jerry Hayter, brother of the groom.

A reception followed at the Everett Elks Club. The bride's rainbow colors of lilac, blue, green, peach, yellow and pink were used in the decorations.

Following a wedding trip along the Snoqualmie Pass, the newlyweds will make their first home in Everett, where he is a machinist at Contour Ind.

The new Mrs. Hayter is a graduate of Sam Barlow High School and Glorea Lavonne School of Modeling and is now employed as a secretary. The bridegroom is a graduate of Barrington High and attended Everett Community College.

Pearl Ketchum Is Honored On Her
94th Birthday

Pearl Ketchum celebrated her 94th birthday Easter Sunday at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Howard Farmer. Mrs. Ketchum now makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Horner of Rte. 1, Lyons, but will be remembered by local friends for her many years residence at the old camp 26 logging site and in the Mill City area.

Attending the buffet dinner were her son and wife, Ramon and Jean Roberts, granddaughter, Audrey Strickler, great-granddaughter, Janice Swindle and husband Bill, great-great grandchildren, Cheri and Brian Swindle, Mrs. Art Shimmin, all of Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dixon of Sweet Home; daughter Mrs. Marjorie Varney of Victoria, B. C., Canada; Miss Jeanne DeMain and Michael Farmer of Mill City and the hosts, Howard and Alice Farmer. Stopping in for a short visit during the day were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lalack, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Roberts and family were unable to attend.

Mill City Garden Club Awards Prizes

The Mill City Garden Club awarded prizes to Miss Opoka's fifth grade students for their participation in the Mill City Garden Club's bird conservation program.

The 1973-74 program was the planting of a tree or trees with food or shelter for birds in mind.

Mrs. Walter Thomas, chairman, introduced the judges, Mrs. Katie Skillings, Mrs. Hazel Worth and Mrs. Beryl Bright of the Lyons Garden Club. Mrs. Skillings named the winners who were: Laurie Carpenter, first place, $5; David Straight, second place, $3; and Jeff Harrison and Oren Hampton, third place, each $2.

Mrs. Jennie Cauble and Mrs. Velma Harrison presented checks to the winning students. The judges found that there were very commendable efforts among all the students who entered.

There were no entries from Mr. Jerrim's fifth grade room. Had there been any, duplicate prizes would have been awarded.

Of special interest to this year's fourth grade students in the Mill City bird contest for 1974-75 term, when they are fifth grade students. The contest will be bird feeders. There will be duplicate prizes for each room. The feeders will be exhibited and judged at the school some time during the fall term.

Guests were Mrs. Joe Fencil, Mrs. David Barnhardt, members, Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. Arey Podrabsky, Mrs. John MacGregor, Mrs. Al Yaukus, Mrs. Burton Boroughs and Mrs. Mel Rambo, who was welcomed back after spending the winter in Arizona.

Taylor-Walker Wed
Saturday, April 6
At Santiam Chapel

Miss Janice Lea Taylor and Ken Lauren Walker were married Saturday, April 6, at the Santiam Chapel in Lyons. Rev. Robert Harkins performed the 7:00 p.m. ceremony. Organist was Renee Luke and Judy Mumey sang "The Lords Prayer" and "There is Love."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence D. Taylor and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Walker, all of Lyons.

Given in marriage by her mother and father, the bride wore a snow white all floral lace gown with a V-waist and sweetheart neckline accented with tapered ruffled sleeves. The tiered skirt and long ruffled chapel length train were trimmed in sequins. A crown headpiece held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white carnations.

Honor maid was Miss Becky Mumey in a yellow and white over satin gown. Miss Rhonda Taylor and Miss Mary Carlson were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of yellow and white flowers. They all carried bouquets of yellow roses and white carnations. Miss Julie Harris, in a gown identical to the honor maid, was flower girl and Darin Mumey was ring bearer.

Dennis Pantovich was best man and Steve Vincent and Steve Walker served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Taylor chose a long, peach colored dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a long, lavender dress. Their corsages were yellow roses and white carnations.

A reception followed in the church annex. Cutting and serving the wedding cake was Goldy Peck. Joyce Harris presided at the punch and Melvina Franklin at the coffee. Assisting was Helen Mentze. Loretta Pope passed the guest book. Decorations were done by Javida Carlson, Becky Mumey, Cheryl Calavan, Cheryl Davenport and Mary Carlson.

For a honeymoon to Denver, Colo., the bride wore a blue pants suit with her bridal corsage. The couple will be at home after April 17 in Mehama. The bridegroom is a warehouse man and the bride will continue her schooling.

Baked Food Sale

Very Successful

GATES — Members of the Santiam Canyon Home Extension Study Group held their annual baked food, plant and white elephant sale Thursday, April 11, at the Gates Clubhouse.

Committee chairman, Mrs. Melvin Newberg, reported the sale very successful. Mrs. George Ditter, Mrs. Donald Hurst and Mrs. Don Gillenwater also served on the committee.

The April project, "Delicious, Nutritious Desserts," was held over and will be presented at the May ninth meeting along with "Electric Know-how."

The business meeting was held following the sale, with election of officers. The present officers: chairman, Mrs. Gael Cutsforth; vice-chairman, Mrs. George Ditter; and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Floyd Swaim were elected for another year.

Mrs. Swaim reported on the spring tour to be taken in Salem May 8. Tour plans include visits to "The Mission Mills Museum," "Honeywood Inc.," and "Bush House and Bush Barn," with lunch at a Salem restaurant. Cost of the tour per person will be about $5.00. Those planning to make the tour must be signed up by April 30 and should contact Mrs. Swaim, 897-2860.

The group will meet at 9:00 a.m., May 8, at the Donald Hurst home adjacent to Fred Moore's shop on Highway 22 West of Mill City. Anyone needing transportation may contact Mrs. Gerald Caryl, Mrs. Don Gillenwater, Mrs. Ray Presler, Mrs. Rex Ohmart, Mrs. Jack Stoddard or Mrs. Swaim.
