Idanha Ambulance Busy Over Holidays

IDANHA — The Idanha Rural Fire District ambulance had a busy day Friday with ambulance runs. The chain of events began at 1:10 p.m. Friday when a Salem woman sustained injuries in a one car accident on highway 22, at the bottom of Tunnel Creek trade, east of Idanha near the 11 mile post. Mrs. Elizabeth Coates, 81, of 1161 Chemawa Loop N. E., Salem, was taken to Salem Memorial Hospital Emergency Center with a possible concussion and head laceration. There was no passengers in the vehicle. Mrs. Coates lost control of the vehicle when a front tire blew out causing the vehicle to crash into an embankment on the north side of the highway. She said she had been driving since 1924 and this was her first serious accident.

A second call came in the evening at 11:23 p.m. when the ambulance was called to a residence on Deer St., Detroit. However, the patient did not require hospitalization. At 11:53 p.m. the ambulance was called to Detroit State Park. Elaine Sanders of 4759 N. E. Prescott, Portland, was taken to Santiam Memorial Hospital, Stayton, for medical attention.

The last call came at 2:21 A.M. Saturday morning when the ambulance was called to Detroit State Park again. Jerry Spencer, 15 of 2500 S. E. Oakgrove, Malwa, was taken to Salem Memorial Hospital Emergency Center, for medical attention.

Mrs. Harold Blan (Donna) returned to her position as a clerk in the local post office on Monday, July 8, after having spent a week on a vacation trip to California where a reunion of family members was held. She was accompanied by her husband, Harold, and their three children.

Mrs. Wilson Stevens, who underwent hip surgery on June 28 as the result of a fall at her home in Lyons, was reported as recovering satisfactorily at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert W. Toman, in Salem. Mrs. Jack Scott is her other daughter.

The old city park, now owned by the school district, has been set as the place for the Sunday, Aug. 18, reunion of Mill City High School classes of 1931-34. Teachers of that era are also included. A no-host picnic is being planned.

Mrs. Lillian Archer, Corliss and John and some friends have gone to California to visit relatives and friends.

Marching Groups

District Ranger To Speak At Salem

DETROIT — Dalton Dulac, new district ranger in the Detroit office of the Willamette National Forest, will speak Thursday (today) at 7:30 p.m. at a meeting of the Central Cascades Conservation Council in Willamette University's George Putnam Center.

Dulac will discuss and answer questions on plans and environmental - impact projects for the Willamette National Forest. The meeting is open to the public.

The conservation council is a Salem-based organization concerned with wilderness preservation through public education, outings and political activity.

Driver Uninjured In One Car Accident

IDANHA — An unidentified Idaho man had a gruesome experience when his vehicle left highway 22 and plunged into a deep hole at Tunnel Creek about five miles East of Idanha Sunday night. It had been raining and he apparently hit a slick spot in the 7:30 p.m. accident.

It was reported the vehicle was on fire and people were trapped in the car. Both the Idanha Rural Fire District and the ambulance answered the call, but upon their arrival at the scene, the lone occupant had freed himself and had put out the fire with a fire extinguisher. He was not injured.

An estimated 25 million people in this country suffer from Hypertension, according to experts attending a New England high blood pressure conference. They said that, contrary to popular belief, the affluent, and also the undue emphasis is being put on salt as a factor in hypertension. Reporting on a series of patients surveyed over a 20 year period, one physician said that 85 percent of them were well controlled with antihypertensive drugs and had been managed without elaborate testing.

"The Pill for men may be ready within five years, says a U. of Washington researcher, D. C. Alvin Paulsen. He's safely tested 100 volunteers with combinations of hormones which together reduce sperm count temporarily. "With the right combination, we can fix it so that men could take the pill or injections every two weeks," Paulsen claims. But there may be an easier way: Marked but reversible decrease in testosterone levels is achieved (though not always desired) by chronic, intensive marijuana use, the "Journal of the American Medical Assn." reports in an article on clinical studies at the Reproductive Biology Research Foundation and the Missouri Clinical and Biochemical Laboratory.

"Codeine without morphine is possible, says a Turkish pharmacologist. He's discovered a different kind of poppy that contains thebaine, from which codein — but no morphine — could be derived. This may be a partial answer to the narcotics problem.
