

GATES

Joyce Presler — 897-2707
Dinner guest at the home of Mary Stafford on Sunday, November 3, was Ruby Brisbin. Ruby left later for Portland to see her son Orville Hayward who is ill.

Congratulations to David Wilbur Murhammer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson of Gates, who is Boy of the Month for October. He is a senior at Santiam High School. Paul and Elydia Smith recently celebrated their 44th wedding anniversary with dinner and an evening out with the Virgil Lewis family. Thursday morning, Oct. 31, Harold and Mary Wilson accompanied Harold's cousin, Edith Haines of Mill City, to the Stayton hospital. Mary went in the ambulance and Harold followed by car. They were later able to bring her home.

Glen and Lola Henness returned recently from hunting. They left on Oct. 18 and spent through the 24th at Vale with Ross and Ruth McCombs (former Gates residents), where time was spent bird hunting. They then went on to Enterprise to hunt elk but were unsuccessful. While there, they stayed with Marshal and Shirley Bradley. They left for home on Tuesday, Oct. 29, and arrived on Oct. 30, Wednesday.

Mary Stafford, Elsie Martin and Betty Johnson attended the wedding of Paulann Hagen and James Bruce Lunsford on Saturday afternoon, November 2, at the Gates Christian Church. Paulann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hagen of Gates and James is the son of James Lunsford of Mill City.

Clare and Norma Henness accompanied by their daughter Susan, Pedro Galveas, the Brazilian exchange student now staying with them, and Jerry Grant, all traveled to Portland on Saturday, November 2, to help their daughter and husband, Frank and Candy Tuers, move into their new home in Gladstone. Moving accomplished, Frank then took them all out to dinner.

Spending Saturday night and Sunday, November 2 and 3, with their grandparents, Paul and Elydia Smith, were Suzie and Paul Lewis. Visitors at the home of Harold and Mary Wilson on Sunday afternoon, November 3, were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spoelstra of Salem, cousin of Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Don Carey of Stayton (their daughter) and Mrs. Kay Colburn of Mill City.

Spending the weekend home with his parents, Clare and Norma Henness, was their son, Gary, who is studying at OCE. Returning on Monday, November 4, from a trip to Pleasant Hills, Calif. was Doris Rogers. She left on Tuesday, October 22, for a stay with her sister, Grace Trutner. Part of her trip was spent with her sister in Las Vegas, Nev., where they had fun and saw many of the shows. They also visited with their brother and wife, Edward and Dee Rogers, in Boulder City, Colo. On their visit there, they were able to look at pictures taken of England and Scotland where their brother had recently visited. The sisters also took in the Grand Canyon for two days before leaving. They were able to witness the first snow in the canyon and Doris exclaimed on the beauty of it. She returned home by bus.

On Sunday, November 3, the Gates Christian Church dedicated the new wall-to-wall carpeting. The church has been redecorating these past months and has a whole new look. A large delegation from the Turner area was present. Later that evening, a fellowship dinner was given and the guest of honor was Charles Sully, a former minister of the church. He is now a missionary in Seward, Alaska.

On Saturday, November 9, the next meeting of the WWI Barracks and Auxiliary will be held. It will also be the time of the next pie sale and, with the help of the American Legion, they hope to have plenty of pies to go around. Church Services are held each Sunday at the Gates Christian Church. Sunday school at 11:00 a.m. and church at 10:00 a.m. Dean Cade is the minister. Don't forget the fellowship dinners the last Sunday of the month. Everyone is welcome to come and participate.

The school board of the Linn County School Dist. will hold their meeting on Thursday, November 14, at 7:30 p.m. at the Santiam High School. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

The Santiam Canyon Home Extension Study Group will hold their next meeting on Thursday, November 14, 10:00 a.m. at the Gates Christian Church. The program is "Showing You Care." Leaders are Fay Moore and Reva Reveal. Hostesses for the meeting are Helen Haugstead and Ruby Hutchinson. Members are urged to come and bring a friend. Anyone interested is invited to come and make friends.

Thought for the day: Many do come to bring their clothes to church rather than themselves.

Riddle of the Week: What coin doubles in value when half is deducted? A half dollar.

Did you know that Monday, November 11 is Veteran's Day and that there will be no school that day?

November is the eleventh month and is referred to by Anglo-Saxons as the blood month, probably because it was during this month they killed animals for winter meat. Comes from the Latin, Novem, for nine, or ninth month in the Roman calendar. Month of the Full Beaver Moon. The flower is the chrysanthemum and Topaz is the stone.

LYONS

by Eva Bressler

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downing were in Portland Friday night to attend capping ceremonies for their granddaughter, Kathy Carleton, at the U. of O. School of Nursing held at the civic auditorium. Miss Carleton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carleton of The Dalles. There were 215 in the class.

Mary Jo Cruson Bryant is resuming her dancing lessons with a Russian and American Ballet class held at the Stayton High School Cafeteria on Monday nights. She has been studying with Russian ballet masters for three years.

The Activity Club of Santiam Valley Grange will hold their meeting on Friday, Nov. 15, at 1:30 p.m. to tie out quilts and prepare the dinner which will precede the installation meeting.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Downer were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Oppenlander and family of McMinnville, Mrs. Jerry Lucas and family of Stayton and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Downer and little daughter of Lyons. The occasion honored the birthday anniversary of their father, Mr. Downer.

Sunday afternoon visitors at the home of Lilly Faris were Mrs. Lloyd Shafer and Mrs. Ruth Halkey of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Baltzer have returned home after spending six weeks visiting with relatives in Montana, North Dakota and Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Allen Honored With Dinner

LYONS — A family gathering was held Sunday at a Salem restaurant for a dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen on their Golden Wedding anniversary.

Attending were the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bassett, Mrs. Leota Worden and Mrs. Eva Bressler of Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lierman, Lowell Lierman, Gary Butler of Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lierman and little daughter Amber of Dallas and Miss Cheryl Lierman of Monmouth who is a student at OCE.

Later the group gathered at the Lierman home in Stayton for cake and coffee where a very enjoyable afternoon was spent.

Presbyterian Church Plans Work Day

Another work day has been scheduled for Sat., Nov. 9, beginning at 9 a.m. at the Presbyterian Church and Fellowship Hall, especially for those who were not able to work two weeks ago. Some members and friends have donated money, materials, truck, and supplies and this is one suggested way of helping.

Snacks will be available and everyone is urged to bring a little something, such as sandwiches, cookies, etc. Coffee and cold drinks will be furnished.

More painting is needed, caulking, dusting, sorting and throwing away trash, washing windows, and doing floors as well. It would be helpful to bring a bucket, rags, cleanser, floor cleaner or windex.
