Mrs. Earl Loucks

Hosts Women's Assn.

The Presbyterian Women's Assn. held its regular meeting at Fellowship Hall on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 14, starting with a dessert luncheon. Mrs. Earl Loucks was refreshment hostess for the day, serving pumpkin pie to the nine ladies present. The Thanksgiving motif was used in the centerpiece of ceramic turkeys and beautiful autumn leaves.

President of the group, Hazel Hayes, conducted the business meeting, assisted by the secretary, Faye Verbeck, who read the minutes of the previous meeting and also gave the treasurer's report in the absence of Mary Tuers.

Discussion was held concerning cleaning of the curtains for the stage in the hall, as well as those in the Chancel of the Sanctuary of the church.

It was voted to send a donation of $10.00 to a mission on the Navajo Indian reservation at Chinle, Ariz., through the Trinity Presbyterian Church there.

Mrs. Hayes suggested that the group begin the study of the Twelve Apostles by each member choosing one on which to give a report.

The afternoon's program was given by Ruth Cummings who had chosen as her topic the Apostle Peter.

Devotions were given by Mary Loucks who opened with a Prayer for Thanksgiving, then the 100th Psalm, a reading from the Year Book of Prayer, featuring San Diego of the Southern California Presbytery, and closing with a humorous quip on Thanksgiving.

Attending were Hazel Hayes, Faye Verbeck, Clara Epperson, Helen Kimmel, Daisy Geddes, Jean Scott, Mary Kelly, Ruth Cummings, and the hostess, Mary Loucks.

Mill City Woman's Club Executive Board Meets Nov. 13

The executive board of the Mill City Woman's Club met at the home of the president, Margaret Snow, on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 13. Fifteen officers and chairmen of committees were in attendance.

It was stated that Mrs. R. Miller, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, was scheduled to be the speaker at the regular meeting on Nov. 19 at the home of Irene Podrabsky. "Show and Tell" Christmas ideas were on the program.

Members learned that the spring convention of District Four is slated to be held here in April, with the Junior Club to be asked to be joint-hostesses.

Suggestions were made for observance of the Bi-centennial in 1976, such as all organizations participating in the planting of marigolds to decorate the city.

The purchase of printed stationery and envelopes for the club was discussed.

Upon reading by Edith Mason, chairman, several budget items were approved.

A two-months' report by the treasurer, Kate Doble, was given and minutes of a previous meeting were read by the secretary, Mary Youmans.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess, Margaret Snow, to Mary Youmans, Edith Mason, Toni Thomas, Mae Mowry, Jenny Cauble, Evelyn Pfeiffer, Helen Kimmel, Elaine Russell, Muriel Phillips, Doris Rogers, Alma Beyer, Ruth Cummings, Kate Doble and Mary Kelly.
