Mr. Heidbrink will conclude four Sundays of study sermons on the Book of Job. This coming Sunday, grief, sorrow, and the meaning of anguish will conclude the series.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bibler over Armistice Day and helping Lorraine celebrate her birthday were Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Mills and two sons from Aloha and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lengele and family from Madras. Mrs. Lengele is Sam's daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Ohmart and John spent the Veteran's Day weekend in Roseburg visiting Mr. and Mrs. Doug Ohmart, Karen and Jimmy. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ray Poff of Salem.

Mr. Heidbrink will present four talks on four Monday evenings in December beginning Dec. 2 at 7:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of the church. Mr. Heidbrink believes that many Christians living today are living first century lives in their thinking and acting, and these lives deserve to be studied as we presently study St. Paul or St. Mark. He will present four talks on the life and thought of Pierre Teilhard de Chardin, William Temple, Paul Tillich, and Daniel Berrigan. Each talk will cover the main points of the individual's thought and experience in the Christian faith. Heidbrink will pass out a general anthology of each man's writings. Discussion and general conversation will be emphasized. The public is invited.

New members by transfer or profession of faith will be received Sun., Dec. 15. An inquirer's class is presently offering a general discussion of what is involved in church membership as well as the background of the church and its teachings. This class meets Sunday evenings at 7:00 p.m. in the pastor's study. Further information can be arranged with Mr. Heidbrink.

Pvt. Marvin Archer is spending his leave from the U. S. Marine Corps at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Archer, Jr. He has finished his boot camp training at San Diego Marine Corps Recruit Depot. He will return to California the end of this week for his ITR training.

Presbyterians in Oregon will send delegates Sun., Nov. 24 at 3:00 p.m., First Presbyterian Church, Salem to an afternoon and evening seminar on the future of churches and church life in the USA. New membership practices in many churches, evangelism and its communication of the gospel, worship and all of the radical changes occurring in this field, new programs and work in the parishes will be presented and discussed. The general background assumption of this denomination is that the future will demand massive changes in the life of the church as people living now know it. What will life be like in the church 20 years from now?

Young Home Scene Of Bridal Shower

MARION FORKS — Bonnie Young of Marion Forks hosted a bridal shower at her home Friday afternoon honoring bride-elect, Connie Layman. Co-host was her mother, Mrs. Robert Young.

Following the opening of gifts, dessert refreshments were served to the honored guest, Connie Layman; her mother, Mrs. Berneice McCall and grandmother, Mrs. Bessie Meals, both of Canby; Elaine Hopson, Coleen and Becky Lynn of Gates, Anita Hills, Lola Mohr and the hostesses, Bonnie and Flo.

Church Members Attend Meeting

Six men from the Mill City Christian Church went to Salem on Monday night to the Liberty Christian Church, where they attended the Wilamette Valley Christian Mens Fellowship meeting. A delicious meal was enjoyed by all the men attending, which was provided by the ladies of the Liberty church. It followed a Thanksgiving theme, and the tables were appropriately decorated with miniature pilgrims and harvest decor.

Following the dinner, a business meeting was held with the selection of new officers for the coming year. Then Yoon Kwon Chae, a missionary to Korea, brought a challenging message to the men. An offering of $97.40 was given to Mr. Chae for his missionary work in the slums of Seoul.

The men attending from Mill City were Dick Freeman, Dick Halstead, Eldon Hutchinson, Elmer Jeter, Irl Plymale, and Don Quinlan.

Christian Church "Old-Fashioned" Day Popular With Congregation

The "Old-Fashioned" Sunday observance last Sunday went over big with the local people. Many wore clothing styles of 45 years ago and older. Larry Plotts, Jr. and Irl Plymale would have won the prize for the most authentic attire of old-timers, had prizes been given. Numerous ladies wore old-time dresses and bonnets, which made for a colorful array.

The Sunday school classes all met in the church sanctuary where "Paw" (Elmer) Jeter taught the Bible school lesson, with the capable assistance of his wife, Eleanor, at the flannel graph. The Sunday school attendance was 35 more than one year ago.

The worship service was taken from a 1929 bulletin, and the theme was "The Old-Time Religion." Six old-timers were in attendance Sunday:

Mrs. Flook, Irl and Ada Plymale, Maggie Shaw, Floyd and Lucy Shepherd. A basket-dinner was enjoyed in the afternoon with a large crowd attending. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Homar and their daughter, Katie, were guests attending from Albany.

Wedding Shower Honors Miss Story

The Leo Poole home was the setting for a wedding shower Saturday evening, Nov. 16, honoring Miss Kathleen Marie Story. Kathleen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Prutt of Mill City and is a secretary at Frank Lumber Co. Deanha Extension Unit Plans Party For Christmas IDANSA — The Deanha Home Extension Study Group met Wednesday, Nov. 13, in the club room of the Idanha Fire Hall.

A letter was read from Mrs. June Mennis, county committee representative, in which she said the officers would be invited again to attend a county committee meeting after the first of the year. They were invited in October but were unable to attend.

Mrs. Mennis also reminded the members that this will be her last year to serve on the county committee and that they should be thinking of a replacement. The new county committee representative can either be selected from the Deanha, Santiam, Stayton or Aumsville units.

Plans for the Christmas party were discussed and it was decided to hold the party at the Detroit home of president Ruth Thomasson on Dec. 11. Everyone voted on a gift exchange. These should all be home-made: canned goods, jellies, cakes, candy or home-sewn articles such as aprons, pillows, stuffed animals or any item one wishes to make.

The January project lesson will be on the "Gourmet Touch," and will be presented by Barbara Fields and June Mennis. This lesson includes preparation of some of the interesting meat stretching ideas and some meatless dishes which are as nutritional as meat. This should prove to be a lesson which should be of special interest to everyone with the high meat prices.

The lesson for the day was "Showing You Care," presented by Goldie Storey and Ruth Thomasson. They had made a number of posters depicting "Caring" for the family, friends, members of the community, and the elderly. It was especially stressed that "Showing You Care" can affect the mental health and happiness of everyone. The members all joined in the discussion of the different points brought in the lesson which made it a very enjoyable lesson.

Following the meeting, a potluck luncheon was enjoyed by all.

AARP Potluck Luncheon Scheduled Wed., Nov. 27

There will be a potluck dinner preceding the Santiam Chapter, AARP meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 27, at the Eagles Lodge.

The dinner will begin at 12:00 noon and members should bring food and their own table service. Following the dinner and meeting, there will be free bingo.
