

Former Resident Visits

Mrs. Agnes Kellom of Stayton, a former resident here, recently spent several days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hansen, with a weekend at the Clyde Morgan home. However, she became ill and was taken to the Marion Home in Sublimity.

Calling on her a few days later, the Hansens found Mrs. Kellom much improved as she had even attended a bingo party honoring residents having birthdays last month. The affair was sponsored by St. Catherine's Altar Society and going from here were Evelyn Pfoertner, chairman, Lillian Muehlenkamp, Margaret Snow, Mary Youmans, and Lucy Schultz.

Mrs. Kellom planned to be back in her Stayton apartment as soon as possible.

Santiam Ripples

By Sally Jenkins
Pendleton was the news of the week as many students prepared for the upcoming journey to Eastern Oregon. A representative from George Fox College visited Santiam Monday.

That evening SAG met to discuss their trip to the state capitol in several weeks. The frosh also played JFK that night.

The following day the Wolverines wound up their league season by edging Scio.

The Crusaders defeated the freshmen Thursday evening at Salem Academy in Little Red's final game of the season.

During activity period Friday afternoon, chess club, FBLA, and honor society convened. Directly there after an assembly was held in the gym to announce Kevin Long and Lori Lawrence as boy and girl of the month.

GAA went on a bowling-pizza party in Salem Friday after school.

Early Saturday morning seven FBLA members and club advisor Paula Hilgers attended and participated in a district skills contest at Chemeketa Community College. Bringing home honors for Santiam were Sally Jenkins, with a first place in the spelling competition, and Diane Blan, who took fifth in the junior typist division.

Next week it's Pendleton or bust!

Mr. and Mrs. Cree Attend Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Cree spent Saturday and Sunday at Silver Lake.

Saturday evening they attended a reception at Paisley honoring Mrs. Dorothy Martin, grand Martha of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, given by Fremont Chapter #169 of Paisley.

Mr and Mrs. Cree were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leston Linebaugh of Silver Lake for the evening. Mr. Linebaugh is worthy patron of Fremont Chapter and Mrs. Linebaugh is conductress.

Mr. Linebaugh and Mr. Cree became acquainted two years ago when they both served as grand page escorts at Grand Chapter in Portland.

Mrs. Linebaugh is a sister of the late "Rube" Long, author of "The Oregon Desert."

On the return trip to Mill City, the Crees had the misfortune of hitting a deer between the Silver Lake and Ft. Rock area, killing the large buck and damaging the front end of their Blazer. They were able to drive it home and neither were injured.
