Poppy Poster Contest Winners Announced

IDANHA — Winners in the "Poppy Poster Contest", sponsored recently by the American Legion Auxiliary-Idanha Unit 141, are as follows:

Participants in the contest were students of the fourth and fifth grades and two students in the sixth grade.

Winning a first prize in the fourth grade category was Jim Kutz, second place went to Valerie Olivera and third place to Jeff Lawrence. In the fifth grade, Dana Feyerherm captured first prize, Julia Van-Fleet second and Jay Fritcher third place. In the sixth grade, John Olivera took first place and Brian Feyerherm, second place.

Rules in the contest included that each participant portray a "Poppy" and make up a slogan to help promote sales of the Poppy. The sales of the Poppy are sponsored nationally by all American Legion Auxiliaries before Memorial Day.

A spokesman for the Auxiliary here said, "this is the first time the local Auxiliary has used the poster program in some eleven years, and that they planned to use the program again next year."

The posters are on display at Detroit Patio and Gift shop.
