Rev. John Heidbrink, Ann and Haven and their houseguests, Millie and Dave Dempsey from Huntsville, Alabama, spent last week vacationing at Victoria and Vancouver, B. C., Canada and the San Juan Islands. The Dempsey twins left for their home Monday.

On display at the Presbyterian Church is a beautiful collection of pictures of the Disciples of Jesus, a gift from Katie Ewell, who acquired them from the photographer, Mrs. June Richards, some years ago and recently completed mounting and preserving them. Live people were the subjects for the camera studies, after much thoughtful research. A small brass nameplate appears at the base of each picture.

Notices have been received by friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen (Marge Schroeder), that their new address is 2457 San Carlos Circle, Colorado Springs, Colorado 80909. They recently moved from Alaska, but before that they lived a number of years in Tokyo, Japan, and Honolulu, Hawaii. Both Mr. and Mrs. Allen lived here with their families years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Bern Mueller are working hard in order to have their new yarn shop ready about Sept. 1. In the meantime, Mrs. Mueller would be happy to have anyone in need of supplies stop by. She stated that it might be a good idea to phone in advance, as she is spending some time at the South Salem shop.

First Family Gathering In Over Fifty Years

Antique Show To Be Held In Albany

Twelve antique dealers from Oregon and Washington will be participating in the Ninth Annual Antique Show and Sale to be held Sat. and Sun., Sept. 6-7, at St. Mary's Hall, 815 S. Ellsworth St. in Albany. Hours will be from 12 noon to 9 p.m. on Saturday and from 12 noon to 6 p.m. on Sunday.

A large selection of glassware, jewelry, furniture, primitives and silver will be on display. All items will be for sale, with prices ranging from $1.00 to several hundred dollars.

Gammi Chi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sponsors the show, which is a benefit for Oregon's Children's Hospital school in Eugene. A $1.00 admission donation is charged and is good for both days. St. Mary's Women's club will have lunch and dinner available for those attending the show.

Bern and Anne Mueller have returned from a week's trip through Central and Eastern Oregon and a short visit with friends near Boise, Idaho. Along the way they visited several ghost towns and did a little rock-hounding. The day after their return, Mr. and Mrs. John Ashe-Everest stopped by on their way from Southern California to Canada. The Ashe-Everests are old friends of the Muellers when as young girls in Montana. Dorothy Ashe-Everest's mother attended school with Anne Mueller's mother. The Ashe-Everests were accompanied on their visit by their son Bob and his wife, Sharyl.

On Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gray and daughter, Robin, were overnight guests at the Bern Mueller home. The Grays are old friends from Southern California, but now reside in Clatskanie, Ore. They were on their way to California to visit relatives.

Local Forest Service Office Loses Two Men

Ernie Schlewck and Vern Rush were honored at a farewell dinner at the Frontier Inn in Gates on Aug. 13. Ernie is retiring after 18 years for the forest service on the Detroit district. During those years, Ernie has had several positions ending his career as a trail crew foreman. Ernie's co-workers said he will be a hard man to replace and the knowledge he has acquired and passed through the years will be missed by those left to fill his shoes. Ernie's future plans include a lot of fishing.

Vern Rush is transferring to the Shasta Trinity National Forest in California after working for the Detroit district for 14 years. Rush is a highly qualified timber sale officer and is respected by loggers and fellow employees, a district representative said.

Mr. Schlewck was presented with a fly fishing rod and Mr. Rush received a large book entitled "Timber Country." Dave Black and Arden Corey each spoke briefly and Val Andermatt gave an amusing impression of how a timber sale officer operates.

State Fair Opens Sat.

Everything is ready for the 110th Oregon State Fair to open Sat., Aug. 23. Sporting a "Salute to the Sea: Neptune's Harvest" theme, the fair will run through Labor Day, Sept. 1.

Fair officials are predicting that attendance records will be shattered with totals possibly reaching 600,000 for the ten-day exposition. Gov. and Mrs. Bob Straub will christen the 1975 fair on opening day. In honor of the fair's sea theme, a bottle of champagne will christen the fairgrounds ship-style at a special ceremony.

New fair features this year include a new theme area called "Seascope," with a giant water tank for aquashows, new race horse barns; a 49-space trailer park; new restrooms; a mezzanine level in the poultry building; protective backflow devices in the water system; new Friendship Square stage; a lighthouse beacon atop the "flame tower"; more garden space; newly painted livestock barns; and much more.

Special days at the fair this year include: Sat., Aug. 23, Opening Day, Governor's Day, Water Resources Day; Sun., Aug. 24, Oregon Coast Day; Mon., Aug. 25, Oceanography Day; Tues., Aug. 26, Golden Age Day; Wed., Aug. 27, Coca-Cola Family Day, Oregon Fairs Day; Thurs., Aug. 28, Boat and Recreation Day, Kid's Day; Fri., Aug. 29, Seagoing Services Day; Sat., Aug. 30, Swashbuckler's Day; Sun., Aug. 31, Drum and Bugle Day; Mon., Sept. 1, Labor Day and Kid's Day.

Tickets are now on sale for the grandstand shows. The Bobby Goldsboro Show will be Aug. 23, Johnny Cash Show on Aug. 24, B. J. Thomas Show, on Aug. 30, Drum Corps West Championship Finals, Aug. 31, Seals and Crofts, Sept. 1. Tickets are available at the Fairgrounds Box Office, Meier and Frank and Steven and Son. According to Fair Manager Lillie Ward: "The 1975 Fair really is the entertainment bargain of the year." For just the price of grounds admissions, fairgoers can enjoy the following entertainment: Aquashows including synchronized swimming, water polo, scuba diving and kayak demonstrations. Ma-Ho-Pin, swaypole dancer—billed as the world's greatest lady aerialist; The Puffets of Hank Higgins, a marionette show; The All-Oregon Talent Show; several bands and singing groups from throughout Oregon; and of course the S. J. M. Fiesta carnival with games and rides.

For a fee in addition to the admission cost, people may enjoy the World Championship Rodeo and All-American Horse Show, the horse racing, Big John Strong's Mini-Circus which includes elephant rides, clowns, aerial acts, juggler, trapeze, animal acts and a leopard. Ticket prices for all shows can be obtained by calling the fair at 378-PAIR.
