Womans Club Holds Christmas Party

Twenty-four ladies attended the annual Christmas party of the Mill City Woman's Club held at the home of the president, Margaret Snow, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 16, with two guests, Thelma Rummell and Pat McClintock.

The affair opened at 6:30 with a no-host planned buffet dinner, with the guests seated at small tables in the living-room after serving themselves at the festive dining-table.

Following the dinner, a very short meeting was held to facilitate the making of necessary announcements. Kate Doble mentioned that the two dogwood trees had been purchased in memory of Mabel Schroeder, a long-time member, and would be planted at the proper time.

An invitation was read from the Jr. Woman's Club concerning their scheduled New Year's Eve party at the fire hall.

Those volunteering to assist with a health clinic on Jan. 13 included Wilma Shepherd, Evelyn Pfoertner, and Margaret Snow.

The January meeting on the 20th will be held at 7:00 p.m. at the Malt Shop with the Campfire Girls entertaining and serving refreshments. The business meeting will follow.

Entertainment for the remainder of the evening consisted of the singing of Christmas carols, the exchange of gifts, as well as those brought for the Chemawa Indian School and the boys of Multnomah Cottage at the Children's Farm Home, and the playing of bingo for prizes and "black-out" for the door prize.

At the conclusion, light refreshments of punch and Christmas desserts were served.

Eagles Aux. Hold Christmas Party

Under the capable direction of Joyce Nicholson, seven tables were in play Thursday afternoon, Dec. 18, when the Eagles Auxiliary held their Christmas pinocle party.

The enjoyable afternoon started with a 12:00 noon, cold-plate buffet luncheon, after which pinocle was played.

Winning high score for the men was Glenn Shelton with John Swan placing second. High score for the ladies was captured by Ruth Kerr, and placing second was Ann Ogden. The pinocle prize was won by Blanche Swan.

The next card party will be on Jan. 8, starting at 1:00 p.m.

Rebekah Lodge To Install Officers

A special meeting of the Santiam Rebekah Lodge #166 was held for the purpose of qualifying officers to be installed in January.

District Deputy President Mrs. Albert Carr certified 11 officers who had not previously qualified.

Following the session there was a decorating session preparing the hall for the annual Christmas potluck on Dec. 20. The decorating committee consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Anderson, Mrs. Dave Barnhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Carr, Mrs. John Childress, Mrs. Velma Harrison, Mrs. Jack Stoddard and Mrs. Otto Weidman.

Gift Exchange Held Sat., December 20

The annual IOOF-Rebekah Christmas potluck and gift exchange was held on Dec. 20.

The evening started with dinner at 6:30 for members, their families and their guests. Following dinner, music, entertainment, including a guitar and vocal duo by Dean and Louis Childress were enjoyed.

Dennis Flatman, as Santa Claus, distributed the gifts.

The remainder of the evening was spent playing bingo, cards, and pool.

Acacia Assembly Has Christmas Party

Acacia Assembly, International Order of Rainbow for Girls held a Christmas party at the Masonic Hall in Stayton, on Dec. 17.

Sandy Newkirk read a Christmas poem. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carlson were present and Mr. Carlson told the girls about the gifts they could receive for bringing in petitions, six month term for the officers.

Mrs. Loren Newkirk, junior, and Mr. Leroy Plane, senior, of Turner, acted as Santa Claus and each one present was given gifts of crocheted animal favors, made by Mrs. Plane, and a Christmas stocking of fruit, nuts and a pencil, also a gift of the Planes.

A gift exchange followed. Ice Cream Snowballs were served by the worthy advisor, Sandy Newkirk.

Attending from Mill City were Sue McClintock and Mr. and Mrs. Carlson.

To Celebrate Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Engelen

Twelve o'clock noon, Christmas day will mark the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Engelen, of Gates. They will celebrate the occasion as dinner guests, in Salem of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schulke, of Carmichael, Calif., and their daughter Phyllis Lindburg, of Everett, Wash.

Relatives and friends are invited to a reception at The Church of the Valley, in Albany, on Dec. 27, between the hours of 1:00 and 4:00 p.m. This event is also being hosted by their two daughters, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Don Engelen, of Albany.

The couple was married at the bride's home in Kadoka, S. D. on Dec. 25, 1925. They moved to Hillsboro, in 1941. After several years in shipyard work, Mr. Engelen taught in the Rudville school system, from which he retired in 1968 after 21 years. The Santiam Canyon has been home to them since that time; first in Mill City and presently in north-west Gates.

Bazaar Prize Winners Revealed By St. Catherine Society

The St. Catherine Mini Bazaar held on Dec. 14, at the Malt Shop, was a most successful event.

The raffle prizes were won by Ray Von Der Heide, the first prize of a hand painted picture; the second prize of a knitted stole went to Pat McClintock, and the third prize of a hand painted mug to Pauline Brunner. The wooden chalice was won by Bob Valdez; the wooden plate by Joe Yost, and the wooden toothpick holders, one each, by Lillian Muehlenkamp and Dale Kirsch. The jar of candies guessing game was won by Pat Clauson.

Everyone there agreed that home baked items were the best.

The Altar Society hopes to have another mini bazaar next year.
