State Contract

Loggers to Meet

Associated Ore. Loggers State President Russell Graves, Molalla, announces "Logging is Planned Timber Harvest" as the theme for his association's upcoming annual meeting. The Friday and Saturday meeting, Jan. 16-17, 1976, will be held at the Valley Inn, Eugene.

Robert Dwyer, well known long time Pacific Northwest logger and advisor to federal government on world timber matters, will give the Saturday morning keynote address.

Subjects of operating importance will comprise the two day program for the associations 300 members.

There are many ways to say it, but we still prefer
