

LAKE COUNTY EXAMINER.

Lakeview, Oregon, June 21, 1884.

A Card From the Editors.

The LAKE COUNTY EXAMINER will hereafter be edited by Messrs. Snider & Allen. The paper will be run independent...

The presidential hall is beginning to roll quite lively.

The halcyon time of the United States are to be recognized, sufficiently by congress to have a bureau of labor statistics.

It is bad enough to see an old man reaching through the streets of a town in a state of bodily infirmity...

General laws, state of Oregon, page 4, 860. That if any person shall sell, give or come to be sold...

A Tribune Washington special reports that Congressmen Blackwell says: "I try to make a racket but I can't seem to get any where..."

The Helena Independent has the following to say in regard to the annexation of Mexico. The remarks are sensible and well timed...

From interviews with Joseph W. Harper, of Harper Bros., and George Haven Putnam, of Putnam's Sons...

Our Negro population is far better than either the Indian or Chinese. And there are a few million Indians and half-breeds worse than our Indians.

There have been in large numbers with us twenty and thirty years, and are now as Mongolian as ever. They number eight hundred and have scarcely a family in the whole lot...

What, good, then, can come from the addition of 8,000,000 of a less congenial and less hopeful element.

The following opinion as to the "prejudicial effect" of the colored race is given by a leading member of the democratic and republican parties.

The Star has a letter on Chinese immigration, in which it labors to show that the republicans have turned a roundabout in adopting the plank in its present platform.
