REMARKS.

(Take steps in London, from Paris.)
There were generally half a dozen offers for the county, but the one which was made by the United States, and which was turned up by a man found to be an ace.

I am altogether too much up to the snuff now—days to be the man for business to apply to.

It was the game slightly modified. A hotel came to me at the door as I was going out and said:

"Are you Mr. Sharp?"
"Yes."
"You registered here last night?"
"Yes."
"From London?"
"Yes, yes, what about it?"
"Yes, yes, what about it?"

"I walked down Broadway, and a few moments after I felt a tap on my shoulder, and holding around I saw a dapper well-dressed stranger."

"I never heard of Detroit. I leave for Detroit to-morrow night."

"All right. I'll tell him so."

How He Got Some Good Brandy.

(New York Tribune.)
"Yes," said an old sea captain to a Tribune reporter, "sailors are apt to drink when they get ashore. They drink on board ship, sometimes, too when they can get liquor."

The Young Captain of the Jordan des Plantes.

(Boston.)
It had been imported from the Goshawk, and it was the first living specimen of this great xanthochromic ape which had been brought to France. Its study would have presented many points of interest, not alone from the natural history point of view, but also from the opportunity it would have afforded to studying the development of the intellectual faculties.

The Parables of Cuba.

(Washington Transcript.)
A dispatch received from Washington states, on the authority of George H. Butler, that ex-Governor Warrmouth of Louisiana, has returned to Cuba to purchase Cuba for $100,000,000, and to use it as a sugar and tobacco plantation.
