

NOTES TAKEN ALONG THE LINE.

Journal, Yreka: "Henry Haybrook, of the Bob Hopkins ranch, a few miles south of Yreka, is now raising Angora goats, and claims it is the best paying investment he has yet undertaken. He tried cattle, which did not do well at his place on account of losing so many calves. The goats make good saleable meat and provide hair and milk in large quantities. They are also good fighters and knock out coyotes with their stout horns in short order; in fact, they are dangerous for even men to handle, though always ready to treat every person or animal well if let alone." 34-2

You can't "beat the Dickens" any more than you can beat Charley Graves on gents' footwear. See his fine line of shoes. 34-2

Clayborn Fisher, of Warner Lake, was in town on Friday. Last week The Examiner reported the birth of a "daughter" at the Fisher home, but Mr. Fisher says the girl was a bouncing boy, and, as his four-year-old was named William McKinley Fisher, the new boy is to have the next best handle to his name—Teddy Roosevelt Fisher.

Whorton & Fitzpatrick have now on hand a full stock of the celebrated Jesse Moore Whisky. 34-2

Isaac Deter, prominent farmer in Goose Lake Valley, was here last Thursday. Mr. Deter realized 1,728 bushels of barley from 64 acres, one-half volunteer, which he considers fairly good for a "dry year." Had the usual June showers come on all our farmers would have had much larger crops.

See the beautiful sample line of new fall and winter suitings at The Monogram. 34-2

The "Big Valley Gazette" says that Wells, Fargo & Co. are making arrangements to re-establish express offices in the Big Valley towns on the line between Termo and Beiber. Offices will be located in Adin, Lookout and Bieber. The express line should be extended to Alturas and Lakeview.

While Schminck is waiting to get into his new brick store, he is offering bargains in tinware, agateware, guns, etc. He is selling cheap so as to put in a select stock when he gets in larger quarters. 34-2

Before a man speaks disrespectfully of "turn-up noses," he ought to notice whether the girl whom he is conversing with is built that way. By being careful this way many times dire disasters are averted.

See Bernard & Son about the Universal Range. It's all the talk now. 34-2

According to the latest census San Francisco has only a population of 342,787. This falls far short of what was expected.

Post & King lost a big stock in the fire but they have another just as good. Fine liquors and cigars; A. B. C. beer. Under the opera house. 23

Frank Parrish, of Big Valley, has sold a large bunch of horses in the Sacramento Valley at $40 to $100 a head.

Reno says "Hello" to Sacramento now, the Sunset line having been extended through to the Nevada town.
