

NOTES TAKEN ALONG THE LINE.

There is no headache in Jesse Moore whisky. That's because it's pure.

William Petree has qualified as Road Supervisor in District No. 5—North Warner.

William Stanley, who is running the Tonningsen sheep, was in from Plush last week.

The Examiner is in receipt of the latest 1900 puzzle from Dr. Joe Dewey, of Alturas.

Sheriff Dunlap has been directed by the County Court to proceed to collect all delinquent taxes forthwith.

Still the buzz of the saw and the ring of the hammer lend sweet music to the ear in Lakeview. Many men are at work building.

Frank Coker, a former resident of Lakeview, and a popular young man, has returned from Alaska, and was in town this week.

Another delightful rain last Friday cooled and cleared the atmosphere, and will no doubt tend greatly to abate the prevailing sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Doss, well known in Lakeview, are now residents of Boise City, Idaho, and order their Examiner forwarded to them there.

R. M. Russell was in town last Friday settling up some business affairs. He will take charge of the Grand Central Hotel at Alturas next Saturday.

M. A. Striplin, wife and little son, arrived from Surprise Valley last week on a visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Striplin is prospering on a ranch near Cedarville.

The same judges and clerks of election that served at the June election will serve in the November election at the same polling places. These officers were appointed for two years.

Cedarville Record: "T. A. Henderson last week purchased Cressler & Bonner, John Dodson and Bruno Tyer-var's cattle and James Fee's cows, about 500 head in all, for the Oakland Meat Market."

S. F. Ahlstrom, the saddler, is now located at the old stand on Main street with a larger and better stock than ever. Ahlstrom's is a handsome saddlery, and orders for those celebrated Lakeview saddles are rushing in.

J. C. Conn, the Silver Lake merchant, arrived from San Francisco last Thursday evening, via the Southern, and started for his Silver Lake home the following day. Mr. Conn has been below for three weeks making purchases of general merchandise.

Col. Wint, formerly stationed at Ft. Bidwell, now commanding the Sixth Cavalry in China, was at the head of his command in the battle of Tein Tsin, in which 100 Chinese were killed and 5 Americans wounded. Col. Wint still owns a farm at Ft. Bidwell.

George McGrath returned last Saturday morning from Little Shasta, where he assisted the ball team of that place in defeating the Edgewood ball tossers in the shameful score of 32 to 16. The game was for $550 a side, and was witnessed by 2,500 people. The Siskiyou News, in noting the players, says of our townsman: "Pitcher McGrath has a great arm and may some day play with league teams."

"In traveling," said George Elliot, "I shape myself betimes to idleness and make fools' pleasure," but it is not a fool's pleasure to listen to the grand concert phonograph and take a glass of cool A B C beer and a fine cigar at Post & King's. It's real enjoyment. 28-tf

Henry Meryfield, who purchased 7,000 head of sheep in Lake county, has been arrested in Modoc county for "violation of the sheep ordinance"—moving his sheep at the rate of one mile per day across the range lands of Modoc. Meryfield positively refused to pay the license for grazing sheep in that county; consequently, his arrest followed.

J. E. King, murderer of Church in Sonoma county, and well known in Modoc, was recently captured at Orland, Cal., and is now in the Marin County jail. King eluded the officers for thirty-six days, and was finally arrested through information given by a cousin. His sister died in Sonoma county when she heard of the murder, and the prisoner himself is on the verge of insanity.

Joe Marks and a party of friends, all of Alturas, recently visited Crater Lake, and Mr. Marks tells the Alturas Plain-dealer that the "Crater Lake is a fraud and a humbug—nothing but a great big hole filled partly with water." The American people like to be "humbugged," so, according to Mr. Marks, about three thousand of them were "humbugged" at Crater Lake this season. However, "humbug or no humbug," we dare say the gentleman enjoyed the beautiful scenery in that neighborhood, and was well repaid for his trip, even if he did partake of too many huckleberries.
