PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Lakeview public school opens next Monday.

W. H. Musselman opened the school in Union district last Monday.

Miss Jennie Maxwell has been engaged to teach the Warner Lake school. The term commenced September 10th.

Miss Ella Callahan has been engaged to teach the primary department of the Paisley school, but school will not open for three weeks.

L. N. Chicquette, a teacher who has been in this vicinity since the late fire, has been engaged to teach the Cogswell Creek school, and began his duties last Monday. Mr. Chicquette is from Wisconsin.

Prof. and Mrs. E. D. Poill, two popular educators of Eugene, Lane county, will teach the two departments of the public school at Silver Lake. Mrs. Poill was, up to September 2d, Miss Estelle Hyland, the charming daughter of one of Lane county's highly respected families. On that date Mr. Poill claimed her as his bride, and they will commence life in "double harness" in Lake county's educational field. The Examiner extends best wishes, and a hearty welcome to the young couple.

S. D. Coulter & Co., the city market men, are now serving their patrons with fine beef, mutton, corned-beef, pigs' feet, etc. An Examiner reporter saw a beautiful specimen of mutton on the scales at the shop a few days ago—round and plump as a partridge, weighing an even 100 pounds dressed. Coulter & Co. have 40 head of the same kind that they are now butchering daily. These fine mutton were purchased from Duke Bennett, of Warner.

The Republican campaign in Oregon was opened in Portland last Saturday night by Congressman Frank Cushman, of Washington, and Congressman T. H. Tongue, of Oregon, both of whom delivered stirring addresses and were enthusiastically received.

A. M. Smith, the New Pine Creek miller, was here Thursday on business. Mr. Smith has taken a partner in his milling business in the person of Hi Barnes, who is known as a first-class miller.

Schminck, the hardware man, has a large new stock of hardware. He has a complete line of air-tight heaters. See Schminck for everything in the hardware line. 35-2

The most dainty and effective pills made are DeWitt's Little Early-Risers. They are unequalled for all liver and bowel troubles; never gripe. Lakeview Drug Co.

The census gives the city of Portland a population of 90,426—an increase of nearly 95 per cent over the population ten years ago.

Dr. E. B. Ramsby and Miss Dolly Woodcock returned Tuesday from Klamath county. They recently visited Crater Lake with the Lakeview party.

Miss Eva Amick has gone to her home at New Pine Creek, after clerking for several months for J. S. Field. Miss Amick will probably attend school in Alturas this winter.

W. M. Harvey returned Saturday from Portland, Jacksonville, Ashland and other towns on the railroad. Mr. Harvey left his daughter, Josie, at the Sisters' school in Jacksonville, and says he had an enjoyable trip.

Miss Minnie Hopkins sails for the Philippines on the 15th inst. She has received from General Shafter the assurance of an appointment as teacher in one of the government schools in Manila at a salary of $75 per month, with free passage to the Islands.

The fireplugs for the city water works have been placed in position, one at the corner of the Daly drug store, one at the corner of Reynolds' store, one at the corner of G. H. Ayres & Co.'s store and one on Main street, at the corner of S. F. Ahlstrom's saddlery.

Large sun spots, astronomers say, caused the extreme heat this summer, and doctors declare nearly all the prostrations were induced by disorders of the stomach. Good health follows good digestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. If you have indigestion or dyspepsia it will quickly relieve you and permanently cure you. Lakeview Drug Co.

WEST SIDE NOTES.

George Newkirk, in company with C. O. Metzker and an Examiner representative, visited the West Side of Goose Lake last Saturday. Mr. Newkirk is just from Madera county, Cal., and came especially to locate in Goose Lake valley. His object in visiting the West Side was to examine the property of Mrs. J. Aviragnette, on Drew's creek. He found the place suitable for his purpose and has since purchased it through Beach, McGarrey & Metzker, of the Lake County Real Estate Agency. Mr. Newkirk will improve his place, which consists of 160 acres, and will pay particular attention to raising vegetables and poultry for the market.

The West Side is now in a more flourishing condition than ever before. Most of the farmers have arranged rabbit-tight fences to prevent depredations from these pests in the future. Their crops this year were over average.

The Bernard & Edwards thresher was at work on a crop of wheat, barley and rye at John Harvey's ranch last week, and the yield was very good. Threshing on the West Side was completed Monday.

Road Supervisor William Pherson of the West Side district has been doing some good work there this year. The grades have been made easy traveling.

Fall and winter dress goods just received at Bailey & Massingill's.

The emergency bags sent by a church society to Kansas soldiers in the Philippines contained among the necessities a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the well known cure for piles, injuries and skin diseases. The ladies took care to obtain the original DeWitt's Hazel Salve, knowing that all the counterfeits are worthless. Lakeview Drug Co.

J. L. Smith returned from Portland and other points last Saturday, after an absence of nearly two months, during which time he visited the principal towns between Portland and Ashland. "Prof." Smith is representing the Equitable Life Insurance Company, and wrote considerable insurance since leaving here. He will remain here a few weeks.

Lemon & Hartzog are now in business at New Pine Creek, having purchased the Ben Warner stock and store building and removed their stock from the Davis Creek store. They now have a large stock of general merchandise, and open up at the State line town under most favorable auspices.

Tom Colvin and Stanley McLaughlin were up from New Pine Creek last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Colvin will return to Lincoln, Cal., to spend the winter. The mild winter climate at Lincoln he finds conducive to his good health.

A new line of men's furnishing goods for fall and winter, just received at Bailey & Massingill's.

New house, new goods, new prices. G. Schlagel. 36
