

BRAVE LAWTON KNEW.

"When we speak against imperialism or protest against wars of conquest they say we are pleading the cause of the Filipino. I deny it."—W. J. Bryan.

General Lawton, writing on this subject a short time before his death, said:

"I wish to God that this whole Philippine situation could be known by everyone in America as I know it. If the real history, inspiration and conditions of this insurrection, and the influences, local and external, that now encourage the enemy, as well as Portland Telegram: Senator Pettigrew says that Roosevelt was a mile and a half away from the front of the battle of San Juan Hill. But Pettigrew is frequently much farther off from the truth than that.

"There are a number of Democrats in this county who intend voting for McKinley this year, who supported Bryan four years ago, and cannot be coaxed or bluffed into voting any other way," says the Yreka Journal. "These men vote for McKinley according to the dictates of conscience, and have no right to be questioned in their freedom of choice."

Woe in Lone Star State!

Galveston and Other Cities Nearly Swept Off the Earth--Loss of Life May Reach 10,000 --Loss of Property Millions of Dollars.

A storm struck many cities and towns in Texas on the 8th instant, and left destruction and desolation in its path. Galveston was almost completely wiped off the face of the earth, and what were once the streets were for days running rivers carrying dead bodies to the Gulf. Entire families died together. The loss of life may reach ten thousand, and of property many millions of dollars. Scenes of desolation are on every hand. The scenes presented cannot be told in a prosaic manner. Screaming women, bruised and bleeding, some bearing the lifeless forms of children in their arms; men, broken-hearted and sobbing, bewailing the loss of wives and children; streets filled with floating rubbish and dead bodies, constituted a part of the scene. It was a hurricane, accompanied by a flood, the like of which never was seen.

the actual possibilities of these islands and people and their relations to this Great East could be understood at home, we would hear no more talk of unjust 'shooting of government' into the Filipinos or of hauling down our flag in the Philippines.

"If the so-called anti-imperialists would honestly ascertain the truth on the ground, and not in distant America, they, whom I believe to be honest men misinformed, would be convinced of the error of their statements and conclusions and of the unfortunate effect of their publications here. If I am shot by a Filipino bullet, it might as well come from one of my own men, because I know from observation confirmed by captured prisoners, that the continuance of the fighting is chiefly due to reports that are sent out from America."

Senator Mark Hanna is worrying the Dem-Pop. press. They want President McKinley to call him off.
