

AN ENTHUSIASTIC CITIZEN.

Mr. Conn Tells of Some Things He Witnessed and Heard on a Trip to San Francisco.

Hon. V. Conn, the Paisley merchant and wool buyer, arrived in Lakeview from San Francisco last Wednesday evening. During his absence of three weeks he purchased a large stock of goods, sufficient to complete every department in his big Chewaucan store.

There was much excitement and bustle in the city during his stay as the admission Day celebration was at fever heat.

On the 9th of September California celebrated her fiftieth anniversary of statehood, and Mr. Conn says the celebration in San Francisco was grand beyond description—a day long to be remembered by all who were fortunate enough to take part in or witness it.

Mr. Conn is, as all who know him will testify, an enthusiastic republican, a firm believer in the gold standard, and a warm advocate of all republican doctrines. He knows that McKinley prosperity has been felt everywhere, and he has felt the effects himself. He talked with leading politicians in the metropolis and came away with the firm impression that the Golden state will go strongly republican this year—stronger than ever, in fact. He believes that it is "all over now but the shouting," so far as the Presidency is concerned, but Mr. Conn is an alert, as well as a sanguine republican; one who does not believe in leaving the field until the enemy is routed completely, and for that reason does not hesitate in the work for his party until the closing of the polls on election day.

He returned via Reno and the N. C. & O. railway. While traveling over the route he learned of the visit of Mr. Moran, who owns the narrow gauge, and came out on an inspection tour. Mr. Moran has been a life-long Democrat, but declares openly that he will support McKinley this year. Mr. Conn is satisfied, from what he learned on the trip, that the narrow gauge will soon be extended to Likely, Modoc county.

At Paisley Mr. Conn is building one of the finest residences, modern in all its appointments, to be found in this section of Oregon. The edifice will be two-story with concrete basement, fire-places, with a perfect water system, and plastered throughout. This home will be an ornament to the beautiful town of Paisley.

Poisonous toadstools resembling mushrooms have caused frequent deaths this year. Be sure to use only the genuine. Observe the same care when you ask for DeWitt's Hazel Salve. There are poisonous counterfeits. DeWitt's is the only original Witch Hazel Salve. It is a safe and certain cure for piles and all skin diseases. Lakeview Drug Co.
