

...Town and County...

School books at Ahlstrom Bros'. 37

The recent rains have made the new grass start up as if by magic.

The grain crop in Summer Lake valley is reported large this year.

The first real frost of the season appeared last Tuesday morning.

A. E. Follett is reported seriously ill at New Pine Creek this week.

Read new advertisements of C. U. Snider and The Monogram in this issue.

Born—In Lakeview, Sept. 17th, 1900, to the wife of William Benefiel, an 8th boy.

The list of jurymen drawn for duty at the circuit court session appears in this issue.

Mrs. J. W. Reeder is reported quite sick at the residence of Mrs. J. Hammersley.

You want a cider mill, don't you? See the B. & H. Jr., No. 2, for sale by Field & Burrus. 37

C. U. Snider, C. Henkle and C. H. Dunlap have all received handsome new safes.

No graduating class was opened in the public school this week, but it is to be hoped that a sufficient number will attend to open such class.

Last Tuesday E. V. Lewis sold to James Stillman the S. V. Rehart residence now occupied by E. C. Stickel and family. Price paid $650.

Luman and D. T. Fosket of Warner were in town Tuesday on business before the land office. Fosket Bros. are now engaged in stock raising and are prospering.

Mesdames J. N. Fitzgerald and W. G. Spencer have gone to Ashland after their mother Mrs. L. A. Pike, of Grants Pass, who will meet her daughters at Ashland and return with them to Lakeview to spend the winter.

A big invoice of fine Old Bourbon Whisky has just arrived in Lakeview. These goods were bottled expressly for Post & King by Hilbert B. & Co., Louisville, Ky. It is in pocket sized pints, with nickel drinking caps. It is said to be the finest bottled ever shipped to this section. 37-1f

J. S. Field, Oattie, and Mr. and Mrs. A. returned last Monday from San Francisco after sixteen days absence. Field purchased a large stock of goods while in the city, and with his daughter took in all the sights to be seen. Mr. Harris also purchased a large and handsome stock of furniture for the new store he intends opening in Lakeview.

Wm. Harvey, capitalist and stockman of Lake county, returned home last Monday from a business trip to San Francisco. While absent Mr. Harvey visited Tehama county, his old home, and attended to business affairs there. He was a witness of the Admission Day celebration in San Francisco, and says it was a grand affair. Mr. Harvey is an enthusiast on the railroad building into this section, and says the N. C. & O. is surely coming on.

Prof. R. A. Hopkins of Klamath Falls has been engaged to teach the school at Bonanza.

J. F. Pease has returned from Summer Lake and will probably remain in Lakeview.

Lakeview needs many new residence places to accommodate those who desire to live here.

Ernest Brown, who went with the Lakeview party to Alaska, is now at Harrington, Washington.

A full car load of Bain wagons, direct from the factory is now on the road to Lakeview for Field & Burrus. 37

Walter F. Reed of Paisley and A. M. Gallagher of New Pine Creek, were transacting business in the county clerk's office last Monday.

John Reed of New Pine Creek has sold to John Cary of East Omaha a band of Angora goats. The goats will be taken to Termo for shipment.

A. T. Miller, the Silver Lake teamster arrived this week and went to New Pine Creek after a load of flour for F. M. Chrisman, the Silver Lake merchant.

Judge Chas. Tonningsen is having an addition 28x14, built to the residence he recently purchased from S. V. Rehart. When completed he will have a fine home.

In another column will be found a notice regarding the dimensions of the L. O. O. F. lot which is erroneous. The correct dimensions are 76 feet, 3 inches, by 45 feet.

W. S. Morley is reported very seriously ill with fever this week. Several members of the family, including Mrs. Morley, have also been ill, but are reported better.

C. A. Rehart has moved his family to Lakeview from Crooked Creek, and they will occupy the residence formerly owned by Maj. Chrisman, and recently purchased by Mr. Rehart.

A. L. Howell has gone to Anderson, Cal., with thirty head of fine mules recently purchased by him at Summer Lake. The animals will be sold wherever Mr. Howell finds a market.

George Batchelder moved last Monday into his new residence north of the home of Henry Lofftus, and R. T. Striplin the same day moved into the house vacated by Mr. Batchelder, in the same neighborhood.

J. W. Maxwell returned last Friday from a business trip to Surprise valley. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Geo. H. Ayres and children, who have been visiting Mrs. Ayres' mother at Bidwell for about two months.

George W. Mapes arrived from Plush Monday. His vaqueros gathered 750 head of beef cattle in Warner, and the drive to the railroad was started Monday morning. Six hundred of these cattle have been on pasture at the Venator ranch for two weeks. During the visit of Mr. Mapes to Warner he purchased 300 head of stock cattle, 100 from J. E. Boone and 200 from Al. McDowell, paying $25 per head all round.

Call at Mrs. G. S. Easter's residence and inspect her fine stock of Fall millinery goods.

Workmen will commence on the Snider and Wilcox brick buildings about October 5th.

Dan Maloy has leased his band of 3000 sheep to George Maupin of Warner. The lease is for five years.

Ladies, when you are looking for beautiful gloves of all shades and the best make don't overlook the stock at The Monogram. 37-2

Emory Noble, well known in Modoc county, was kicked over the heart by a horse and instantly killed at Anderson, Cal., last Saturday.

Ahlstrom Bros have a handsome plush settee and shoe fitting stools in their shoe department. Have your shoes fitted when you purchase them.

J. H. Buick and wife were here from Big Bend the first of the week. Mrs. Buick was on her way to Lakeview to visit friends.—Fall River Tidings.

Field & Burrus have a big line of spring tooth and steel frame harrows and cleaners on the road. These fine implements will be here in a few days. 37

Barney Gruman was in from Crooked Creek this week, and reports the late rains as very beneficial to the range feed. Young grass is springing up like in the spring time.

Ladies, your attention is called to the handsome line of latest styles in foot wear just received at The Monogram. Our shoes fit like our gloves. Don't overlook them. 37-2

Ed Tatro has moved his family into Lakeview from the ranch six miles west of town. They occupy the residence recently vacated by J. C. Basey, on South Dewey street.

Dr. F. E. Smith reports the arrival of a 9-pound son to the wife of C. E. McKune, of New Pine Creek, at the residence of Mrs. Myrtle, Lakeview, September 17, 1900.

Jim Melick was in from Barnes valley last week driving a fine, big team of mares. One of the animals tipped the beam at 1630, and the other 1586 pounds, at Bernard's. Jim says that is the kind of stock they raise in his section. He recently sold his beef cattle, as did also C. L. Becraft, and others at Barnes valley, receiving $31 per head.

Field & Burrus, local agents for the Baker & Hamilton Company, are strictly in the field with implements of the latest pattern and vehicles that will stand the test. Every article they handle is a prize winner and is gilt-edge. They now have a carload of implements on the road from Sacramento, which consists of grain drills, Disc and Peerless gangplows and other implements needed by the farmer. These plows are hardened steel mould boards and chilled shares. Teams have already gone after this load, and will return in eight days. Wait for these implements, farmer, if you want the best for the least money. 37