

A Tour of the East.

A. Venator, county commissioner of Harney and well known here, has just returned to Harney county from a visit to the Northern and Eastern States. He visited the important cities as far east as Boston, and had an interesting trip. Mr. Venator is a close observer, and is deeply interested in the success of the Republican party, and on his tour found no cause of alarm for Republican success, though the Bryan forces are active everywhere. He believes there is no earthly chance for Bryan to win unless it be owing to Republican apathy and over-confidence. East from Grand Island, Nebraska, he says the corn crop is enormous, the yield this year being one of the greatest known in the country's history. He tells the Harney News that in Nebraska he found thousands of sheep just from the northern and western ranges, from which they have come in in unusually poor condition on account of the dry summer ranges. The markets, while he was there, were not flattering to the sheep seeking them. In Montana he found the cattlemen approaching winter with poor stock and not an over abundant supply of hay.

Race Meetings.

The Examiner acknowledges receipt of complimentary tickets to the Sumpter Racing Association's meeting, through the courtesy of Secretary Seymour H. Bell, Sept. 26th to 29th. Also a ticket to the 15th Annual District Fair of the Mt. Shasta Agricultural Association, at Yreka, commencing Oct. 3d, continuing four days. For the latter we are indebted to Secretary C. S. Smith. Grand preparations are being made at both Sumpter and Yreka for successful meets, and neither of these live little cities ever do anything half way. The purses and premiums at Yreka amount to $4000.

Poisonous toadstools resembling mushrooms have caused frequent deaths this year. Be sure to use only the genuine. Observe the same care when you ask for DeWitt's Hazel Salve. There are poisonous counterfeits. DeWitt's is the only original Witch Hazel Salve. It is a safe and certain cure for piles and all skin diseases. Lakeview Drug Co.
