

Lake County Examiner

LAKEVIEW, OREGON, SEPT. 27, 1900

J. N. Williamson—Joint Senator.

J. N. Williamson, Senator from the joint district of Crook, Klamath, Lake and Wasco counties, was born in Lane county, Oregon, November 8, 1855. His parents moved to Salem in 1864, and he was educated in Willamette University. In 1876 he went to Prineville, then in Wasco county, and has resided there since. With the exception of two years spent in newspaper work there, during which time he edited the Prineville Review, he has been engaged continuously in the stock business, principally sheep. In 1886 he was elected Sheriff of Crook county. In 1888 he was elected to the House of Representatives and again in 1898.

The Arkansas returns are anything but encouraging to the Bryan party. The vote shows a loss of 27 per cent to the Democrats and a gain of 17.6 per cent for the Republicans. It should be remembered that Chairman Jones, who is directing the Bryan campaign, lives in Arkansas. It is he, also, who is an active member of the Round Bale Cotton Trust.

The Populist organs admit that McKinley's letter is a strong and able document by asking the question: "Who wrote McKinley's letter of acceptance?" One thing certain, Mrs. Bryan didn't.

There isn't much comfort in the Vermont election for the demo-pops when the fact is realized that the republican gain in Vermont state over the vote in 1898 is 9911.

NOTES TAKEN ALONG THE LINE.

See those new wrappers at Bailey & Massingill's.

Mrs. Hoyt, of Yreka, is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. R. Dunlap.

To arrive in a few days—a large line of ladies' wool shirt-waists—at Bailey & Massingill's.

We have a large line of cloaks, capes and jackets for ladies, misses and children coming. Wait for them. Bailey & Massingill.

The Bank of Lakeview is now doing business at the old stand, in the building formerly occupied by that institution prior to the fire.

S. F. Ahlstrom has purchased the Ruggles lot adjoining his saddlery on the south, and will erect a substantial brick building thereon. He paid $350 for the lot.

Ted Jaquish and family arrived last Thursday from Cedarville and will occupy the residence of James Snelling for the winter. Mr. Snelling and family left Saturday for Cedarville and will occupy the Jaquish residence this winter.

J. H. Turpin, whose property is on the west, and S. F. Ahlstrom, T. J. Magilton and J. S. Field on the east of the block surrounded by Main, Ballard, Dewey and Canyon streets, have each given six feet of their land for an alley running through the center of the block.

C. W. Dent arrived from Terro last Thursday evening with a pair of thoroughbred Rambouettes, with which he expects to improve the breed of his sheep. The animals are beautiful specimens of the thoroughbred and were purchased by Mr. Dent in Salt Lake, Utah. The Rambouettes are very large and are heavy wool producers. No finer bucks are to be found in Southeastern Oregon than Mr. Dent's new purchase.

The Adin, Modoc county, creamery is now turning out 110 squares of fine butter every day in the week. Soon 200 cows will supply the skimming station, making the total run up to 200 squares per day. Enough milk is insured to run the creamery steadily all winter. It is to be hoped that Lake county will have a creamery in successful operation by next spring.

L. P. Klippel, who recently arrived from the Alaskan gold fields, was in Lakeview last week greeting old friends. Mr. Klippel does not think Alaska such a bad country, and says that Nome has been defamed by disappointed people. He says Nome was a splendid business center last summer, but is somewhat overrun at the present time. His brother Fred Klippel and family have gone to Omaha, Nebraska, where Fred will again work for the Burlington road.

TIMBER LAND NOTICE.

The Ashland Record roasts the people of its own town severely for the cold-blooded reception they gave the Oregon Press Association, at the meeting of editors there on the 19th and 20th insts. The Record says: "There has never been anything so wanting in the courtesies and decencies of life yet exhibited toward an organization of self-respecting citizens of a state as was Ashland's treatment of the Oregon Press Association, save perhaps the dirty trick that Roseburg hotel men played upon the committee of the Oregon people who brought the National Editorial Association to Oregon last year."

FINAL PROOF.

Land Office at Lakeview, Or., September 22, 1900.
