

"ABOVE THE CLOUDS"

A Large Audience Greeted the New Pine Creek Amateurs in Lakeview Saturday Night.

The Drama Was Well Presented and Everybody Was Delighted—Receipts, $63.

The New Pine Creek amateur dramatic company held forth at the opera house in Lakeview last Saturday evening, and was accorded a hearty welcome. A large audience was there to greet the neighbor players and the splendid manner in which the pretty drama, "Above the Clouds," was presented was an agreeable surprise to those who witnessed it—as it was well known that the drama was put on under various difficulties—lack of time for rehearsal, substitution of original cast and other inconveniences.

The evening's entertainment opened with a vocal solo, "Blue and Gray," by Miss Lillie Walters, which brought forth applause.

When the curtain went up again it displayed a pretty scene in a mountain home. Miss Etta Vinyard as Susie Gaylord captured the audience in her graceful manner and splendid acting. The soubrette part is much to her liking, and she acted well.

Miss Nettie Vinyard as Hester Thorne sustained admirably the part of the wronged wife; she looked it and acted it, though there was a lack of emotional work at critical points. However, this was fully made up for when the time came to show her cold, unforgiving nature and disdain for the man who wrecked her life by his false tongue. Hester Thorne is a difficult part and Miss Vinyard handled it well.

Crazy Phil, sustained by Oliver Reynolds, was well done, though with a little more practice Mr. Reynolds should certainly have given it better, as he has the proper conception of the part. The only objection was the monotone. However, we dare say, that few amateurs could have improved on the character as played by Mr. Reynolds. This was also a very difficult part.

Frank Thompson, as Alfred Thorpe, the wrecker of lives and the woer of the fair Grace Ingalls, sustained his part well under the circumstances. Mr. Thompson had little practice, as this character was originally filled by Mr. Poe.

Miss Ollie Hart was another substitute in the character of Grace Ingalls. Miss Minnie Reed was the original in this part. However, Miss Hart left nothing undone in sustaining this character. She did full justice to it.

Miss Lura Amick and Elmer Reed as Lucretia Gerrish and Amos Gaylord, respectively, sustained their parts well.

Titus Tuttle as the man who thought more of his stomach than he did of the fairest of feminines, was well done by Charles Oliver. His make-up was good and he was really amusing.

Dexter Amick as Howard Gaylord, the persistent lover, was up to the part and demonstrated the fact that he had lost no time in practice in reality—and no fooling. Albert Gallagher as Curtis Chipman, the man of few words and straight to the point, when it came to rivalry in his affections for the fair Susie, was voted "all right" by the audience, Arthur Follet as Nat Gaylord, the poet lover, was never at a loss for words of music in his love affair. The make-up of the two latter gentlemen after their battle over Susie Gaylord was splendid. Mrs. A. J. Neilon delighted the audience in her recitation, "Creeds of the Bells." That alone was worth the price of admission, and Mrs. Neilon fully sustained her reputation as an elocutionist of rare ability.

The receipts amounted to about $63, and, after paying expenses, a neat little sum was left for Rev. J. W. Warfield, for whom the benefit was given.

Stock Sales.

Last Tuesday H. R. Dunlap bought from T. B. Vernon and Price Vernon 15 yearling steers at $20 per head.

Joe Howard, of Drew's valley, last week sold 140 head of beef cattle to W. T. Wilson of Horsefly, Klamath county, at 5¼ for cows and 6 cents for steers.

Creed McKendree, the young stock-raiser of Bly, was in Lakeview yesterday on business. Mr. McKendree has sold out of the cattle business, only reserving 25 head of picked cows from his band. The sale was made last Friday to W. F. Wilson, 12 two-year-old beef steers, 32 yearlings and the remainder cows and calves, 110 in all. He received $25 all round for the stock cattle and the beef and $12.50 for the calves, some of them only six weeks old. This is the same as $37.50 for cows and calves, which is considered a good price. Mr. McKendree says he sold because he was uncertain of the coming presidential contest, though he believes there is little danger of Bryan becoming president. However, to be sure of it, he wanted no Bryan cattle.

Post--Brown.

Last Wednesday evening, after The Examiner had gone to press, our friend Peter Post slipped over to the clerk's office and obtained a license to wed the lady of his choice. The same evening, in the parlor at the Boyd residence, Mr. Post and Mrs. Mary M. Brown were joined in marriage by Judge Chas. Tonningesen. The groom is a popular business man of Lakeview and the bride has a large circle of friends. All who know the newly wedded couple will join with The Examiner in wishing them a long life of happiness and prosperity. The wedding was private.

Postoffice Discontinued.

F. O. Bunting, proprietor of the Southern stage line, has been notified by the Postoffice Department at Washington that the Postmaster General has ordered that the postoffice at Willow Ranch, Modoc county, Cal., be discontinued from October 15, 1900. This order will necessitate the changing of Willow Ranch mail either to New Pine Creek or Davis Creek.

Read J. Frankl's "notice" in this issue.

Dr. Herndon went to Paisley Wednesday on a professional visit.

Born—In Lakeview, October 2, 1900, to the wife of Frank O. Bunting, a son.

Extra mess mackerel, codfish bricks and other varieties of the finny tribe, at Geo. H. Ayres & Co. 39

Now is the time for carpets. Pleasing and durable patterns displayed at Geo. H. Ayres & Co. 39

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Currier were down from Paisley yesterday visiting and on business.

Rubber goods for men, women and children, in all sizes and varieties, at Geo. H. Ayres & Co. 39

Winter is upon us; have you the usual amount of wood in for the season? Remember, you only need about one-half what you usually burn if you have one of H. Schminck's air-tight heaters. Schminck has them in all sizes and grades. 39-2

Charley Graves is continually receiving new stock for the Red Shoe Store. If Graves can't suit you in footwear nobody else can. The Red Shoe Store is the only exclusive shoe house in Lake county. Give Graves a call. Jammerthal building, Water street. 39-2

A number of Lakeview people went to Alturas this week to attend the Fair. Among those whom The Examiner learned of were Mr. Mrs. W. M. Harvey, Mrs. G. Schlagel and Mrs. F. M. Miller, Misses Lena Hendricks and Edna Mitchell, Dan Maloy, F. A. Fitzpatrick, Joe Burrus and Charlie Burrus.

Two young people from Fall River Mills, Cal., arrived here last Wednesday and were married in the evening by Judge Chas. Tonningesen at his residence. The contracting parties were Mr. Frank Martin and Miss Susie Aromsted. The wedding was private. Judge Tonningesen says they are coming pretty thick, two in one evening, but that's what he is here for, and he likes to make people happy.

Ministerial Appointment.

The Oregon Methodist Conference in session at Ashland adjourned on Sept. 24th. The following local appointments were made: W. J. Wright, Lakeview; J. W. Warfield, Canyonville and Myrtle Creek; Richard Fysh, Ft. Klamath; C. A. Stockwell, Klamath Falls; D. T. Summerville, presiding elder, Grants Pass; Israel Putnam, (formerly of Paisley) Oakland; Paisley, to be supplied. It is understood that Rev. J. W. Wright who will come to Lakeview is a talented young minister recently from the East. He is said, also, to be a splendid vocalist.

Bieber's Good Goods

Are beginning to arrive.

A complete line of Groceries on display adjoining Arzner's shop.

Prices are made to meet any and all competition.

You'll be satisfied with my Goods—They are Good and Guaranteed.

Free delivery in Lakeview.