

Lake County Examiner

Dr. Alice Magilton.

Miss Alice Magilton left this week for Portland to enter the dental college for a second course. She will take the third course and graduate as a full-fledged D. D. S. Miss Magilton is in love with her chosen profession, and has already become proficient in her work through practical experience, having obtained the first rudiments of dentistry in the parlor of O. F. Demorest, the well-known dental surgeon of Lakeview. When she returns home for the third time she will have in her possession a diploma and will be announced in these columns as Dr. Alice Magilton, Lakeview, Oregon.

A cattle man of Fall River valley says he is going to hold his beef until he gets 8 cents a pound for it. It will doubtless be pretty tough beef when he lets go of it.

C. C. Pratt is not only a breeder of fine horses, but he is going to branch out now and improve the breed of his cattle. He will leave this week for Summer Lake to inspect the herds of thoroughbred cattle owned and raised by John A. and James Foster. While there he intends to purchase two young thoroughbred Roan Durham bulls to put in his Goose Lake service pasture.
