GOVERNOR T. T. GEER.

Governor Geer opened the campaign in Ashland, September 29th, before a large and enthusiastic audience. Among other things the Governor said:

"Mr. Bryan's heart is always bleeding for the welfare of his country or rather for the danger it is always in. Four years ago the gold standard was the 'octopus' that was gnawing at his vitals with deadly intent, but since he has seen that the country has never been in as good condition as at present, he sees our beloved republic in the merciless grasp of 'empire.' He rushed frantically to Washington to secure the ratification of a treaty with Spain which was to pay $20,000,000 to that country for the title to a certain thing, presumably for the welfare of the country, and then in his intense desire to be uncomforted parades himself daily before the country declaring that Spain didn't own the thing we bought, anyway. He hugs Tillman and Aguinaldo with both arms, each and severally, and while Aguinaldo shouts heroically for the Declaration of Independence and the 'consent of the governed' Tillman shrieks into the other ear, 'We stuffed the ballot boxes, we shot. How, with a free vote and a fair count are you going to beat 135,000 with 95,000?' And Mr. Bryan supports both and they each support him.

"The country is prosperous beyond anything ever before known in its history, and, since there is no excuse for every voter not knowing that this spurious cry of 'imperialism, militarism and trusts' is intended to disguise the real issue of the free coinage of silver, the election of Mr. Bryan would be a calamity well calculated to destroy one's faith in the intelligence of the American people."

Never before has the American Flag been so universally respected.

McKinley and a continuation of good times, or Bryan and panics, even worse than under Cleveland free trade? Take your choice.

Like in every other international difficulty the diplomacy of President McKinley in the Chinese matter has been applauded and followed by the greatest nations of the earth.
