Mrs. W. S. Morley and little son are on the road to recovery.

Mrs. W. H. Penland and Miss Mary Reynolds are said to be convalescing after prolonged and dangerous illness.

All our neighboring counties are just concluding their fairs. In 1911 Lake county will have a hummer—a bigger and better fair than ever, in New Lakeview.

Sam Duke has been sitting up nights during the past week with Russell Welsh, a young man who is ill with heart trouble at the residence of M. T. Walters. He is an employe of Armstrong, the contractor.

Ed. O'Farrell, erstwhile stockman from Summer Lake, was a visitor here last week. He will soon go to San Francisco to spend the winter with his brother William. Ed. is now a warm supporter of McKinley, protection and progress.

When you go to Klamath Falls don't fail to see C. D. Wilson the popular caterer at the Gem saloon. He carries the finest stock in town and will treat you right. The Gem is the popular resort. Try the Hermitage whisky there. 25-1f

Twelve hundred copies of The Examiner are printed this week, and many copies are sent out to people who are not yet subscribers. Send for a copy to be forwarded to a distant friend. Five cents per copy, done up in wrappers and ready for the mail.

George Duncan ("Lone Pine") has been spending the week in Lakeview, attending court and shaking hands with his numerous friends. "Uncle George" bids fair to live as long as the years that have transpired since pre-historic man existed.

It is well known that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will heal a burn and stop the pain at once. It will cure eczema and skin diseases and ugly wounds and sores. It is a certain cure for piles. Counterfeits may be offered you. See that you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Lakeview Drug Co.

Contractor E. J. Armstrong has almost completed the C. U. Snider and Dick Wilcox brick buildings on Water street. The buildings are on the same ground the Snider store and postoffice were located before the fire. This solid brick block will add greatly to the improvement and appearance of the town.

Mr. Dunlap and family of Ashland were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Heryford a few days last week. Mr. Dunlap has been traveling through Southern Oregon for over a month, looking for a location, but has concluded to return to Rogue River Valley.

Mr. Eastwood, who had the Camas Prairie sawmill rented, has gone hence. He dropped a letter to Jim Metzker with this message: "When you read this I will be in Buffalo Hump." He also requested Metzker to turn out enough lumber to pay his indebtedness.

Do not get scared if your heart troubles you. Most likely you suffer from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and gives the worn out stomach perfect rest. It is the only preparation known that completely digests all classes of foods; that is why it cures the worst cases of indigestion and stomach trouble after everything else has failed. It may be taken in all conditions and cannot help but do you good. Lakeview Drug Co.

County Assessor-elect John B. Blair arrived from Silver Lake last week, and will take up his residence in Lakeview for the future. Mr. Blair says that all the cattle men in Silver Lake and Summer Lake have sold their beef, excepting Fred Foster. Porter Bros. and George Small drove to the railroad. The prices were satisfactory.

Dr. W. H. Lewis, Lawrenceville, Va., writes: "I am using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in my practice among severe cases of indigestion and find it an admirable remedy." Many hundreds of physicians depend upon the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in stomach troubles. It digests what you eat, and allows you to eat all the good food you need, providing you do not overload your stomach. Gives instant relief and a permanent cure. Lakeview Drug Co.

Judge Henry L. Benson, who a few weeks ago closed a political engagement in California, having stumped that state for the Republican standard-bearer, has no fear of the result of the impending election. The Judge was enthusiastically received wherever he went in the Golden State, and talked to large audiences in San Francisco, San Jose and many cities in the Sacramento valley. He says California will give McKinley and Roosevelt about 15,000 majority. Judge Benson was handsomely and royally treated by the people of California.

POLITICAL.

Mr. Beekman Speaks to a Large Audience

THE DEMOCRATS TAKE A TURN

Messrs. Raker, Reames and Dalrymple Advise the People to Vote for Bryan and the Empty Dinner Pail.

Mr. B. B. Beekman was greeted with a large and attentive audience at the opera house on the evening of October 13th, in his arraignment of the Democratic party and its principles. The gentleman spoke for an hour and a half and touched upon every important issue of the campaign. He criticized the Democrats for their cry against the Republican trusts and mentioned the ice, Standard oil, cotton and other so-called trusts established by leading Democrats of the country. He made a bit on the full dinner pail, and the flag in the Philippines—characterizing the full dinner pail as "the political gospel of all men." He called attention to the sound monetary standard of McKinley and compared it with the monetary system that Bryan wants to foster on the country to lead to disaster and ruin; pointed out the wonderful transformation that had taken place since McKinley's election as compared with the disaster that followed the last democratic administration; he admitted that evils did exist, but in spite of them prosperity and all its joy was with the American people to-day.

Mr. Beekman was in good voice and his speech was well rendered.

Judge Webster made a few feeling remarks about the flag and our soldier boys in the Philippines, and he said them well. Owing to the lateness of the hour the Judge only spoke for a few moments.

Miss Mae Miller's popular songs were highly appreciated. The audience was supposed to join in the chorus, but did not respond to Judge Webster's appeal.

Our Democratic friends held a meeting at the opera house last Tuesday evening, which was well attended, but it was the coldest audience ever seen in Lakeview. Whatever applause given the speakers must have come from the Republicans present, for it was very weak. The speakers were Hon. John E. Raker, Hon. A. E. Reames and Hon. C. H. Dalrymple. The evening's program opened with the "Star Spangled Banner" by Mrs. Chrisman, which was well rendered.

Mr. Raker was in good voice and is really a fine speaker. It was noticeable that he had carefully prepared his speech, though he gave out the impression that he was too busy to think much about political matters. He started off with a roast for the "Republican trusts," but said nothing of the big "Democratic trusts." He dwelt long on the "full dinner pail," and endeavored to mislead his audience in the meaning thereof; said it was a base motive of the Republicans to touch the heart of the voter through his stomach; but he did not tell his listeners that while the full dinner pail was here there was a noticeable absence of Coxey Armies, Free Soup Houses, and tens of thousands of starving human beings asking for bread—grim hunger stalking gaunt and feeble throughout the land—as was the case during the last Democratic administration—as "every school boy and every school girl" knows full well. His argument on "imperialism," and the attempt of the Republican party to establish colonies (taking Mexico as an example) was pitifully weak; his idea of pulling down the flag in the Philippines and giving immediate independence to a people who do not know how to conduct a government, was un-American; he attempted to pervert the intention of the Republican administration toward the Filipino people, and concluded by asking his audience to vote for that "greatest of statesmen," William J. Bryan.

Mr. Reames, our affable district attorney, was the next speaker, but he was so "mixed up on cattle brands and marks" that he declared that he was in no condition to make a political speech. He was so muddled that if he were to point out a "Mark Hanna Republican he would look for a brand on the left hip and a swallow-fork in the right ear." The speaker passed briefly over a few important issues, and finally came to the awful Democratic "boogaboo" of "imperialism." Our friend's dreadful fear was that under Republican rule, the country was fast approaching the state of Empire.

Col. Dalrymple only spoke for twenty minutes, devoting the major part of the time to the discussion of the money question, which he literally tore in fragments, showing what a dreadful state the Republicans had brought the country to by their sound money policy.

New Furniture Firm.

Studley & Harris is the name of a new firm of furniture dealers in Lakeview and their announcement appears in this issue of The Examiner. Mr. Studley is the well-known and prosperous farmer of Goose Lake valley, and Mr. Harris needs no introduction, as he conducted a similar business in Lakeview prior to the late fire, and was one of the heavy losers in that catastrophe. The new firm has an abundance of money behind it, and will no doubt conduct an up-to-date business. At present the Lakeview Furniture Co. is located in the Field building, just vacated by The Examiner.

Take Notice.

All persons knowing themselves indebted to the late firm of Harris & Sublette are requested to settle with F. E. Harris, as all accounts of the firm have been turned over to him for collection. F. E. HARRIS S. R. SUBLETTE Lakeview, Or., Oct. 10, 1900. 40-3
