

BIEBER'S GOOD GOODS

ARE GOODS THAT EVERY-ONE WANTS. THERE IS GOOD REASON FOR IT.....
POPULAR PRICES. THE RIGHT QUALITY. EVERY
ITEM IS A MONEY SAVER
FOR THE PURCHASER.....

My willingness to return your money for dissatisfaction proves the quality of my goods

S. J. STUDLEY F. E. HARRIS
STUDLEY & HARRIS
LAKEVIEW FURNITURE CO.

Full and complete stock of Everything in the line of
FURNITURE

JUST OPENED. GOODS AR-
RIVING ALL THE TIME. NEXT DOOR TO J. S. FIELD
...LAKEVIEW, OREGON...

CALL AND SEE OUR STOCK AND GET OUR PRICES

SMITH'S NEW PINE CREEK ROLLER FLOURING MILLS

A. M. SMITH Proprietor.

Under the new management this mill is now prepared to furnish customers with the best of and is paying highest price for grain

Orders Promptly Filled. Try the New Management.

J. S. FIELD

Leader in Fair Dealings.

Will say Good-by to the Old Store and will open up Business in His New Brick Store next week with Lower Prices and Good Goods.

BOUGHT AT RIGHT PRICES

He Fears no Competition and Guarantees SATISFACTION

LOCAL STOCK NOTES.

Some Important Sales Made in Lake County
During the Past Fortnight.

At Lone Rock last week 100 head of yearling steers sold at $23 per head. Brattain Bros. of Chewaucan drove 200 head of beef to Shasta valley last week.

Wade and George Williams of Likely, Modoc county, have 120 head of fat cattle for sale.

J. D. Coughlin of Chewaucan has 450 head of beef on the way to the railroad in Siskiyou county.

The George Small and other cattle, sold to L. Gerber, were recently driven from Silver Lake to Klamath.

Gus Schroder of Silver Lake bought last week 20 yearling steers from John Kelley of Paisley and 5 from J. K. Bannister at $20 per head.

About all the beet cattle will be driven out within the next twenty days. Sellers are satisfied with this year's prices, and expect equally as good prices in 1901.

Wm. Barnes of Summer Lake has sold his stock cattle to M. Sult. Market price. He also sold his beef some time ago, 58 head, to Kohlhagan of Roseburg, receiving 6½ for 50 two-year-olds, and 5½ for 8 head of cows, weighed at Ft. Klamath.

Lake county's beef cattle are nearly all sold now. But two bunches of importance remain to be disposed of, we understand, and those belong to George M. Jones and Innes Bros. of Chewaucan, numbering about 500 head.

I. D. Applegate was in town over Monday from Edgewood ranch. He delivered to C. E. Sherlock of Lake county, 2800 head of sheep the first of last week, for which he received $3 per head. The band consisted of wethers and dry ewes.—Klamath Express.

Miller & Lux have sent 400 head of beef from Harney county, a portion to the Los Banos ranch in California and the remainder to the San Francisco market. They have 1,300 head in pasture in Harney awaiting delivery to Parsons of Salt Lake.

Messrs Gerber and Swanson have purchased in this valley during the past week 788 head of beef, divided as follows: Heryford Bros. 552; D. R. Jones 100; Frank Bowers 71; Walter D. Tracy 22; C. C. Pratt 20; Henry Lechman 13. The bunch was started to the railroad from Drews valley last Friday. The price averaged about $30.

MODOC COUNTY NEWS

Stolen Sweets From Our Alturas Contemporaries.

The gate receipts at the Alturas Fair the first day amounted to nearly $500.

The drug store of C. W. Anderson & Co., at Alturas, has suspended business. Dr. Alex Gibson will soon depart for Reno to practice his profession.

Born—In Alturas, October 4, 1900, to the wife of Ansil Morse, a daughter.

The Board of Directors of the Modoc Fair return thanks to Frank Reynolds, of the Oakland Meat Company, Oakland; Ches Parker, of Summer Lake, and Nally Willey, the cattle buyer, for their valuable assistance at the race course each day.

George C. Turner, of Surprise Valley, took premiums at the Modoc Fair with a bunch of thoroughbred sheep.

John Briles, of Davis Creek had a fine display of vegetables, and took premiums at the Alturas Fair.

Born—In Alturas, October 7, 1900, to the wife of Walter Cochran, a son.

Pay Car beat Tornado, the Lakeview horse, in the half-mile dash, matched race, at Alturas, on the Sunday following the Fair. The half is too short a route for Tornado, but it takes a good one to catch him in a mile and a quarter.

The scarlet fever scare at Davis Creek has entirely subsided. There are no cases of scarlet fever there, and the people, generally, in that vicinity are enjoying good health.

Fent Smith, who had charge of Louis Gerber's colts, Alexander and Gargo, at the Alturas Fair, will continue in charge of the racers until the season of 1901.

Edward Myers.

Edward Myers, aged 23 years, brother of Rev. L. A. Myers of Lakeview, died at New Pine Creek of typhoid fever last Sunday morning at 6 o'clock. Deceased was born and reared at New Pine Creek, and was an exemplary young man. He was married early in the fall of 1899 to Miss Argivia Teters. The sorrowing wife is also very ill and the shock of her husband's death has almost taken her life. The funeral occurred last Monday from the Baptist church at New Pine Creek and was largely attended. Rev. C. W. Holloman officiated at church and grave.

See our line of Ladies' Kid Gloves. Bailey & Massingill.

COUNTY NEWS.

Miss Lighty returned to Alturas Wednesday morning.

Buy your tinware from C. U. Snider and save 25 per cent.

Post & King will soon be in their handsome brick building.

City Electric light poles are now located on every street in Lakeview.

Headquarters for staple and fancy groceries, Geo. H. Ayres & Co. 41

Wanted—To buy or keep, a good milk cow. Enquire at this office. 41-2

See those beautiful materials for paper flowers at The Monogram. 41

Jim Handley's steam planer is making things hum up on Canyon street.

The Circuit Court has had a large amount of business before it this session.

Buy your tea, coffee, spices, baking powder and extracts from C. U. Snider.

Go to the social dance at the opera house Saturday evening and have a good time.

Don't fail to see the Black Serenaders at the opera house next Monday night, Oct. 22d.

One of those enjoyable social dances will be held at the opera house Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hickerson, parents of Mrs. P. Post, were in Lakeview last week on a visit.

When you come to town from the country don't fail to see Pete and Jonas under the opera house. 41-1f

A fine bell arrived for the city this week to take the place of the one destroyed in the fire.

Do you want to run up against a good thing? If you do, call on Pete & Jonas, under the opera house. 41-1f

Mr. Irvine, one of the proprietors of the Rustler, arrived from Salem yesterday morning.

Call at the Neilon residence for up-to-date millinery; second door south J. S. Field's store, Main street.

Nothing so handsome ever seen before in Lakeview as those collarettes, capes and jackets for ladies at C. U. Snider's.

This issue of The Examiner is a good paper to send away to your friends. Done up in wrappers ready for the mail, at this office, at a nickel each.

Ladies' and Gents' Night Shirts, Ladies' and Children's Skirts in endless varieties at Geo. H. Ayres & Co. 41

Mrs. John Scott accompanied by Miss Emma Dobkins, of Paisley, is visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Dick Wilcox, this week.

Watch for that fine line of latest fashion Capes and Jackets for ladies' and children to arrive this week at Bailey & Massingill's.

Miss Eva Currier, niece of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Currier of Paisley, was married yesterday, Oct. 17th, at Corvallis, to Mr. Scott.

A big line of Ladies' and Children's Capes and Jackets will arrive at Bailey & Massingill's this week. Wait for them; they are beauties.

M. W. Snyder, one of the young wool-growers of Lake county, has gone to Plush, and is preparing to winter with the Snyder Bros' sheep on the desert.

Just the latest style now in the East—those beautiful capes, collarettes and jackets for ladies at C. U. Snider's. Prices in the reach of everybody.

Big teams loaded with freight for Lakeview merchants are rolling in every day. Our merchants are getting on elegant stocks for the winter trade.

Ladies: Order a new suit from Neilon & Maxwell and get something swell. These goods are ordered direct from Chas. A. Stevens & Bros. of Chicago, and need no other recommendation.

Jackets! Well, I should smile. Capes! Oh, so lovely. Collarettes! Well, just see them at C. U. Snider's.

It won't be any use for Senator Hamden to show us any new steps in the cake walk next Monday night, for he has been outdone by local artists. Still you will get the worth of your money if you go and see him.

Upon making a cash purchase at Geo. H. Ayres & Co's store you receive a tag for which we pay back 5 per cent. Geo. H. Ayres & Co. 41

There is a treat in store for Lakeview people next Monday night, Oct. 22d, at the opera house. The Black Kentuckians, all artists, will be there in the gay skit "Coon-ey Island," and Senator Hamden in the cake walk.

In Lake county the scalps of coyotes and other wild animals, for which the state pays a bounty, amounts to 3,904 in all to Sept. 30th. In Harney county 9,646 scalps were taken. The lowest is Polk county with 8 scalps.

The Frankl dwelling has been purchased by Mrs. J. Aviragnete, and was this week moved to her lot on Main street, where her residence stood before the fire. It will be used as a residence and a tailors department combined.

The Black Kentuckians Monday night. Uncle "Doc" Vernon is said to be failing rapidly.

Attorneys Frank Schlagel and B. B. Beekman returned to Portland Monday night.

The boys say that W. M. Harvey is a pretty good guesser (?) on winning base ball teams.

Mrs. Watson, wife of Hon. C. B. Watson of Ashland, is visiting friends in Klamath Falls.

Jim Givan of Plush arrived last Thursday and has been attending court all week as a witness.

Elmer D. Lutz arrived from Silver Lake last Friday. Mr. Lutz has a case in the Circuit Court.

Dan Maloy won the sweetmeats in the cake walk at Alturas to his favorite air, "My Honolulu Lady."

Arthur Smith of Paisley was down last week after a load of grain for Geo. M. Jones, the Chewaucan stockman.

A large number of teams are arriving in Goose Lake valley from Harney after Lake county grain, flour and fruit.

Dell Brattain, the well-known stockman, of Chewaucan, came down to attend the Republican meeting Thursday evening.

Hon. V. Conn, the busy merchant and enthusiastic Republican, was down from Paisley Thursday evening to attend the political meeting.

Al McDowell and wife of Warner were in Lakeview last week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Loftus. Mr. McDowell is attending court.

E. E. Rinehart, of the Crooked Creek sawmill, was in town Saturday. He says the mill is still running full time getting out lumber for New Lakeview.

J. B. Lober, representing the greatest evening paper on the coast, the San Francisco Bulletin, was here this week soliciting subscriptions and did a big business.

S. L. McNaughton, the accommodating and popular superintendent of the Western stage line, arrived in town last Friday and will remain a week or ten days on business.

William McJilton and daughter, Mrs. Harry Bailey, and children, have been spending a week at the old McJilton homestead at Davis Creek, returning to Lakeview last Saturday.

Judge Webster and Judge Spencer addressed a big meeting at the opera house last night, discussing the political issues from a Republican standpoint. The Examiner will report the speeches briefly next week.

Frank Evans, the popular clerk at Bailey & Massingill's, as a rule, never takes anything that doesn't belong to him, but last Thursday night he took a dose of the measles which he is very anxious to "shake."

F. C. Lusk, the prominent lawyer of Chico, Cal., and L. B. McDaniel, arrived here last Thursday. Mr. Lusk is counsel for the French-Glenn Livestock Co., who is the plaintiff in a big case before the Circuit Court.

Mrs. A. Amick of New Pine Creek made us a pleasant call last Saturday, and presented the office with a few samples of very fine apples grown at her old home place at Davis Creek. These apples are about as fine as was ever seen in this country.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerber of Klamath county have been spending sometime this side the mountains from their Klamath home. Mr. Gerber is buying stock and watching his racers, while Mrs. Gerber accompanies him to enjoy the delightful climate of Lake county.

J. S. Blaisdell has filed on 160 acres of fine land at Round Grove, on Sprague river, and left this week to commence building fence and residence, and making other improvements. Blaisdell's land is situated in a pretty little valley, adjoining the quarter section of Lou Wells.

The Field store and I. O. O. F. hall above is one of the finest brick buildings in Southern Oregon. Mr. Field has started the ball to rolling and ere long the Main street business section of Lakeview will undoubtedly show up well with the Water street business blocks.

I. N. Converse, the New Pine Creek orchardist and farmer, late of Pipestone county, Minnesota, was in Lakeview last Thursday. Mr. Converse realized from his farm of 110 acres this season 2000 bushels of barley and 1100 bushels of wheat. He had as fine fruit as ever was seen in Southern Oregon, though not a large crop. Mr. Converse thinks Lake county, Oregon, is good enough for him.