

TERMS: (One Year, $2.00)
(Six Months, 1.00)
(Three Months, .50)

LAKEVIEW, OREGON, OCT. 25, 1906.

Our esteemed contemporary up the alley calls The Examiner down in our statement made in the issue of October 11th in an article on the finances of Lake county. We admit that by some unaccountable arrangement of figures The Examiner was led to say that the actual indebtedness of Lake county on the first day of October, 1900, was $45,157.04, when the amount should have been placed at $52,263.30, which is the actual indebtedness, including interest. The indebtedness of Lake county has been variously estimated for the past five years at $50,000 to $75,000, and we might add, without fear of contradiction, that the indebtedness, or major portion of it, was incurred under the administration of Democratic boards of commissioners. The fact remains, nevertheless, that under a Republican administration, the county indebtedness is being materially reduced, and the matter of a $52,263.30 debt is not one to incite alarm, in a big county like ours.

It has not been long ago since Mr. Bryan refused to accept a place at a dinner given in his honor because the cost of the affair was to be $50 per plate—Mr. Bryan to be a guest, admittance free. At that time the wily candidate for the Presidency declared that he would not indulge in such an elaborate affair when there were so many poor laborers in the country who would be glad to get a two-bit meal, and that a dollar dinner was good enough for anybody. He has evidently changed his mind, for on Oct. 10th, in New York, he sat at the "Bryan Dinner," at the Hoffman House, with covers laid for fifty—Mayor Van Wyck presiding. On either side of Mr. Van Wyck sat Mr. Croker, Mr. Bryan, Adlai Stevenson and Wm. R. Hearst. The much disputed cost of the dinner was settled by the Hoffman House management, who said the cost was TWELVE DOLLARS PER PLATE, exclusive of wines. Hypocrisy, thy name is William Jennings!

Hon. Wm. M. Colvig, the latest convert of prominence in Oregon to Republican principles, is making a red-hot campaign throughout the state for McKinley and Roosevelt. Populist papers of the state are saying "good riddance," but it's a bewailing cry, and has about it the scent of "sour grapes." Colvig is a man of strong personality, is a profound reasoner, and can make himself felt in this campaign.

Mr. Bryan, "predicter," in a speech during the campaign of 1896: "The Republican party produces a policy that makes hard times. All those who love hard times ought to vote for the Republican ticket, and all those who are tired of hard times have got to vote the Democratic ticket if they would expect any relief." What a mockery! What a mockery!

The New York Herald has made a careful poll and predicts the re-election of President McKinley. It says McKinley is sure of 280 electoral votes.

The Democratic party stands where it did in 1896 on the Money Question.—Wm. J. Bryan, Zanesville, Ohio, Sept. 4, 1900.

England and Germany announces a formal agreement of their opposition to the partition of China.

Remember, that in 1892 you voted for a change, and had no "change" in your pockets afterwards.

In 1896 you voted for prosperity and got it. Will you now vote against it? Are you tired of it?

W. S. U'Ren, erstwhile populist leader of Clackamas county, is in South Africa.

The Hon. Joe Blackburn calls the Hon. John G. Carlisle a "political hack." Well?

PUBLIC NOTICE.

All persons are hereby notified that I, the undersigned, own the following brand to-wit: (Z) that said Brand was duly recorded by A. Z. Hammersley in Volume 1 of the Records of Marks and Brands of Lake County, Oregon, on the 29th day of September, 1885, on Page 165. That all horses and cattle on the range bearing such Brand are claimed by me, except such as are duly vented, and all persons are forbidden to use such Brand, or to drive any stock bearing said Brand, and not duly vented, from the range.

A. H. HAMMERSLEY.

DON'T WANT ANY CHANGE

Jim Snelling Tells Why He is a Republican.

WAS A LIFELONG DEMOCRAT

"I Did Not Go Back on the Old Party; the Old Party Went Back on Me; I Like to Have the Figures on the Other Side of the Ledger"—13 vs. 3 Cent Wool.

Several months ago, in conversation with Mr. James Snelling, one of Lake county's prominent woolgrowers, who had always been a Democrat "bred in the bone" (and a descendent from a long line of Democratic ancestors) up to four years ago, an Examiner representative learned Mr. Snelling's reasons for coming over to the Republican party. His reasons are just as aptly put as he gave them, in the following, sent to the Oregonian by a Lakeview correspondent to that paper:

REPUBLICAN PROSPERITY SUITS HIM.
"Mr. Snelling, a prominent sheepman of Lakeview, and a life-long Democrat, will vote for McKinley this year. He has been talking Republican prosperity for four years, and will continue to talk it until election day. 'I am for McKinley, first, last and all the time,' Mr. Snelling said to the Oregonian correspondent at Lakeview. 'I have been in the sheep business for a long time, and the Cleveland Administration broke me up and I was compelled to go in debt to provide for my family. Since the election of 1896 I have paid off my debts and have a good band of sheep. I don't feel as if we ought to have a change of administration. I formerly thought that nothing would change me, but when my pocket is touched the party principle don't count. I used to vote blindly along, without considering my own welfare, but when my finances began to dwindle and fade away I came to the conclusion that there was a reason for all this; and I was not long in finding out the reason and the remedy. I don't think Bryan will get a single sheepman's vote in Lake county, and I firmly believe that Lake county will roll up a good majority for McKinley.'"

Mr. Snelling said it was hard to go back on the old party, but that assertion did not quite fit the case. "The old party has gone back on me. Under Mr. Cleveland's administration I not only became bankrupt, but was plunged into debt. It was not my fault; it was not mismanagement of my private affairs that caused this, but I discovered it was the wrong policies and doctrines of my party that caused my woe; hence, I became a Republican, and I thank God I am a Republican. The welfare of my family is of far greater importance to me than the glory of being a Democrat. I would rather be a Republican with a band of sheep growing 13 cent wool; my family with plenty to eat and wear; with a bank-book and the figures on the right side of the page—than to trudge along on the old Democratic trail with my sheep growing 5 cent wool; my family in need, and the figures against me at the bank. Yes, sir; I am a Republican!"

And, we believe, that many voters in the country look at the matter in the same light as does Mr. Snelling, and will vote accordingly on the 6th of next month.

EVA LEONA LEWIS.

Death has crossed the threshold of another home in Lakeview and selected as its victim the pet of the household and favorite among the people. The axiom that "Death loves a shining mark" is fully demonstrated in the taking away, never to return, of the young life of little Eva Leona Lewis, beloved child of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Lewis of Lakeview. The child had been ill but a brief time with typhoid fever, which was followed by another disease that baffled the attending physician. Slowly the little one grew worse until Sunday morning, Oct. 21st, when death relieved her from all suffering.

Little Eva was born in Lakeview Aug. 21, 1893, and was just seven years and two months old on the day of her death. She was a particularly bright child and bid fair to lead a useful life had she lived to reach the estate of womanhood. She was a general favorite and will be missed by friends and school companions, and there will be sad mourning over that vacant chair at home for long, long years to come.

The funeral was held from the M. E. Church Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock and was attended by a large number of the friends of the family, and the remains were followed to the last resting place by a goodly number of people.

Rev. Richard Fysh officiated. Four little girls, schoolmates of the deceased child, Essie Cobb, Ottilie Field, Gussie Snelling and Ella Jones were pallbearers. Beautiful flowers covered the grave.

Call at the Neilon residence and see those Pattern Hats. They are the finest in town, and beauties they are, too. Second door south of J. S. Field's store.

There is not an ounce of headache in a barrel of it—Jesse Moore "AA" whiskey. Geo. Jammertal sole agent.

IT'S TO YOUR ADVANTAGE TO MAKE YOUR FALL PURCHASES HERE

Evidence of this awaits you at our store, every department of which is crowded with seasonable, desirable dry goods at close prices. Our stock has been selected with the utmost care, and we can guarantee the styles to be absolutely correct and the quality first-class.

As regards prices, we will demonstrate our leadership in giving best values. Our windows give a hint as to the variety and attractiveness of our stock, and after inspecting them if you step inside you'll find whatever you need in all kinds of goods at prices you will pay cheerfully.

BAILEY & MASSINGILL, THE PIONEER STORE...

Our line of GLOVES is Unequaled in the City

SHEEP BRANDS

James Barry Brands with Swallow Fork in right ear for ewes; reverse for wethers. Some ewes Square Crop and Silt in right ear. Tar Brand III. Range, Crane Lake. Postoffice address, Lakeview, Oregon.

Zac Whitworth Brands with crop off left ear, Half Undercrop off right for ewes; reverse for wethers. Tar Brand W. Range, Fish Creek. Postoffice address, Lakeview, Oregon.

FINAL PROOF.

United States Land Office at Lakeview, Oregon, Oct. 25, 1906. Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Register and Receiver at Lakeview, Oregon, on Nov. 30, 1906, viz: DAVID JONES, Jr. H. E. No. 2178 for the lots 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, Sec. 7, T. 33 S., R. 25 E., Willamette Meridian, Oregon. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: W. C. Laird, of Plush, Oregon; Harry Riggs, of Lakeview, Oregon; N. Fine, of Plush, Oregon; H. Manning, of Plush, Oregon. E. M. BRATTAIN, Register, Oct. 25-6.

HALTED HERE!

A Band of Horses Alleged to Have Been Driven From Wagontire Without Authority.

Held by Sheriff Dunlap to Await the Decision of Rightful Ownership—A Lively Chase From the Furthestmost Ends of Lake County.

Last Tuesday a band of 68 horses passed through Lakeview and attracted considerable attention. Soon after the animals disappeared Anton Egli and Sheriff Dunlap, armed with papers to be served on the drovers—G. W. Manning and William Lupton—started in pursuit and caught the latter at Grimes' hot springs. Sheriff Dunlap took charge of the horses, and the drovers have been given the allotted three days' grace to prove ownership. Manning and Lupton claim to have purchased the horses from J. M. Emrick at Wagontire, on the Lake county side. Egli claims that they bargained, or contracted for the horses, but paid no money on them. In the meantime Egli alleges that he bought the horses from Emrick, paying him $1000 for them, and that he has a bill of sale in his possession as proof. At any rate Manning and Lupton started with the band, with Egli on the trail, two days behind. By riding night and day the latter reached Lakeview about an hour in advance of the band, and had papers issued to intercept them. L. F. Conn and J. W. Moore are attorneys for Egli, who asks for $250 damages, the recovery of the horses, and costs of action.

In "joshing" our friend Frank Evans about taking the measles, last week, we did not realize the seriousness of his condition. It was reported about town that Frank had the miserable disease, but later information developed the fact that he was an aggravated one of fever, followed by blood poison, which made his condition one of extreme danger. The young man's many friends will be glad to learn that the uncertain point has been passed, and he is on the road to recovery.

Aluminum STEEL RANGES

AIR TIGHT HEATERS
And everything in

HARDWARE

...AT...
T. J. MAJILTON'S

LAKEVIEW-PLUSH STAGE LINE

GEO. H. STEVENS, Proprietor.

Leaves Lakeview Mondays and Fridays—Returning, Leaves Plush Tuesdays and Saturdays, at 7 o'clock a.m. Carries Passengers, Packages and Freight. STAGE OFFICE—Bailey & Massingill's Store.

Lakeview, - - - - Oregon.

W. D. WOODCOCK

BLACKSMITH HORSESHOER

All work done on short notice; guarantee satisfaction

NORTH OF OPERA HOUSE

J. W. Conard left via the Southern last Tuesday enroute to the East for a six month's trip, during which time he will visit Salt Lake City, Denver, St. Louis, Cincinnati, and New Vienna, Ohio, the latter point the residence place of his father. He will travel down the Mississippi to Cairo and up the Ohio to Cincinnati, and expects to have a fine trip.

An elegant line of Pattern Hats, just received, at Neilon & Maxwell's, second door south of J. S. Field's store.

Dr. W. H. Lewis, Lawrenceville, Va., writes: "I am using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in my practice among severe cases of indigestion and find it an admirable remedy." Many hundreds of physicians depend upon the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in stomach troubles. It digests what you eat, and allows you to eat all the good food you need, providing you do not overload your stomach. Gives instant relief and a permanent cure. Lakeview Drug Co.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Goid.
Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure no pay. Price 25 cents. 38-1yr

G. SCHLAGEL
HAS MOVED INTO HIS NEW STORE
WITH A COMPLETE LINE OF Harness Hardware Saddles Stoves
...I'm in it...
See me for bargains

EDWARD COONSE.

Edward Coonse, who has been sick for several weeks with typhoid fever, died at his home near New Pine Creek last Monday evening. Deceased had been a resident of Gosse Lake Valley for about twenty-five years, and of late has been following the occupation of rancher and freighter. Ed. Coonse was an honest, upright man, and was well liked by those who knew him. He leaves a wife, formerly Miss Thema Bowen, and five children, the eldest a son about sixteen years of age. Many people who knew Ed. Coonse in his lifetime will regret to learn of his death. The funeral was held at New Pine Creek yesterday at 10 o'clock a. m. and was largely attended.

Zac Whitworth, who has been dangerously ill with pneumonia for the past three weeks, appeared on the streets last Tuesday, and his many friends were glad to see him again. Zac said he regretted that Charlie Tonningens was too sick to come out, as they intended having a big time.

New candies at The Monogram—fresh and latest out.

Rev. Richard Fysh brought in two monuments, made at Medford, one of which was placed over the grave of the departed wife of William Sanders, of Drews Valley, and the other over the grave of the mother of Mrs. Fysh, in Lakeview cemetery.

Try Lady Adams Tomatoes, for sale by Bailey & Massingill.