

THE ELECTION NEXT TUESDAY.

List of the Various Offices to be Filled in All the States.

All the States in the Union, now forty-five in number, will choose Presidential Electors and members of Congress on November 6th, except Oregon, whose two Congressmen were chosen on June 4th. All the Territories will elect delegates on the same day and the following State elections are to be held in November:

Colorado to choose a successor to the present Democratic Governor and Democratic Populist State officials.

Connecticut to choose a whole State ticket. The present Governor is a Republican.

Delaware, a Governor for four years in place of the Democratic incumbent. There is no Lieutenant-Governor in Delaware.

Idaho, a State ticket for four years. Illinois, a State ticket for four years. Indiana, a State ticket for four years. Iowa, a Secretary of State.

Kansas, a Governor and State ticket for two years.

Kentucky, through the legal complications arising from the shooting of Senator Goebel, a Governor in place of Beckham, the present Governor, and a Lieutenant-Governor in place of Beckham, promoted by Goebel's death to the Governorship.

Massachusetts, a complete State ticket for one year.

Michigan, a State ticket for two years. The present Governor is a Populist and his associates in the administration are Republicans.

Missouri, a Governor and State officers, over the election of whom there will be a hard fight. The term of office in Missouri is four years.

Wisconsin, in which a Governor and State officers will be elected.

The States in which there will be no general election for State officers this year are California, Maryland, Mississippi, Nevada, New Jersey and Virginia. The States which have already held their State elections are Rhode Island, which chose a Governor and State officers in April; Louisiana, which held its State election in the same month; Vermont and Arkansas which held elections since, with Republican gains, and Oregon which voted in June.

LAST OF THE MODOC TRIBE DYING OFF!

BAXTER SPRINGS (Kan.), October 12.—The Modoc Indians are rapidly passing away. It will be only a few years until they have all become "Good Indians" and their tribe will be extinct. The Modocs at one time were the most troublesome and blood-thirsty savages that the Government ever tried to govern. Long before the white man put in an appearance on the shores of the Pacific they were seekers of gore. They were always in trouble with other tribes. That is the way they got the name Modocs. It means "enemies." It was given them by the other tribes on the Pacific, against whom they had waged war.

But now things have changed. The Modocs no longer thirst for war. They are a slovenly, indolent and dull set of beings, with no ambition. From a strong tribe of brave warriors they have dwindled down until there are only thirteen bucks left in the tribe. The total population of the tribe is seventy-eight, mostly women and diseased children. In recent years the Modocs have died off like sheep, and if the ratio keeps up in less than a decade a Modoc Indian will be one of the curiosities of a pre-

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY CONFIDENT OF VICTORY.

President McKinley has returned to Washington full of confidence in the success of the Republican ticket on the 6th of November. He has had reports from all the so-called doubtful States, and he has no doubt of the result. All he asks is that the Republicans everywhere continue to work as they are now working, and that there be no cessation of activity till the ballots are all in and counted.

The advices which the President has received indicate that the Republican electoral tickets will be successful in every Northern State east of the Missouri River, in all of the Pacific Coast States, in the Border States of Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia and perhaps Kentucky, in such Western States as Kansas, North and South Dakota and Wyoming, with even chances for Nebraska, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Nevada.

At the Cabinet meeting to-day there was an informal discussion of the political situation. All the members present were delighted at the serene confidence shown by the President, whose information and judgment they know to be of the best.

President McKinley is fully content to devote all his time to public business, leaving Mr. Bryan a monopoly of the speechmaking. He is satisfied that the Democratic candidate is hurting his own cause in almost every speech he makes.

Montana, a Governor and other State officers, now divided between the Clark and Daly factions of Democrats.

Nebraska, which has a Populist Governor and a Populist-Democratic State administration, will fill all these places besides choosing legislators, who will have the election of two United States Senators.

New Hampshire, in which a Governor and State officials will be chosen.

New York, in which a Governor and State officials, as well as both branches of the Legislature, will be voted for.

North Carolina, in which a Governor and State officers will be elected for the period of four years, and a constitutional amendment to be submitted to the voters.

North Dakota, in which a Governor and State officers will be voted for.

Ohio, in which the Secretary of State will be the highest official voted for.

Pennsylvania, in which two Congressmen will be chosen.

South Carolina, in which a complete State ticket will be chosen for two years.

South Dakota, in which a Governor and State officers will be chosen for a like period.

Tennessee, in which a Governor, Treasurer and Auditor will be voted for. There is no Lieutenant-Governor in Tennessee.

Texas, in which a whole State ticket is chosen.

Utah, in which a Governor and State officers will be chosen. Utah has not had a State election since 1895.

Washington, in which a Governor and State officers will be elected for four years. The present administration is Populist.

West Virginia, in which a Governor and State officers will be elected for a like period. The present administration of West Virginia is Republican.

tically extinct race. They are now quartered on a small reservation in the Quapaw country a few miles south of this city, under guard of the Government, for they are still considered prisoners. The few members of the tribe are growing because they cannot go back to the Pacific Slope and spend the remainder of their days.

The Modocs once were a part of the Klamath tribe in Northern California and Southern Oregon. They became the "Boxers" of the Klamaths. They broke away from that tribe and set up a government of their own and then waged war against their mother tribe, just as the "Boxers" are doing in China. They also attacked outsiders just like the "Boxers," and finally locked horns with Uncle Sam.

Before they were subdued they would make slaves of their prisoners of war and buy and sell them among each other, after the fashion of the ancient Romans and Carthaginians.

The above from the San Francisco Examiner is a mis-statement of facts so far as the number of Modoc Indians now in existence, is concerned. It is estimated that there are at least 300 of the Modocs on the Klamath Reservation, and they have been accorded the same rights by the government as the other Indians in the allotment of lands.

A. F. Hunt left Ashland on October 22d with three carloads of cattle from the Dead Indian country, which he took to the San Francisco market to sell. San Francisco prices rule higher just now than in Portland.

Gold the Poor Man's Money

From President Hayes' veto of the Bland-Allison act.

National promises should be kept with unflinching fidelity. There is no power to compel a nation to pay its just debts. Its credit depends on its honor. The nation owes what it has led or allowed its creditors to expect. I cannot approve a bill, which, in my judgment, authorizes the violation of sacred obligations. The obligation of the public faith transcends all questions of profit or public advantage. Its unquestionable maintenance is the dictate as well of the highest expediency as of the most necessary duty, and should ever be carefully guarded by the Executive, by Congress and by the people.

A currency worth less than it purports to be worth will in the end defraud not only creditors, but all who are engaged in legitimate business, and none more surely than those who are dependent on their daily labor for their daily bread.

Some of the good ladies of Lakeview are considering a proposition of giving a big entertainment in the near future, the proceeds of which will be applied to the improvement of the cemetery. Such a worthy movement should be encouraged by everybody in the community, for there is nothing that needs improvement more so than our cemetery. As it stands it is simply a blot on the fair fame of Lakeview. The home of the dead should at least be cared for and made beautiful with shade trees, flowers and green grasses. It is to be hoped that the ladies will give an entertainment for this purpose, and that it will be well patronized.

S. D. Coulter & Co., the wide-awake meat marketmen, have engaged the services of an experienced butcher from San Francisco, who is an artist in his business. He is now manufacturing the finest sausages, bolognas, headcheese and other tasty market productions ever exhibited in Lakeview. Those who like such dishes as pickled tripe can get that put up to perfection. And the winner he makes would tickle the palate of a king.

Albert E. Walker and Cornelia Sweet, both residents of Parker Creek, Modoc county, were married at the home of the bride's parents on October 21st.

J. E. King, former resident of Modoc county, is now on trial in Marin county, Cal., for the murder of S. H. Church. King's defense is self defense.
