CATTLE SALES.

Goose Lake Farmers Sell $70,000 Worth.

Goose Lake Valley is becoming an important factor in the prominence of Southeastern Oregon as a Stock Producing Section.

It may be used as an argument in support of the importance of Goose Lake Valley, as an auxiliary to the native wealth of Lake county, and a factor in the coming greatness of Southeastern Oregon, that in this valley alone, independent of any other rich stock producing section of the county, there have been sold this season about SEVENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS' worth of beef and stock cattle.

This may seem to be overdrawn—at first sight it does seem to be an over-estimation of a single resource in one corner of our big county—but figures will bear us out in the assertion. Among the sellers is mentioned one party who resides just the other side of the line, but who makes Lakeview his business and banking point. We estimate on prices to a certain extent, but none of them will fall much short of the actual price.

Herford Bros., 700 head of beef, steers and cows, to Gerber and Swanson, at about $31 per head.

F. D. Bauers, 75 head to Gerber and Swanson, at about $34 per head.

C. C. Pratt, 20 head to Gerber and Swanson, at $29.

Henry Leahman, 13 head to Gerber and Swanson, at about $29.

D. H. Hartzog, 150 head stock cattle to Mitchell Bros., at $25.

F. M. Duke, 50 head stock cattle to Mitchell Bros., at $25.

S. J. Studley, 175 head stock cattle

Cottonwood ranch to E. B. Edson, at about $38 for steers and $32.50 for cows.

Besides these sales the local butchers have bought up a small number, for slaughter, at good prices.

The Examiner considers this a matter of considerable moment for a single valley in the county to turn off $70,000 worth of cattle in one year.

"Billy" Chamberlain, and old friend of the writer, who has for years courted Dame Fortune in various walks of life—sometimes delving in the bowels of Mother Earth for precious metals, again guiding sight-seers and mountain climbers over the easiest windings to reach the summit of grand old Mt. Shasta, and erstwhile feeder of the hungry at Yreka town—has gone to Montague to manufacture a French Fry potato cutter, for

NEWS NOTES

FROM SURPRISE

From the Cedarville Record.

Dick Cobb and family departed for Lakeview last Saturday, where they intend to reside. Simon Drouillard and wife will occupy the house vacated by them.

Frank and Dell Dibble, of Silver Lake, and Alfred Johnson, of Fife, grand children of Mrs. M. A. Street, of this place, arrived here last Sunday on a short visit and to procure supplies.

Miss Pearl George of Lakeview has purchased the millinery goods and business of Miss Nellie Butman, and is now located one door south of the Golden Eagle Hotel, where she will be pleased to serve all those desiring goods in her line.

There are now six bands of beef cattle en route to the railroad, between here and Amedee, belonging to James Foe, Edward Conlan, Hugh McManus, James Sweeney, Warner Corporation and Peter Peterson, and they will aggregate something over 2,000 head, we are informed.

Hon. Peter Peterson, of Bidwell, was here last Sunday with a band of beef cattle, which he is driving to Amedee. There is now only one large band of beef cattle in this part of the valley, which belongs to Cressler & Bonner, although there are quite a number of cattle that could be picked up at different places. Just now the beef market is quiet.

William Herron returned from Lakeview last Sunday. He says that he was at Bald Mountain, and while there he found an old Springfield rifle that had apparently lain there for years, and believes that he is on a hot trail to the famous "Hoag Ledge," which has for so long proved a sort of "will-o-the-wisp." William Broddus discovered a ledge near where the rifle was found, and is now prospecting it, and Bill says that it is no "pipe-dream" about ore being there.
