

CITY ELECTION.

Mayor, Four Councilmen,
Recorder and Treasurer Chosen.

Peter Post Elected Councilman by His Friends Without His Knowledge or Consent—A Quiet Election at Which 92 Votes Were Cast.

The election of town officers—Mayor, four Councilmen, Recorder and Treasurer—for the next year was held last Tuesday, and, notwithstanding the excitement attending the Presidential election, quite a respectable vote was polled.

As Councilman Ahlstrom had made previous public announcement that he was positively not a candidate for reelection, there were but three names on the printed ticket for Councilmen, a blank line having been inserted for whatever citizen the voters should choose to vote for. Early in the morning some of the friends of Peter Post mentioned his name in connection with the office of Councilman, and soon the word passed around, and, before Mr. Post knew anything about it, he was elected to the position. He was not asked by anyone to allow his name to be used, and a great number who voted did not know that he was thought of for the place, and, consequently, voted for only the three names printed on the ticket. Had it been thoroughly known that Mr. Post's name was mentioned he would no doubt have polled the full vote. As he was not advised regarding the matter until late in the afternoon, Mr. Post was somewhat perturbed at the action taken by his friends, as he is an unassuming gentleman and would be about the last person in the world to seek any public honor or distinction. However, his friends paid him a neat compliment and a sincere tribute of their respect, and The Examiner hopes that the gentleman may look at the matter in its proper light and quality to fulfill the duties of the position. Peter Post is one of the level-headed business men of Lakeview, a large property owner and taxpayer, and will no doubt make a good Councilman.

There were 92 ballots cast, and, without contest for any of the offices, the election was without excitement. The following gentlemen were elected: Mayor, F. M. Miller; Councilmen, T. E. Bernard, X. Arzner, G. Schlagel and P. Post; Recorder, Charles Umbach; Treasurer, B. Reynolds.

EDE-BASEY WEDDING.

Eugene S. Ede and Iva D. Basey Married Last Sunday Evening at Home of the Bride.

Another of those happy events which mould two loving hearts in one occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Basey in Lakeview last Sunday evening, when their second daughter, Iva D., became the bride of Eugene S. Ede. The bride has passed most of her life in Lakeview, and here she attended the public school and received the first rudiments of an education. She is an estimable young lady and has numerous friends who will wish her all happiness. The groom is an energetic and prosperous young stockman of this county, who has a reputation as a ruster and an honest man. He, too, has a host of friends who hope his new life may be attended with joy and happiness. Rev. C. H. Hallomon of the Baptist Church was the officiating clergyman. After the ceremony a marriage supper was served, after which the evening was spent pleasantly with vocal and instrumental music and games.

The following people attended as invited guests: Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hazleton, Messrs. Elmer and Fred Ahlstrom, A. L. Howell, Misses May Chandler, Cora Phelps and Estella Dean. The bride and groom were the recipients of several handsome presents, as follows:

Ahlstrom Bros.—Clock.
Miss May Chandler—Water set.
Mr. and Mrs. Hazleton—Dinner plates.
A. L. Howell—Sewing machine.
Mrs. A. Y. Beach—Pitcher.
Groom to Bride—Lady's watch and chain.
Bride to Groom—Gents' watch chain.
Mrs. and Miss Basey to Bride—Bridal hat.

The newly wedded couple will leave this week on a honeymoon trip to Plumas county, Cal., and may visit San Francisco. Upon their return, in about a month, Mr. and Mrs. Ede will take up their residence on the Loveless ranch, on Crooked Creek, which Mr. Ede has leased.

The Examiner congratulates the young couple and wishes them much happiness and prosperity.

The Lakeview Brass Band is doing considerable practicing now. We are glad to see the band continue to keep up.

LOCAL PICK-UPS.

We understand that Miss Eva O'Neil of New Pine Creek is dangerously ill with typhoid fever.

Social dance at the opera house Saturday night.

The Masons held their regular meeting in the new hall last Saturday evening.

Miller & Lux have sold 9,000 head of beef cattle from their Harney county ranches to Puget Sound buyers.

FOR SALE.—A fine 2½ horse-power engine, almost new. Write to or call at The Examiner office, Lakeview, Or.

Jim Snelling arrived from Cedarville last Sunday and remained over Tuesday to vote for McKinley and Roosevelt.

Everybody will be at the social dance next Saturday evening at the opera house. All the pretty girls in town will be there.

Mrs. Jasper Huff is expected home from Cottage Grove this week. Mrs. Huff has been visiting relatives there for about five months.

Harry Aldridge, the Summer Lake stockman, was in Lakeview yesterday, returning from New Pine Creek with Mrs. Aldridge, who has been visiting relatives at that place.

Everybody enjoys those occasional pleasant social dances at the opera house. Go there next Saturday night and enjoy yourself. New music and a general good time promised.

Whetstone Bros., freighters, arrived from Terno last Saturday with 10,000 pounds of freight for town merchants. They say the roads are in bad condition, especially in the Davis creek country.

H. Schminck & Son now occupy the new brick building, one door south of The Monogram. They have a fine store and are filling it with hardware, groceries, stoves, etc. Give them a call and inspect those handsome stoves and ranges.

Green Smith, of Willow Ranch, brought two big loads of fine apples to Lakeview last Saturday and sold them all out quickly at 2 cents. Mr. Smith has The Examiner's thanks for a 50-lb. box of fine bellflower apples.

Masonic hall is being enclosed this week with compressed iron representing stone. Ashley Follett is painting it, and it presents a very handsome appearance. The large cornices and front plates are imposing. In the center of the front-piece are the letters "A. F. & A. M."

County Clerk Gunther issued a license last Monday authorizing the marriage of J. W. A. James and Miss Mellissia Lawson. Mr. James has resided in Lakeview for several months and his intended bride is a resident of the New Pine Creek section. The wedding will probably take place at New Pine Creek this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, daughter Mae, nephew Eph and Miss Minnie Cannon left last Sunday for a brief visit with relatives at Yoncalla. From there they will go to Portland to remain all winter. Miss Miller will take lessons in voice culture and improve her musical education during the winter months.

Reece Hawkins arrived in Lakeview yesterday and proceeded to Cedarville to meet his brother, S. D. Hawkins of Toms Brook, Virginia, who recently arrived on the Coast. Reece will bring his brother to Lakeview and to his Crooked Creek home, where he will visit for a time. S. D. is the only Republican in the Hawkins fold, and Reece says he is not going to talk politics when he meets him, as the laugh is on the Virginian's side. The brothers have not met for twenty years.

The band of 68 horses driven to Lakeview from Wagontire two weeks ago by G. W. Manning and William Lupton, and held by Sheriff Dunlap upon the showing of Anton Egli, who alleged that he had bought them, were turned over to Egli last week upon his filing a bond. The matter will be settled by the Circuit Court of Lake county at the next term. Egli returned home with the horses, and Manning and Lupton have returned to California.

Do not get scared if your heart troubles you. Most likely you suffer from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and gives the worn out stomach perfect rest. It is the only preparation known that completely digests all classes of foods; that is why it cures the worst cases of indigestion and stomach trouble after everything else has failed. It may be taken in all conditions and cannot help but do you good. Lakeview Drug Co.

MODOC NEWS IN A NUTSHELL

From The New Era.

Miss Annie Griner died at Likely, Modoc county, on the evening of Nov. 1st.

Miss Maud Stevens, who was taken ill last week with typhoid fever, is still very low. Her sister, Mrs. Lily Gibson, is now greatly improved.

A band of 200 beef cattle belonging to Innes Bros., of Summer Lake, Or., arrived here last week, under the management of Jack Kelsay. They will be pastured here until cars can be secured at Terno to carry them to Reno, after which they will be shipped to the city.

During the past few weeks Nally Willey has purchased a large number of beef cattle of various parties, for shipment to city markets. J. D. Mulkey and D. C. Berry, of Davis Creek, drove 200 to Terno last week, to deliver to him. The price paid has not been made public.

Near Alturas, October 27th, 1900, the promising young life of Miss Esther May Dorris came to a close at the age of sixteen years and two months. The cause of death was typhoid fever. The funeral took place from the Congregational church in Alturas on the 29th ult. and the sermon by Rev. Perks was touching and sympathetic. The deceased was well known in Modoc county, having lived there all her life, and was highly esteemed by all her friends and schoolmates who loved her for her sweet, bright disposition.

AN INDIAN WEDDING.

And What Happened Immediately After the Ceremony.

There was a wedding in Indian society last Sunday night, at the teepee at Deadman Canyon. Mr. Poody, the beau brummel of red society, took to his bosom Mrs. Poker Jennie, a blushing young widow of five months. The affair was fittingly celebrated with fire-water and dried fish, and wound up in a fight in which Mahala Maggie went out before the whirl wind rushes of Mary Cacatat, wife of Big George, and Indian John, husband of the defeated Maggie, bit the dust from a blow with the deadly right of Marshal Whorton, who was called to quell the riot. As a result of the latter "scrap" John nurses a sore head on the soft side of a plank inside the Tombs (our beautiful county jail) while the Marshal carries a bandage around his right hand, upon which he is occasionally seen to pour copious drops of liquid resembling arnica. It was a "hi-u" big time.

George McCarty, a bright young man from Detroit, Michigan, arrived in Lakeview last Saturday, and has been engaged to teach the winter term in the Mulkey district.

L. D. KIRK IS HEARD FROM.

Writes That He is on the Way to China to Fight the Boxers With Company F.

The Examiner is in receipt of a letter from L. D. Kirk, who left here about three months ago very suddenly. The letter was written at Spokane, and the writer says he is on his way to China "to fight the Boxers." The letter reads as follows:

SPokane, Wash., Oct. 21, 1900.

EDITOR LAKE COUNTY EXAMINER:—When I left Lakeview I promised to let my friends hear from me through your paper, as everybody reads The Examiner. I landed in Spokane about ten days ago from Canada, and intend leaving here to-night for Victoria, B. C., and from there will go to China. I am going to fight the Boxers.

Everything is selling at good prices here—horses especially. Good cavalry horses go at $40 to $75 per head, the government is paying $75 per month for packers. There are two Warner Valley boys here—"Kid" Hostetters and Ence Peck. We are all in the same outfit and are bound for the Orient. If this does not find a place in the waste basket I will write another letter when I get to China. I am in Company F pack train. Regards to all.

L. D. KIRK.

Everybody is looking for bargains, but there never was such bargains in Lakeview as Gus Schlager is offering in hardware, saddles, harness and tinware. Call on him at once.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Fine arrived from Warner last Monday.

Carey Ramsby is in Klamath county on a visit with his — sister.

Si Beecraft and B. Sanders came in from Barnes Valley last Tuesday.

Virgil E. Greene, the expressman, has recovered from a serious illness.

Commissioner J. M. Martin arrived from Silver Lake Tuesday and sat as a member of the Board of Commissioners of Lake county for the first time, yesterday.

Gus Schlager, the harness man, saddler and hardware dealer, is making a great reduction in his prices. Every article he has now is up-to-date. Call there for bargains in everything in his line.

A. P. Koozer brought to The Examiner office yesterday a box of potatoes of the Centennial, Peach and Early Rose varieties—ever-early and Early Rose, or freestone of which is a curiosity of nature. Koozer says he has nearly every variety of potato that grows but the "Lady Boquet" which Dave Grove alone raises, and he has gone to Surprise Valley and taken them with him.

Dr. W. H. Lewis, Lawrenceville, Va., writes: "I am using Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in my practice among severe cases of indigestion and find it an admirable remedy." Many hundreds of physicians depend upon the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure in stomach troubles. It digests what you eat, and allows you to eat all the good food you need, providing you do not overload your stomach. Gives instant relief and a permanent cure. Lakeview Drug Co.
