WILL THEY BUILD IT?

Some Foundation For the Rumor That the Oregon Midland Will Not be Built.

While our neighbors of Klamath Falls vehemently deny it, and say there is some mistake about it—that the report is erroneous, still there appears to be some foundation for the rumor that the Oregon Midland Railway from Klamath Falls, may not be built. In this connection the Reading Free Press has the following:

"The people of Siskiyou and Southern Oregon are much exercised over the rumor that the Oregon Midland Railway, which was to run from Klamath Falls, in Oregon, to a point on the main line near Hornbrook, in Siskiyou county, may not be built. The information has dampened some large hopes, for the new line was expected to open up a large belt of the choicest timber and also agricultural land. In fact, the line was expected to give a tremendous impetus to all Siskiyou county.

The enterprise was projected by Chicago railroad men. Surveys are complete and contracts for supplies have already been let. Late advices from the Windy City are very discouraging. The real cause of the hitch is not yet understood. The people of Siskiyou are sincerely hoping that the obstacle, whatever it is, will be surmounted and the work proceed.

Rebekah Entertainment.

The ladies of Lakeview Rebekah Degree Lodge, No. 22, will give one of the most amusing entertainments ever seen in Lakeview, at the Opera House, tomorrow (Friday) evening, December 21. The entertainment is to be a benefit for the lodge, the proceeds to be used in furnishing the new I. O. O. F. hall. The characters will be fourteen old maids, and the scene is laid at the residence of one of the old maids. It is actually too funny to be described. The admission price will be 50 cents; children, 25 cents. Following is a brief synopsis of "The Old Maids' Convention":

SCENE—The Old Maids' Matrimonial Club. The Club in Executive Session. Quotations. An Unpopular Sentiment. The Secretary's Report. The Report of the Treasurer. "Candy Kisses." The Look-out Committee. "Widower Goodbye." A Bachelor by the Name of Bieby. "I Don't Care if He Hasn't a Dollar." A few Suggestions Toward the Propagation of Matrimony. The Club in Debate. A Literary Interlude. Prof. Pinkerton's Advent. A Scientific Exposition. Testimonials. "Before Using Your Transformer I was Totally Blind, and now I can see My Finish." The great invention at work. "Blonde or Brunette?" Old Maids Made New. A Great Success. A Difficult Case. Somewhat Overdone. "The Machine Can Make no Mistake." A Hard Problem. "I Want to be a Man." The Professor fazed, but not daunted. "Drink the stuff and Pile In." An Explosion of laughter.

Mr. McJilton has been the owner for ten years, and settled on his home place at Davis Creek in 1898. He was the first permanent settler in the Davis Creek country. The McCulley place was sold last week to Wayne and Perkins, two gentlemen who have been renting it for two years. The place contains 160 acres, and is considered a fine ranch, all meadow.
