

MISCELLANEOUS

Measles has become epidemic in Alturas.

This paper only $2 for 52 weeks. Fish people enjoyed a mask ball on New Year's eve.

Wm. Street and Miss Ella Miller were married at Cedarville last week.

George C. Turner of Cedarville was a visitor to The Point ranch on the West Side last week.

It is reported that a Siskiyou stockman last week sold at Gazelle 1,000 head of beef for $10,000.

Edward C. McConaughy and Miss Carrie B. Smith were married at Ft. Bidwell on New Year's eve.

Jeff Parish, foreman for G. W. Mapes at the JJ ranch, Warm has gone to Reno on a brief business.

Miss Anna Bond of Warner has completed her term as teacher of the Barnes valley school, and returned to her home.

Devine's hot baths in porcelain tubs continue to grow in popularity. Devine's shop and baths are notorious for their neatness.

George Reynolds, who formerly worked at the block for S. D. Coulter & Co. of Lakeview, is preparing to open a new butcher shop in Alturas.

The favorite of favorites—Jesse Moore "AA" whiskey. Geo. Jannerthal, sole agent.

The Record says that William Ebling of Nevada arrived in Surprise valley last week with 100 head of cattle which he will feed there this winter.

There is not an ounce of headache in a barrel of it—Jesse Moore "AA" whiskey. Geo. Jannerthal, sole agent.

The Twentieth Century began last Tuesday. There are many of us who will be absent from roll call at the opening of the Twenty First Century.

Don't drink the first thing the bartender offers. Call for Jesse Moore "AA" whiskey and insist on getting it. Geo. Jannerthal, sole agent.

J. B. Redden, woolgrower from Summer Lake, spent holiday week with his wife and friends in Lakeview. Jim was one of the gay lads at the mask ball.

Do you want to run up against a good thing? If you do, call on Pete & Jonas, under the opera house. 41-4f

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rehart has been dangerously ill for several days with croup. At this writing there are some hopes for the recovery of the little one.

When you come to town from the country don't fail to see Pete and Jonas under the opera house. 41-4f

Paisley is to have a new eating establishment. With a newspaper soon to be established there, surely the town is branching out, and the editor need not go hungry.

Drink nothing but Jesse Moore whisky and you'll always be happy. On sale at Whorton & Fitzpatrick's. 33-4f

Henry Musselman, the Union district teacher, left for Cedarville last Friday to spend the remainder of the holidays with relatives. He was accompanied by his brother Charlie.

You can't call for any brand of whiskeys in case that cannot be furnished by Post & King. Some of the whiskeys carried by them are highly recommended by physicians for medicinal purposes. 41-4f

Prof. McGregor, principal of the Cedarville school, has an athletic training school in connection with his department, and all the youngsters in that burg are becoming athletes.

Viewed through an inverted glass. Sometimes makes one see double; Thus four quarts of beer is apt To make a full peck of trouble.

But if purchased at Post & King's (A. B. C.) it will make a barrel of pleasure. 50-4f

The Cedarville Record reports that the little child of Mrs. Will Morley fell from a chair a few days ago and suffered a broken shoulder. The child is said to be improving now, however.

L. G. Beach, having given up business in the Racket store, left on Saturday's Western for Salem where he has secured a good position in the state printing office. Mr. Beach will probably not return to Lakeview.

You don't want to forget that Post & King, the popular dispensers, are still in it. They are under the opera house. Call and see them. 22

W. J. Sanders arrived from Vistillis last Friday and started on Saturday for mule Springs to take charge of Albert Dent's band of sheep for the winter, in the place of Frank Ortman, who recently went to Eureka. Mr. Sanders has just recovered from a serious illness.

Post & King lost a big stock in the fire but they have another just as good. Fine liquors and cigars; A. B. C. beer. Under the opera house. 23

The Lakeview Examiner, speaking of the railroad projected to Klamath Falls, asks the question: "Will they build it?" Yes, neighbor, on paper. Pin your faith on the "Narrow Gauge." That will be built on good, solid ground. All others are merely paper roads.—Alturas Plaindealer.

The people of Lakeview who love the sport of skating were enjoying themselves all day Friday on the pond just south of the J. L. Clark residence. W. M. Harvey is conducting the skating pond, and charges ten cents for the privilege of skating. The ice was covered with joyful people and everybody enjoyed the occasion.

I want to let the people who suffer from rheumatism and sciatica know that Chamberlain's Pain Palm relieved me after a number of other medicines and a doctor had failed. It is the best liniment I have ever known of.—J. A. Dodgen, Alpharetta, Ga. Thousands have been cured of rheumatism by this remedy. One application relieves the pain. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

Smith & Son, freighters, are again on the road to Terno after a load of freight for Lakeview merchants. Nothing short of a cyclone can keep the Smiths off the road. They loaded out with Lake county wool and will return with 12,000 pounds of freight in about twenty days. The Chewaucan Post plant will be among the freight loaded by the Smiths.

Thomas Sherlock, woolgrower and farmer of Summer Lake, returned to his home last Saturday after spending holiday week with relatives and friends in Lakeview. Tom informs us that Mrs. Sherlock, who went to San Francisco last spring to receive medical aid for rheumatic troubles, is rapidly recovering and is now able to be about. The children are attending school in the city. Mrs. Sherlock will remain in the city for some time yet.

John Grieve of Central Point and a young man named J. A. Barham returned Sunday from Paisley, Lake county. Mr. Grieve reports the weather east of the mountains as having been quite good up to the time he left, and that he never saw stock look better. They were just eight days coming from Paisley and found the roads good for this time of the year and but four inches of snow were found in crossing the mountains, says the Medford Enquirer.

Lakeview now has two nightwatchmen. The Town Council concluded that owing to the recent stage robberies, and the further fact that rumors of a plot to rob the Bank of Lakeview had leaked out, it would be wise to use double vigilance, and, consequently, appointed J. F. Clarkson as special watchman. It is probable that the precaution will not be necessary, however, owing to the turn matters have taken in the mail robbery affair. And, doubtless, the alleged plot to rob the bank was an imaginary one.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c. 38-1yr

For the Best Winter Goods Select from the following List

- Ladies All Wool Shirt Waists 1.50 to 3.50
- Ladies Fine Capes 3.00 to 6.00
- Ladies Skirts 1.50 to 5
- Ladies Jackets 3.50 to 8
- Ladies Ftr Scarfs 3.00 to 4.50
- Ladies Latest Style Short Waist Corsets 1.00 to 1.25
- Gentlemens Silk Mufflers 75c to 2.00

C. U. SNIDER HEADQUARTERS For FINE GOODS

The increased mails and passenger travel caused four horses to be put on the Terno stage several trips prior to Christmas, says the Plaindealer. The stage was as late as 11 o'clock in getting in on Friday and nearly as bad on Saturday. So much stage freight piled up at Terno that Van Loan put on extra four-horse team and brought it to town Sunday. Most of it was holiday goods. The roads are very heavy.

"Get there, Eli!" Eli's Restaurant; best meals in town. Everybody knows Eli, the famous chef. Dinners to order. 30-6m

At the masquerade ball in Alturas Miss Marie Ricken, as a "Honolulu Belle," was awarded first prize for the best sustained character, lady, and the prize for best sustained character, gentleman, was captured by Willard Smith of Likely, who impersonated "Paddy from Cork." Marx Laner, for most original character, "The only Woman who Ever Held Her Tongue," received a prize. Dr. Stuckey and Prof. R. T. Taylor, as the fat man and woman, created the most fun.

It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every state of the Union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

We received a letter this week from Mrs. D. W. Cheesman, formerly a resident of Lakeview, who now lives at 107 Grant Avenue, Napa City, California. Mrs. Cheesman addresses her letter to the "State Line Herald," and requests to become a subscriber. We forward her The Examiner in place of the "Herald." The Cheesman family will be remembered by old residents of Lakeview. Mr. Cheesman was at one time a representative from this district in the Oregon legislature, and was a prominent Democratic politician. Mrs. Cheesman still owns a ranch near Lakeview.

Having a Great Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Manager Martin of the Pierson drug store informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one of any other kind, and it gives great satisfaction. In these days of la grippe there is nothing like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the cough, heal up the sore throat and lungs and give relief within a very short time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action.—South Chicago Daily Calumet. For sale by Lee Beall, druggist.

When you go to Klamath Falls don't fail to see C. D. Wilson the popular caterer at the Gem saloon. He carries the finest stock in town and will treat you right. The Gem is the popular resort. Try the Hermitage whisky there. 25-4f

This advertisement is changed every week—Watch it.

The past year has been a prosperous one for us. We thank our numerous patrons for their liberal patronage, and wish you a happy and prosperous New Year. Your continued patronage is solicited.

Ahlstrom Bro's

The Trouble.
Physician—You will be all right my good man, if you will take these pills and an hour's walk after dinner every day.
Poor Patient (scornfully)—That's easy advice.
Physician—What, haven't you the time?
Patient—Time enough. No dinner!—N. Y. World.

The Two-Faced World.
It's a beautiful world and a dark, drear place.
Given over to joy and to woe, And they find it bright who take honest delight
In striving to make it so. —Chicago Times-Herald.

HELD THE WINNING HAND.

Parent—If you don't stop crying at once, sir, I shall give you a severe thrashing.
Son and Heir—And I shall tell the conductor I am over age. Ba-hoo!—Punch.

To Fresh Woods.
Don't snub the organ-grinder—at his Wheezy tunes don't mock. The dime you toss is well bestowed—It moves him on one block. —Chicago Record.

A Proverb Applied.
Guest at Hotel—Why are you making me out such a bill as this? As I reckon it, it is about half as much as that.
Proprietor—But you know it is never safe to reckon without your host.—N. Y. World.

An Inauspicious.
He—I make it a rule to never speak unless I know what I am talking about.
She—Aren't you afraid of losing your voice from want of practice?—Chicago Daily News.

Slow Suicide.
"Poor Alfred! I'm afraid he won't live long."
"Why? Has he the consumption?"
No; but he has decided to depend on his literary efforts for a living.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Advice.
"I wish I could be sure whether she loves me as I want to be loved or not."
"Oh, that's easy enough. Marry some other girl, and then notice whether she pines away or not."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Perpetual Wakefulness.
Doctor—And the twins? Are they well?
Papa—Quite well, thank you.
Doctor—How do they sleep?
Papa—In day and night shifts!—Detroit Journal.

A Great Leveler.
"Love," sighed the swain; "love is the leveler of all things!"
"Well," said the other, "my last campaign certainly leveled my pocketbook flat!"—N. Y. World.

The Bluff Don't Go.
Taylor—I believe in calling a spade a spade.
Potter—So do I—there's no use in saying you have five clubs when one of them is a spade!—Puck.

Compact Apartments.
Stubb—Is Mr. Winter's flat small?
Penn—Small? Why, every time one of his children wants to sneeze they have to rush out in the hallway.—Chicago Daily News.

V. CONN THE PAISLEY MERCHANT.