Oregon Legislature

Special to "Lake County Examiner."

SALEM, Or., Jan 16—2 p. m.

—Lake County Examiner, Lakeview, Oregon: The Senate was called to order last Monday at 11 a. m., Hon. J. N. Williamson, Senator from Crook, Klamath, Lake and Wasco, Temporary Chairman.

The Senate at once proceeded to permanent organization.

Senator Fulton of Clackamas was elected President of the Senate, Moorehead chief clerk.

The House organized at the same hour, and elected J. W. Reeder Speaker; Jennings, chief clerk.

The Senatorial situation remains unchanged. McBride, Corbett, Hermann, Fulton and several dark horses are in the fight, and it is hard to tell at this hour who will win.

Everything is moving along in the usual way.

School Notes.

By J. R. McCormack, Principal.

The first half of the school term has passed, examinations are over and we have begun work of the second semester. The second semester not only begins with the new year, but also a new century.

Shall we not strive to do even more this year than the preceding one, as we are living in a progressive age, and advancement is being made in all lines? The work of the first half year has not been as good as we would wish it had been, owing to the amount of sickness during the early fall. The enrollment for the year is 252. The results of the examination were very good, and those who fell low will see that they will have to work hard the remaining portion of the year so as to make the required work by the end of the term. Some individual students throughout the building made excellent grades.

Special mention is made by the teacher of the Sixth Grade that the papers she received from that grade, as a class, in mental arithmetic, are the best she has ever received in more than ten years' teaching.

The students of the Eighth Grade are preparing for the examination to be given by the County Superintendent during the last week in February.

Daily grades and the examinations averaged as follows:

Third Grade average	85.3
Fourth Grade average	81.5
Average for whole school	83.4

Patrons of the school are cordially invited to visit the school at any time.

Fine Road Improvement.

Road Supervisor Fred Snyder has made a quarter of a mile of excellent road over the worst part of the thoroughfare in the vicinity of the Lime Kiln. Wagons can pass there easily now, and in the spring, with another appropriation, he can complete the work, and that part of the public highway will be better than it has ever been before. This particular piece of road has been for a long time about the worst in Lake county. Roadmaster's Snyder's work there is appreciated by the traveling public.

CUT THE PAPER.

Readers of The Examiner are reminded that the pages are cut, and pasted inside, and all that is necessary is to run a knife or some sharp instrument through the crease at the top of the paper and it will open out like a book. Do not attempt to unfold and turn inside out, as the pages are pasted inside.

SENSIBLE SENATOR

Williamson Tells What Ought to be Done.

Enforcement of Laws Now Existing of Much Greater Importance Than Enactment of New Laws-- Coyote Bounty Law.

Hon. J. N. Williamson, joint Senator for Crook, Klamath, Lake and Wasco, when asked what bills he would introduce or legislation he specially favored at the coming Legislature, said in part:

"As to what measures I am particularly interested in, I will say that I am more interested in the vigorous enforcement of a number of laws we already have than in the enactment of any more. I will not be on hand with a very heavy budget of bills at this session. I doubt if I will have any. Several matters of more or less importance, particularly the latter, have been suggested to me as matters urgently calling for legislation, but I have no bills in sight. However, I may again have something to offer in reference to the state scalp bounty question. The present law is not satisfactory. The opinion is prevalent that the law is unconstitutional. To such an extent is this the case that the law is inoperative to a great extent, and an entirely new law may be necessary. I have not determined as yet what course to pursue in the matter, but will try to be on hand with some remedy for the defects in the present law. Whatever is formulated in this line will be introduced in the House, where all such measures must originate.

"I am against the present registration law and think it should be repealed, at least, so far as our section of the state is concerned. From what I have seen of the workings of the registration law in Eastern Oregon, I am inclined to look with disfavor upon the primary election proposition, although it is quite a popular fad nowadays.

"As a general proposition, I might say that we need a proper application of very many laws we already have far more than we need new laws.

"I am in favor of such an appropriation of money for our state schools as is needed to conduct them in a manner becoming the dignity of such institutions, but let us have no more of them now. Enough of anything is plenty.

"I would like to see the present session undertake to live up to the law enacted at the last session in reference to committee clerkships, for the example there would be in it, if nothing more. Such a law has been enforced in the State of California for eight years, and there is no good reason why it should not find favor in Oregon. That we have the power to disobey it is no reason why we should do so.

"As to my choice for United States Senator, there is so much available timber in sight for that position that it is difficult to make a selection—really difficult. I sometimes wish we had more senatorial chairs to warm, so we would have enough to go around decently."

Senator Williamson, in a letter received this week by a gentleman in Lakeview, says: "I want the people in Lake county to understand that I am at their service at all hours of the day or night. I desire that some one write me at any and all times concerning any matter that may come up in which Lake county is particularly interested. I am a public servant and am at your service."

Badly Injured.

Frank Farrington of New Pine Creek, who was seriously injured a few days before New Year's, was in Lakeview last Thursday to see Dr. F. E. Smith. Farrington met with his injury while snaking logs out of the canyon, near New Pine Creek. A heavy log got the start of him and rolled over his entire body. He says he was unconscious for three days and remembers nothing about the occurrence, and that Dr. Smith says his injury can never be cured. Farrington is a stalwart man, over six feet tall, and heretofore has been as strong as an ox. He says he will never be the same man he was, as he was severely ruptured by the accident.
