

PAISLEY PICK-UPS

Sleighting parties are all the rage in the Chewaucan just now.

Ralph Foster spent Sunday in Paisley. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher of Summer Lake are in town this week.

Paisley's popular pedagogue was noticed sleigh-riding last Sunday, and (whisper this) he wasn't alone, either.

In their raving, insane people sometimes tell things that some other people would rather have untold—but "Beginner" will not disclose the identity of one of our prominent citizens who was seen crawling through a window recently after the shades of night had fallen—and a married man at that.

W. F. Reed and family spent Sunday in Paisley.

W. Z. Moss and Harry Riggs were in this vicinity last week purchasing horses for cavalry purposes.

Bob Benefiel left for Lakeview last Thursday. He has disposed of his interest in the sawmill to C. S. and J. W. Benefiel and will try the life of the roving shepherd for a time.

We received the initial number of the Chewaucan Post last Thursday, and, to say that we were proud of Paisley's new paper, would be putting it mildly. Mr. Metzker is O. K., and "Beginner" is not the only resident of Paisley who thinks that way—we overheard a young lady say the same thing.

Hon. V. Conn gave a musical entertainment at his new residence to a few invited friends last Sunday evening. All present pronounced Mr. and Mrs. Conn the model host and hostess.

Our valley is again clothed in a mantle of white to the depth of about six inches, and Saturday morning, February 9th, the thermometer registered 14 degrees below zero at George Conn's store. "Tip," much-abused "Tip," was noticed shoveling snow from his back yard preparatory to planting his watermelons. Yes, "spring is here," "no more they toast their shins," etc.

I note that "Tip" has managed to get that telephone line started, all by himself—through the columns of the Rustler. He will have the Fourth of July here by All Fools Day if he only says so through his intellectual medium. But there is one thing "Tip" fails in—he hasn't found that wife yet that he advertised for last fall in the Kicker. Now, "Tip," a few whispers to you: In the issue of the Kicker of January 31st, under the heading of "Paisley Fragrance," and also under a separate heading of "Starter," and signed "Citizen," you made a few assertions that I can hardly agree with. In the first place, you call me to account for throwing slurs, and claim that I am no gentleman. Well, I claim to be a man, at least, and I do not pay for an advertisement in the Chewaucan Post proclaiming myself a gentleman. If a man's actions do not pronounce him a gentleman an advertisement in a newspaper from now till Doomsday, asserting him to be, will not make the people believe it. "Beginner" defies you to name three of our town's "best people," who uphold your article on "Our Church."

You claim to work for the good of "My town" ("all hog" would come in handy here)—what class of people do you expect to come to a town where only "Heathens" live? Were you not among some of the "Heathens" at the "nigger show" last fall when there was preaching in the same building in which you reside? I was mistaking about those sixty subscribers sent in to the Rustler by "Tip"—there were only six subscribers, and the other 54 were just names sent in to help out. This is where the Rustler boy "caught on" when he was "up north" and "heard that kicking." Now "Tippy," you say you will give ten dollars to see or know Beginner. If you will place that amount in the hands of any reputable citizen of Paisley, to be paid to me when I reveal my identity, I will prove to you who Beginner is on the spot. Your word is not sufficient guarantee that the money will be paid, so "put up or shut up." I do not fear that look of "ferociousness," but it is a shame that "those handsome features" should ever be clouded with anger. That "Lakeview Physician" is a myth; tell the truth once in while and shame the devil, "Tip." So far as comparing the "past history" of "Tip" with the past of Beginner, with "affidavits" attached—God save the mark! My past history is an open book to the people of Paisley, and "Citizen" or "Tip" go far from the truth when he says he knows my past, as he has not the faintest idea who I am. As to "Tip's" past, he would very likely need "affidavits attached thereto." Now, Mr. "Tip," remember, for what Beginner has said against you, you alone are to blame—brought it on yourself. I only defended the citizens of Paisley from your onslaught and censure of them. There are some things I have left unsaid that would "raise the hair" on your head—things you would rather not see in print—and this reminds me that Mr. W. B. Owsley of Silver Lake ought to take a cowhide and raise welts on your carcass, and also on the body of the publisher of the Kicker for allowing your unnatural reference to his family to appear in print. Personally I hold no enmity of you, and am more than willing to let this little controversy drop, provided you do the same, as the paper I represent (the Lake County Examiner) is a newspaper, and not a spiteful, calamity-howling, one horse sheet. Good-by, "Tip."

PAISLEY, February 11, 1901.

LOCAL PICK-UPS.

W. O. W. Ball February 22d.

Great shoe reduction sale at The Monogram.

Dr. F. E. Smith and wife started for New York last Thursday, via the Southern.

George Reid went to Alex Reid's sheep camp, in the Chewaucan, last Monday.

See Schminck & Son for bargains in tinware, crockery and glassware.

Frank Farrington came up from New Pine Creek last Monday with a big load of flour.

John M. Donough has given up the swing drive on the Southern and has returned to Lakeview.

Read Ahlstrom Bros. new announcement in this issue. Great shoe sale now on at The Monogram.

Merchant H. C. Rothe is reported seriously ill this week, having contracted a severe cold, after the extraction of a molar, and blood poisoning set in.

William Harvey started last Tuesday for the north in the interest of the Lakeview-Silver Lake telephone system. He was accompanied as far as Paisley by Mr. Burke.

You are losing money if you overlook Schminck & Son's prices on gentlemen's furnishing goods. An elegant small stock.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Laird, who was reported dangerously ill last week, is recovering. The parents brought the child in from Warner last Sunday.

S. Ed. Martin of Merrill last week sold ten head of hogs, averaging over 300 pounds each, to a local buyer. The ten head brought Mr. Martin over $200. There is money in raising good hogs.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Reynolds was attacked by a cow Monday, near the Dunlap residence, on Main street. The little one was not seriously injured, but was badly frightened.

The important feature of local commercial trade just now is the great shoe sale at Ahlstrom Bros. A big stock of ladies' and children's shoes to be swept from their shelves at a great reduction price.

Jud. Field is remodeling the frame building formerly occupied by The Examiner. It will be converted into a residence and will be occupied by Mr. Stevens and family and his sister, Mrs. Phelps.

C. U. Snider has his new store handsomely arranged now. The counters are all old oak graining, and the entire establishment is pleasing to the eye. John L. Clark did the graining, and it is a splendid piece of work.

Ladies: Don't overlook the great shoe sale at Ahlstrom Bros. Latest styles in ladies' and children's footwear now sold at a great reduction. Red laces with each pair of shoes. Sale now on, to last until March 1st.

W. R. Johnson, accompanied by his estimable wife and daughter and Miss Carter, were up from their home at Willow Ranch last Friday night to witness the entertainment given by local talent. They returned home Saturday.

Attorney L. F. Conn started for Salem and Portland last Saturday morning to be absent a few weeks. While away Mr. Conn will join the Third House of the Oregon Legislature, and will keep tabs on the lawmakers of the other two branches.

Wm. Lemon, the bustling merchant of New Pine Creek, was a visitor in Lakeview last Saturday night, and attended the I. O. O. F. lodge. Mr. Lemon says there is a movement on foot to establish a lodge of Odd Fellows at New Pine Creek.

Arthur Loupe, the popular manager of the cigar department of the Adams, Booth Co., Sacramento, will arrive in Lakeview on George Washington's Birthday. Mr. Loupe has been on the road for about a year, but has returned to his old love. His numerous friends in Lakeview will give him a hearty welcome.

Misses Etta and Nettie Vineyard, the two popular school teachers of Lake City, Cal., were visitors in Lakeview this week. The Misses Vineyard were compelled to close their school for a short time owing to an epidemic of measles among the children. They return to Lake City to resume their duties in two weeks.

Judge Charles Tonningsen started last Sunday morning for Salem, having in charge four of the Carlyle children, whom he is taking to the Orphan's Home. We understand the Judge is experiencing considerable trouble with the fourteen-year-old girl, as she is averse to entering the institution, and is laying plans to escape from the Judge on the trip.

Dr. Steiner was called to Clover Flat last Tuesday night to visit John Roush, who was reported dangerously ill.

Cobb Hinkle has placed a handsome new counter in his saloon, and has otherwise improved his place during the past week.

J. S. Field, the Main street merchant, continues to make business hum on this end of the line. Read Field's advertisement.

We hear of people from all over this county and Modoc who have declared their intention to participate in the W. O. W. ball here on the evening of Washington's Birthday. It will be a grand affair.

Now, then, prepare for the Woodman ball, February 22d.

Post & King will move into their handsome new brick next Saturday. They invite all their friends from the country to call at the new brick when they come to town and have a good smoke with them.

Everybody who comes from Klamath Falls says that the Hotel Linkville, under the management of Kent Ballard, is a first-class hotel. Kent attends strictly to business and is a courteous and painstaking landlord.

Mrs. May Batchelder and Miss Rose Venator started on the Western last week, the former en route to Gold Hill to visit relatives, and the latter to visit her brother at Portland. They will be absent until about April 1st.

T. J. Newbill arrived from Monmouth last Saturday and has been engaged to take the place of Miss Gertrude Vernon, who has resigned as teacher in the Lakeview public school. Mr. Newbill comes well recommended as a teacher.

Mrs. Duffy, who resided near Merrill, died last Friday, and the funeral occurred on Saturday at Merrill. The deceased left a husband and twelve children, one infant only a few hours old. A physician could not reach her in time to save the poor woman's life.

Go and see how the Lakeview Camp of Woodmen can entertain on the evening of February 22d.

We understand that the Hotel Lakeview has been receiving a big patronage ever since it was opened to the public. All the rooms will be completed as soon as possible, and the roof over the stairs leading to the third story is to be cut out and replaced with heavy glass.

Tom A. Smith and L. E. C. Jordan, representing two departments of the house of Baker & Hamilton, were in Lakeview several days during the past week. Mr. Smith remained over a few days to see that the placing of the machinery for the city water works progressed favorably.

Mrs. Elmer Rinehart and son have been ill for several days at their rooms in Hotel Lakeview, but yesterday morning were well enough to return to their home at Crooked Creek. Mrs. Rinehart was worn out with her long vigil at the sick bed of her niece, Miss Effie Rinehart. The latter is reported to be improving daily.
