Everybody who attended the Degree of Honor ball pronounced it a swell affair.

See Schminck & Son for big bargains in every line they carry.

Frank B. Cannon was a business visitor in town Friday from the Chewaucan.

On all the Pullman cars Jesse Moore "AA" whiskey is to be had. Geo. Jammerthal, sole agent.

Dr. E. H. Smith was called to Crooked Creek last Thursday to attend Mrs. Beck.

Schminck & Son's gents furnishing goods department is beginning to attract the public. See Dolph for everything in the line.

Homer Davenport, the famous cartoonist, is visiting his native heath near Ashland.

If you want a healthy drink try Jesse Moore "AA" whiskey. Geo. Jammerthal, sole agent.

Medford town is in debt to the amount of $69,000, and the debt increased in the last two years $19,000.

Drink nothing but Jesse Moore whiskey and you'll always be happy. On sale at Whorton & Fitzpatrick's. 33-tf

Now go with the Woodmen tomorrow night and have a joyful time at the ball. The supper will be a rare treat.

G. H. Meiss, who sold his band of steers in Butte Creek Valley last week to J. C. Mitchell, realized $11,000, an average of $72 a head, says the Yreka Journal.

Millions of people are familiar with DeWitt's Little Early Risers and those who use them find them to be famous little liver pills. Never gripe. Lakeview Drug Co.

Ashland will have a "Rough Rider" ball tonight, at which the ladies will wear short skirts, leggings, military blouse waist, belt and accoutrements, and Rough Rider hat.

Above all things don't become a drunkard; use whiskey moderately and use the best. Jesse Moore "AA" is the purest and best. Geo. Jammerthal, sole agent.

Why can't we find petroleum in Lake county? It is said that Jim Scott, formerly of Lakeview, years ago discovered oil indications on the desert not far from here. Come back, Jim, and open up the well.

Persons who cannot take ordinary pills find it a pleasure to take DeWitt's Little Early Risers, as they are the best little liver pills ever made. Lakeview Drug Co.

It was reported last week, says The Post, that some sheep on the desert had died, presumably from cold weather. Phil Mulkey says McNew was losing a few from sore mouth, caused by eating too much browse, as the grass is scarce.

Remember the W. O. W. ball on Washington's birthday in Lakeview. It will be great.

The weather reports of the Lakeview Examiner shows that the mercury was 4 below zero at that place on January 8th, and 5 below on the 9th. At same date it was 8 above in Yreka, but for the past three or four days still colder, though now warming up.—Yreka Journal.

When you go to Klamath Falls don't fail to see C. D. Wilson the popular caterer at the Gem saloon. He carries the finest stock in town and will treat you right. The Gem is the popular resort. Try the Hermitage whisky there. 25-tf

Two hundred and fifty head of fine beef were started from Klamath Falls this week to be driven over the mountains to Ashland for shipment to Portland. There is said to be over 12 inches of new snow on the Ashland mountain road, and the cattle will break the road nicely for the stage company.

Reports show a greatly increased death rate from throat and lung troubles, due to the prevalence of croup, pneumonia and gripe. We advise the use of One Minute Cough Cure in all of these difficulties. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Children like it. Lakeview Drug Co.

Jack Horton, the horse-buyer, was at the Degree of Honor ball.

S. D. Coulter & Co., received a big load of grain-fed porkers last week.

Remember that 55 per cent of your taxes will be accepted in county warrants by the sheriff.

Mrs. J. O. George arrived home from Paisley last week after several days' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Marie McDonald.

"Get there, Eli!" Eli's Restaurant; best meals in town. Everybody knows Eli, the famous chef. Dinners to order. 30-6m

Quite a number of the members of the A. O. U. W., living in the country, attended the Degree of Honor ball last Thursday night.

Improvements continue at the big Hotel Lakeview. Soon will Hotel Lakeview be the grandest establishment of its kind on the east side of the Cascades.

Dr. Lee Steiner was called to New Pine Creek and Willow Ranch last week to attend the sick. Fayette Cannon, the New Pine Creek landlord, was quite ill.

Like bad dollars, all counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazels Salve are worthless. The original quickly cures piles, sores and all skin diseases. Lakeview Drug Co.

Rain began falling early Friday morning and soon reduced the snow to water. Lakeview is a very "slushy" town just now. A kingdom for a few graveled cross-walks.

J. M. Fulton, ex-manager of the N. C. O. Railway, has bought 160 acres of land in the oil regions of Kern county, Cal., and is in a fair way to make a big fortune.

Phil Mulkey has returned from the Hanks sheep ranch at Summer Lake. Mr. Hanks is now feeding the Hanks-Cobb sheep at the Summer Lake ranch, having brought them in from the desert last month.

A man not a hundred miles from Lakeview, who takes a New York paper because he can get more reading matter than in his home paper, read an advertisement of a pocket fire escape. He sent a dollar and a few days ago received a New Testament worth fifteen cents.

"The happy have whole days and those they choose; The unhappy have but hours and those they lose."

The happy people are those who drink good liquors and smoke El Comandante cigars at Post & King's. 1-tf

The Journal says that the 9th day of February was the coldest experienced by the people of Yreka in the past twenty years. The thermometers about town ranged at two below to zero. We enjoy balmy spring weather over here at zero, neighbor.

Coulter & Co. have another band of fine beef feeding at the racks.

O. A. Hastings "makes hay when the sun don't shine." Mr. Hastings is about the busiest man in town, sledding fine big trees down out of the snow on the mountains, to be cut up at his woodyard in town. Snowstorms do not stop him in his work, and, while others are housed up by the storm, Hastings adds filthy lucre to his cash-box.

For the weakness and prostration following gripe there is nothing so prompt and effective as One Minute Cough Cure. This preparation is highly endorsed as an unfailing remedy for all throat and lung troubles and its early use prevents consumption. It was made to cure quickly. Lakeview Drug Co.

A Klamath Falls girl took a header from a bicycle the other day and was jarred into unconsciousness. Methods of resuscitation failed until a benevolent looking old gentleman exclaimed: "Rub her neck." At this the young woman came to her senses. Tears came, and she repressed a cry of anguish as she screamed: "Rubberneck yourself, you old fool!" and she was so mad she couldn't cry.

The British Government will send 30,000 mounted troops at once to General Kitchener to suppress the Boers.

The Thirty-seventh Infantry has returned from the Philippines to San Francisco to be mustered out. This regiment, during its active service of eighteen months, participated in 159 engagements, had 69 men killed in action and a large number wounded; killed an aggregate of about 500 Filipinos and took 2,000 prisoners.

"It seems to be an actual fact that an Indian never laughs." "Nonsense! Didn't Longfellow make Minnehaha?" And everybody else "Ha Ha's," who drink and smoke at Post & King's. 1-tf

W. A. Currier of Summer Lake tells the Post man that he, as well as many other stockmen, have a number of horses of the grade the Government demands at present, but no one has kept that class of horses up, but turned them on the desert where they cannot be had at this time of year. He has horses for sale, but they are his best animals that he kept to break during the winter and spring, and he won't sell them at scrub-horse prices. Mr. Currier says this is the wrong time of year for horse buyers to scour the country.

That W. O. W. ball on the 22d is going to be a gay affair. All the ladies in town are having new frocks made for this particular social event. And the supper—well, that will be something delightful, and will be served in the Masonic banquet room.

Miss Fannie O'Neil, daughter of Judge J. M. O'Neil, of Yreka, was shot one day last week in San Francisco by Bert Henderson, a man whom she was formerly engaged to be married to, but recently broke the engagement with. The jilted lover shot Miss O'Neil through the left cheek, the bullet passing through the bones of the face and lodging directly opposite on the right cheek, just beneath the skin; another shot grazed her head. Thinking he had killed her, the crazed man put the pistol to his own head and sent a bullet through his brain. Miss O'Neil will recover.

Recent experiments show that all classes of foods may be completely digested by a preparation called Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which absolutely digests what you eat. As it is the only combination of all the natural digestants ever devised the demand for it has become enormous. It has never failed to cure the very worst cases of indigestion and it always gives instant relief. Lakeview Drug Co.
