

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

All kinds of News Notes
Taken on The Fly
By an
Examiner Representative

There is also a great immigration rush to Oregon.

The Salem postoffice will be built out of Ashland stone.

Hi Barnes, the miller, is now running the Bieber flouring mills.

J. A. Anderson and R. H. Ballard represented Drews Gap in Lakeview last Saturday.

Try a Sunday dinner at Eli's restaurant. Finest in town. 8-2

George Batchelder, city expressman, is back on the wagon again after a long siege of rheumatism.

Born—In Prineville, Crook county, Feb. 15, 1901, to the wife of Ex-County Clerk Hodges, a daughter.

February 20th was Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the Lenten season, observed by all faithful Catholics.

See Schminck & Son for fine tinware, glassware, crockery and cutlery. 8-2

James L. Ramsby and Lucy Fitzhugh, of Canyon Creek, Modoc county, were married at that place Feb. 15, 1901.

Clyde Hartlerode of Davis Creek has invented a novel sawing machine, worked by horse power, which is a success.

General Chaffee has been ordered by President McKinley to take no part in the war in China provoked by Walden.

When you come in from the country drop into Eli's restaurant and get a fine meal at a low price. 8-2

The Examiner is obliged to Representative Emmitt for a copy of the House Calendar and other legislative documents.

Several landslides occurred on the Southern Pacific line last week between Ashland and Redding, but no fatalities were recorded.

Miss Jean Seoble Ross, of Ashland, was married January 11th, 1901, at Dawson City, N. W. T., to Frank M. Smith of Seattle, Washington.

See Aviragnot's handsome spring and summer samples of suitings. Finest ever displayed in Lakeview. 7-2

Jina Moore, recently of Reno, and an expert stenographer, arrived in Dawson over the ice on February 5th, to become the wife of Captain Bledsoe, a Klondike millionaire.

Postmaster Wilcox is having a room partitioned off in the postoffice building for a jewelry shop to be occupied by F. T. Gunther. Handley & Clemlenen are doing the work.

The Golconda mine, near Sumpter, has been sold to an eastern syndicate headed by C. A. Smith, of Pittsburg. The syndicate gets $180,000 of the $1,000,000 of the stock.

See the advertisement of Eli's Restaurant at the foot of page 5. Eli treats his patrons well. Meals at all hours.

Thomas Keir, the stonemason, has purchased the furniture and lease of the Cottage restaurant from Mrs. S. D. Coulter, and will take possession tomorrow, March 1st.

Geo. Small, a prominent stockman of Lake county, passed through here Monday enroute to Corvallis to visit his daughter who is attending college there, says the Burns News.

The Ashland Tidings correspondent at Salem says that Lafayette Conn and County Judge Tompkins of Lakeview, have been at the state house watching legislation since Monday.

"El Belmont" cigars are the cream of the Havana crop. They are sweet and delicious. For sale by Altheron Bros. 7-1

Willie Andrews, a 14-year old lad of Ash Valley, Modoc county, went out hunting rabbits last week using a 22 rifle. His body was found later on, with a bullet wound in the mouth.

Umatilla county at its recent term of circuit court sent eleven men to the penitentiary for the various degrees of theft. Their sentences range from one to three years. Bad people over there.

J. J. Laughlin, the horse buyer, was up from New Pine Creek last Monday. He will take a band of horses to the Sacramento valley market as soon as the weather moderates—possibly next week.

Several Lakeview sportsmen have been patrolling the sloughs and the edge of the lake during the past week. They report little shooting, and the season a few weeks too early for duck and geese.

John Aviragnot, the local merchant tailor, invites the public, and especially good dressers, to call and see his new spring and summer samples of suitings and pantaloons. They are beauties. 7-2

George A. V. Hughes of Amedee and Miss Loretto Hickey of Reno were married last week in San Francisco. The groom holds a lucrative position with D. W. Earl & Co., the forwarding merchants.

Joe Burrus, the Lakeview sheepman, is in this vicinity this week. He came down to assist his partner J. M. Thompson, separate sheep, but the weather has been so bad they have been unable to do anything so far.—New Era.

The "El Commandante" cigar is a good, honest smoke. There is none quite so good. For sale only by Post & King. 7-1

Eli Pagnello, formerly a resident of Lakeview, for some time traveling representative of Sanborn & Vail, and later book-keeper with E. Lauer & Sons, Alturas, will soon open a general merchandise store in the Modoc capital.

There is hardly a married man, except editors, who does not carry in his pockets the picture of an attractive young woman who is not his wife. Her name is Anna Wilkes Williams of Philadelphia, and her picture adorns the silver dollar which all use.

Eli, the famous Lakeview cure prescriber, continues to feed his patrons well and give them good treatment at all times. 8-2

The Examiner is not ashamed to show samples of its job work, and invites the criticism of the most fastidious. The man who knows what good commercial printing is can find it at this office. The Examiner turns out no shoddy work. Call and see samples.

Henry Lechman started for Marysville, Cal., last Monday morning with fifteen head of fine young mules and two horses. He will sell at Marysville and the Lakeview animals ought to bring a big price. While away he will visit the oil fields of Colusa county.

For a gentleman's smoke try a "Robert Mansell" or a "Zenda Bonquet" Havana cigar. For sale by Whorton & Fitzpatrick, only. 7-1

General Freight and Passenger Agent Bennett, of the N. O. O. informs the Alturas Plaindealer that a tremendous immigration is now pouring into California from all points East. Last week one train reached the state carrying 1500 people, a majority of whom will settle in California.

The trade mentioned in The Examiner, as being in progress last week, whereby Jim Brummett was to sell his lease and the increase on 3,300 head of sheep to George Jammertal and J. H. Turpin, was consummated last Saturday, and the sheep will be turned over to the latter gentlemen. The price was $5,000.

Handley & Clemlenen, the Lakeview Planing Mill men, are doing a rushing business. The firm has steam up nearly all the time turning out all kinds of woodwork.

After a young man of Lakeview left his best girl in the parlor the other night the mother of the young lass called out from the next room: "Daughter, I am sure I heard a sound like a kiss while that young fellow was here." "Did you hear it only once?" queried the girl. "Yes," responded the mother. "Then it wasn't us."

Representative R. A. Emmitt of Klamath and Lake, has introduced in the House five bills, two of which have particular merit. One is to punish persons using barbed wire for fencing for failure to properly construct it, etc. The other is to license stock grazing in counties other than those in which the stock is assessed.

Schminck & Son have the best garden seeds. Now is the time to make your selections of fresh seeds, and prepare for spring planting. See Schminck & Son for the best. 8-2

Arrangements have been made for the entertainment of the northwest wool-growers, who are to meet at Pendleton March 5th. There is predicted a large attendance of sheepmen, and the presence of a great display of blooded stock. Reduced transportation is being arranged for. Governor Geer has been invited to address the meeting.

The old electric system for lighting the town of Lakeview, established by J. A. Anthony about three years ago, has been discontinued for that purpose, and will be replaced by the town's plant, which the expert is now putting in operation. The plant will probably be turned over to F. M. Miller, who may put it in use later on for private purposes.

DEATH OF ALEXANDER REID.

The people of Lakeview were shocked last Sunday morning when De Bryan arrived from Clover Flat before daylight and announced that Alex Reid was dead. Deceased was residing at his Clover Flat ranch with his brothers George and Frank, the latter being in Lakeview on a visit at the time the sad news reached him of his brother's death.

Deceased was feeling unusually well on Saturday morning and partook of a hearty breakfast; afterward he went out on the meadow to clear out an irrigating ditch, about three hundred yards from the house, while his brother George was cutting poles near by. At noon both went to the house to get dinner and while his brother cooked the meal Alex played his banjo, an instrument he was very fond of. After a hearty meal they both returned to their work and about an hour thereafter a heavy rain came on and lasted until 4 o'clock. In the meantime both repaired to the house for shelter, and for hours the unfortunate man, little dreaming of the sudden death that so soon awaited him, played his banjo with much enjoyment and was feeling in the best of spirits. Along toward evening he put the banjo down and remarked that he would go down to the meadow to see how the water was spreading, whistling as he left the house—and that was the last time poor Alex was seen alive. At 6 o'clock his brother went out to tell him supper was ready, but could not see him. He immediately imagined something had happened, and started on a search. He followed the ditch until long after dark, and after a search of an hour and a half he stumbled over the shovel Alex had been using. It was quite dark, and after a time he discovered his brother lying face down in the ditch, the water running over his head. He procured the assistance of De Bryan and they carried the dead man to the house. He was a victim of heart disease.

Mr. Bryan started in the night for Lakeview, arriving at early morn. Arrangements were at once made to have the corpse brought to Lakeview to prepare it for interment, and on Monday the body was brought in and taken to the undertaking parlors of Studley & Harris where it lay in state until the hour appointed for the funeral.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 20th from the M. E. Church, Rev. C. W. Raymond officiating. Quite a large number of people were at the church to listen to the funeral sermon and to pay their last respects to the dead. The sermon text was from St. Matthew, 6:19, and was a brief and impressive discourse. The remains were taken to the L. O. O. F. cemetery where the obsequies were held.

Alexander Reid was the second son of Francis and Mary Reid, and was born in Edinburg, Scotland, Feb. 26, 1855. He came with his parents from Scotland in 1859, and the family took up their residence in Yreka, Cal. His father died in November, 1890. Deceased first came to Lakeview in 1873 but returned to Yreka, and three years later arrived here to make his future home, settling in Chewaucan valley. In 1880 he engaged in the sheep industry and followed that business until his death. The hard winter of 1889-90 was a hard blow to all stockmen and Alex Reid was a heavy loser to the extent of 3500 sheep, which nearly "broke" him. Since that time, however, he has steadily accumulated, and died fairly well to do.

Alex Reid was a man of sterling qualities, one of the noblest works of God—an honest man. No living man could speak ill of him, while many could testify to his generous heartedness. He leaves many friends in Lake county to mourn his death, while universal sympathy will go out to the bereaved mother, sister and brothers who survive him. His aged mother, Mrs. Mary Reid, sister Miss Jennie Reid and brother David reside in Yreka, while his brothers George and Frank live in this county.

School Report.
Following is the report of the Crane Creek School, District No. 3, for the month ending February 22, 1901:

Number of days taught	20
Number of pupils enrolled	24
Average daily attendance	22

Pupils whose names were placed on the roll of honor: Pearl, Clara and Emory Hartzog, Mollie, Grover, Willie, Harry and Nera Vernon, Frank Pratt, James Judge, Mabel and Earl Hackney.

ALMA G. JOHNSON, Teacher.

Card of Thanks.
We the undersigned, brothers of the late departed Alex Reid, desire to here-in express in behalf of relatives and ourselves our grateful acknowledgement and sincere thanks to the many and kind friends who assisted us in our recent sorrow, and especially to the good neighbors of Clover Flat for their many friendly deeds.

GEO. REID,
FRANK REID.
Lakeview, Feb. 27, 1901.

We have

Now on display a large and choice collection of Fabrics and Fashion plates, illustrating the latest spring and summer styles, and will take pleasure in submitting them for your inspection. We can quote you prices on perfect-fitting, custom-tailored Suits, Skirts, Jackets and Capes that will agreeably surprise you. Our line meets the demand of any purse or any taste, as we make both medium and higher priced garments. We guarantee to please you, no matter what your requirements.

LADIES' STYLISH SUITS
to order, from $10.00

LADIES' COATS & CAPES
to order, from $7.50

It will be greatly to your advantage to call on us at once and let us explain fully how we can save you money on your spring order.

Bieber's

GOOD GOODS

SMITH'S

New Pine Creek Roller Flouring Mills.

A. M. SMITH Proprietor.

Under the new management this mill is now prepared to furnish customers with the best of flour, Bran, Shorts Corn meal Germea. and is paying highest price for grain Orders promptly filled.

This advertisement is changed every week—Watch it.

A Few Sizes LEFT

IN LINE OF SHOES WHICH WILL BE CLOSED OUT AT A REDUCED PRICE. JUST ONE MORE WEEK. COME EARLY OR WE WILL BE OUT OF YOUR SIZE. . . .

THE MONOGRAM

Not for awhile

With cut prices to clean out Goods that were bought with BAD JUDGMENT

But here stay

All the time with Goods that will give entire satisfaction.

J. S. FIELD

On Main Street Lakeview