The Examiner "Extra" reached Warner last Friday night and apprised the settlers of their second grand victory. The Examiner publishes the news and "gets there" with it.

Jim Brummett, who recently sold his lease and increase on the C. A. Rehart sheep to Jammertal & Turpin, expects to locate at Sands Springs, north of Silver Lake, and engage in the cattle business. Mr. Brummett has already gone there, and is desirous of buying young cattle.

If you have frequent attacks of sick headache, dizziness, fainting spells and jaundice, accompanied by chills, chilblains, etc., it is a sure sign that you are not going to live long, and it would be well for you to pay up your subscription to this paper and a year in advance, and thus make yourself solid for a good obituary notice.

You never have a head in the morning from drinking Jesse Moore "AA" whiskey. Try it. Geo. Jammertal, sole agent.

The saloon men and merchants of Burns are at sword's points. The saloon men asked the Town Council to pass an ordinance compelling merchants to pay a license for selling liquors, which was done, and now the merchants threaten to retaliate by prohibiting gambling and opening saloons on Sunday. It is a merry war.

"There is a charm by sages often told, Converting all it touches into gold; Content can soothe where'er by fortune placed, Can rear a garden in the desert waste."

The contented people about town are those who enjoy their drinks and smokes at Post & King's. 1-14

Robert Toney accompanied by Luther Vernon of Lake City, Cal., passed through Paisley, last Saturday, says the Post, enroute to the Prineville country where Mr. Toney goes to look after some horses he has on the range about 50 miles north of Prineville. He expects to take his stock to the old horse range on Sand creek east of Surprise valley to range in the future. They expect to be gone about a month.

Don't drink the first thing the bartender offers. Call for Jesse Moore "AA" whiskey and insist on getting it. Geo. Jammertal, sole agent.

The pleasant weather lately with warm rains and disappearance of snow, has made the stock ranges luxuriant with rapidly growing grass. In a few days more cattle will not come to the barns and corrals for feed, as better fodder will be provided by nature. Several large bands of cattle have been shipped for the spring trade, and also sheep, so that the next extensive shipping will be for the summer trade.—Yreka Journal.

"The happy have whole days and those they choose; The unhappy have but hours and those they lose."

The happy people are those who drink good liquors and smoke El Com andante cigars at Post & King's. 1-14

We learn that Jim Wilson, son of H. C. Wilson, and well known in Lakeview, recently sold a mine in the Klondike for $20,000 and has two mines left that he would not sell at any price. About a year ago he was in the saloon business in Dawson, where he employed ten bar-keepers and his average receipts from sale of liquors were $6,000 a day. After running this business four months the building was destroyed by fire.

Domestic Irrigation.

House Bill, No. 172, passed by the Oregon Legislature, has become a law. It provides for the appropriation of water from lakes and running streams for the purpose of irrigation. The act amends the law of 1891 on the same subject and to provide that, in condemning land for right of way for ditches and so on, it shall not be necessary to wait for the decision of the court as to the amount of damages, but the corporation shall have the right to commence immediate construction by executing a bond for the payment of the damages which shall be awarded, to be passed upon by the court.

The bill principally affects the dry regions of Lake, Klamath, Crook, Harney and Willamette counties.

Smallpox and a Shotgun.

The Reno Gazette tells of a case where in smallpox, children and a shotgun were indiscriminately mixed in Elko county, Nevada, one day last week. The health officer quarantined a house on the ranch occupied by the Rainwater and Benbrook families on Mays River, near Derth. Some of the Benbrook children went to a cabin occupied by one Churchill and two others. They told the children to leave and they refused, when the men slapped them and sent them home. The father went to the cabin and got into a fight with Churchill, coming out second best. Benbrook then went home, secured a shotgun and returning opened fire on the men. Two shot struck Churchill in the chest and one in the forehead. Another man was shot in the leg. The wounds are not serious, but the end of the trouble is not yet.
