

LOCAL PICK-UPS.

Joe Ambrose was in on a brief business trip from the desert last week.

"Uncle Josh" at Paisley next Saturday night. It will be no "josh," either.

Tom Hastings is doing a good job of pruning the shade trees in the Court-house square.

Creamery Butter always on hand, at Bieber's.

Born—In Lakeview, Oregon, March 14, 1901, to the wife of J. Q. Willits, a bouncing boy. The Professor is stepping high.

W. G. Watson, farmer of the West Side, has been in Lakeview for the past week attending the revival meetings at the M. E. Church.

Graham Flour, Germea, Rolled Wheat, Victor Oats, at Bieber's.

Frank Grohs, well known in Lakeview, and Miss Mazo Davis, a prominent young lady of Klamath county, were married in Klamath Falls on March 7th. The young couple will reside in Langell valley.

P. S. Dorris and Ernest Payne passed through town yesterday with about 80 head of broke horses which they are taking to the lower country market to dispose of. They were assisted on the drive by Bert Pratt.—Adin Argus.

The Bank of Lakeview has been appointed by the County Court administrator of the estate of H. C. Rothe. The firm of H. C. Rothe & Co. will continue in business under that name until the estate is settled, which will take six months.

Frank V. Jeffers of Yreka, Cal., and Mrs. Nellie Leever McNery of Central Point, Or., were married at the latter place March 13, 1901. The groom will be remembered as the teacher of the Lakeview brass band several years ago. He recently returned from the Philippines, and is doing hand work in Yreka.

Well! have you decided on your spring suit? If you haven't just call around to Bieber's store, he will fit you out in the latest style.

A large number of Lakeview residences are now lighted by electricity. The rate established by the Town Council is thought to be very moderate, and the lights cost little more, if any, than oil—and it is much more convenient and satisfactory. Ere long every home in Lakeview will doubtless be using electricity.

While hauling gravel from the pit below town last Thursday, Elzie Linville hurriedly divested himself of his coat, which movement frightened his team, and the animals made a mad dash up the road toward town, and finally landed up against the fence near the residence of John McElhinney. No damage worth mentioning.

Correspondents to The Examiner will please remember that in order to have their communications published it is necessary that they should send their name to the editor along with the correspondence. It is not necessary that the names should be signed to the correspondence, but the writer's name is required merely as a guarantee of good faith.

C. S. Benefiel was down from the sawmill above Paisley this week and during his stay here was captured by the Cake-walk brigade that expects to take Paisley by storm next Saturday night, after the "Uncle Josh" performance. Mr. Benefiel was kept busy by the ladies practicing the latest cake-walk airs on his violin, an instrument which he handles with much skill.

S. F. Ahlstrom can turn his hand to most any kind of a job. He was engaged in painting his brick saddletry this week, and it will soon be as "pretty as a little red wagon." Jud Field also has the spirit of improvement in his make-up to a great extent. He has had artist Jim Judge at work painting the wood-work at his fine store. Main street merchants are right in the swim.

Mrs. C. A. Knox, who has been in San Francisco all winter studying the art of late method photography, was especially fortunate in being able to visit the Photographic Art Salon which was held during two weeks of January in the Mark Hopkins Institute of Art. The exhibit was the best of the kind ever held in the West, and comprised work from all parts of the United States

During F. T. Gunther's absence at Paisley as advance agent for the Lakeview Sorosis Club's "Uncle Josh" performance, his stock of jewelry and watches will be on sale at Dunlap & Thurston's. All watches left for repair will be attended to upon his return Sunday, March 24th. Anybody having watches in his care now for repair can call at Dunlap & Thurston's and get them.

A city election was held in Klamath Falls on the 11th inst, and there was an interesting contest with several tickets in the field—109 votes were cast. The result was as follows: Councilmen, C. C. Maltby, W. W. Hazen, George Humphrey, Alva Beals and Otto Heidrick; Recorder, H. W. Keese; Treas., J. W. Siemans.

All goods bought at Bieber's store are delivered to your home free of charge.

P. E. Taylor, one of the energetic citizens of Warner Valley, was in Lakeview this week on land business. Mr. Taylor resides at Adel. He says the decision of the Commissioner at Washington in the Warner Valley land cases was a grand victory, and words cannot express the happiness of the settlers, and people generally, of Warner Valley.

We have a post-card from "drummer" E. F. Peart, the popular representative of the grocery department of the Adams, Booth Company, Sacramento, which reads as follows: "I will be in your city soon. Chain up all the dogs." Marshal Manly Whorton has been notified and the dogs will be muzzled, but the official says he will keep his eye on Peart just the same, during his visit here.

It costs less to use good coffee than the poor kind. Eagle Roast Coffee at 25 cents a pound is the best and cheapest coffee sold in Lakeview. Bieber sells it.

Elmer Ahlstrom, of the wideawake Ahlstrom Bros. firm, accompanied by Lem Heryford, went south this morning, and will spend about thirty days in San Francisco, during which time Mr. Ahlstrom will attend to a little business and a "whole lot" of pleasure. Elmer expects to see everything worth looking at, and bring back with him many pleasant memories of city life, as well as a swell stock of goods for the spring trade.

Knights of Pythias.

Jay Burton, M. R. Hart and Charles Hense are interesting themselves in the establishment of an order of the Knights of Pythias in Lakeview. Mr. Burton is in receipt of a letter from L. R. Stinson, General Keeper of Records and Seal, Salem, Oregon, in which he inclosed a petition for a lodge at Lakeview. It is the intention to procure the signatures of at least twenty citizens as charter members. The Knights of Pythias is one of the finest orders in the world. There are about seventy lodges in this state, with a membership of more than 3,500; new lodges are being organized continually in Oregon. The charter membership is $10, and, after the lodge is organized, it is the intention to keep the charter open for a given time to give others an opportunity to join as charter members. The purpose of those who have already signed the petition is to arrange everything so that the lodge can be instituted during the Circuit Court session here in May. There are several "Knights in Lake county who will be asked to take part in the establishment of the lodge. There is no doubt of the success of this movement, and we will soon have a fine lodge of Knights of Pythias.

Wrong View of It.

For several years past the Lakeview papers have improved every opportunity to "roast" Alturas. Every little drunken brawl was magnified as much as possible. We bided our time and last week had the satisfaction of giving their own town a return "roast." We are even and if they are disposed to treat us fairly will call it quits.—Plainsdealer.

Well, well, neighbor! The Examiner has never in a spirit of maliciousness given publicity to any "drunken brawls" enjoyed (?) in Alturas, but occasionally mentioned such affairs in the same manner as any current news of the day—if they were of sufficient importance to mention at all. It is to be regretted that such things occur in any community.

"Diamond in the Rough."

Andy Greigg, a pioneer citizen of Modoc county, died at Adin on March 11th, of blood poisoning, from a wound in the hand. The poison had so far done its work before medical assistance reached him that he died within a few days. Deceased was widely known as an honest man, with a heart as tender as a woman's and filled with generosity. The Cedarville Record describes Andy Greigg as a specimen of gruff exterior, but a diamond in the rough. His age was 80 years.

By Request.

Mr. A. Bieber, who has talent as a critic, and can readily see the strong and weak parts of human nature on as well as off the stage of life, kindly consented, by request of the Examiner publishers, to comment on the comedy drama "Uncle Josh," given at Gunther Hall last Saturday evening. His criticism, which appears to be a thorough laudation of every one of the players, appears in this issue.

20 good young mules and 80 head of fine horses more or less. These are stock horses of the Percheron breed, four years old and down—mostly mares that will be fine for breeding purposes. They are all big animals, and anybody who knows the Pratt horses will recognize the fact that the animals are first-class. I have also a Maconahy Jack, 7 years old, which I will sell. For further particulars call on or address C. O. Pratt, Lakeview, Oregon. Residence, 4½ miles south of town. 11-3m

Public Notice.

I have been a good friend to many people during a good many years past, when they were "hard up," and now that I am "hard up," I respectfully request those who owe me to call and settle without delay. Within the next 30 days I shall place all unsettled accounts in the hands of an attorney for collection; so wise people will come forward and settle before they are put to additional cost.
J. W. HOWARD,
Lakeview, March 15, 1901. 10
