LAKEVIEW, OREGON, MAR. 24, 1901.

Where in the State of Oregon can be found a more substantially built town of a thousand population than is Lakeview? Echo answers—nowhere! And all this was accomplished in less than eight months after the entire business portion of the town was wiped out by fire. And the end is not yet. Other brick structures are to grace the vacant lots on our business streets before winter comes again. To a great extent our townsman, Dr. B. Daly, is responsible for the rapid transformation from a desolate looking town to a thriving little city of beautiful buildings; Messrs. Lane, Miller, Dewey, Snider, Bailey & Massingill, Frankl, Field, Ahlstrom, the Masonic Lodge, Post & King, Dick J. Wilcox, George Jammerthal and The Bank of Lakeview are also deserving of praise for their part of the good work. Lakeview is all right and so is her business men.

March is maid of many moods;
One day flirting with the dudes,
Making, next day as she flies,
At the ice man zoo-goo eyes.

The Alturas (California) Plaindealer seems to be greatly alarmed over the fate of Lake county (Oregon)—fearful lest the taxpayers of this county may "go broke" on county printing. It is a good old maxim that "a wise man will have enough to do if he attends strictly to his own business," but as the Plaindealer has become interested the taxpayers of Lake county may feel perfectly safe. The Examiner charges Lake county for its printing just what it charges Lakeview business men for good, honest work—no "cheap John" printing. If the Plaindealer "cuts its own throat" it does not concern us. We are not in the printing business for what "glory" there is to be found in it. All we expect to make on our printing is a legitimate profit, and if we could not do that we would not have it. This is no "rat" office. We do good work at a fair price.

Another attempt is soon to be made to obtain royal clemency for Florence Maybrick. The Baroness de Rouques, Mrs. Maybrick's mother, has been in London during the last month in consultation with her legal advisers for the purpose of framing a petition to the crown for her daughter's pardon. It has been intimated that the prospect of bringing about such a denouement has not diminished owing to the accession of His Majesty, Edward VII, but quite the contrary.

Rear Admiral Sampson will not need a big scrap book to hold the favorable newspaper comments on his damphool letter which said that it was not right to promote the man behind the gun because that man could not become one of the ornaments of society. There will be an explosion someday that will lay in the shade the one in which the Spanish fleet went down. It will be Sampson exploding from puffed up self-importance.

Were you expecting gentle spring,
In apple blossoms clad,
And winter kept you on the string,
Wouldn't it make you mad?

Ex-President Harrison was a statesman of more than ordinary intelligence and force. His counsel in the weighty matters of public importance was always sound, able and well calculated to promote the best interests of a people whom he loved. His death is a calamity.

Lakeview, with its business places, all substantial brick buildings, attracts the eye of the visitor from abroad. He leaves here with the impression that our town is a substantial one, and that our business men are "up to snuff."

Let Lakeview business men show that they are business men, and that the reputation and confidence they have gained abroad is not misplaced, by encouraging the creamery proposition when Mr. Mitchell arrives here.

Well, we guess when Mr. Mitchell, the creamery man, reaches Lakeview he will find a live people who know a good thing when they see it.

After negotiations extending over three weeks General Botha rejects the terms of peace offered by the British government.

England and Russia have reached an agreement in the Chinese affair and troops will be withdrawn.

Wool Goes Up

Merinos Jump Ten Per Cent, and Crossbreds Seven-and-a-Half.

The wool outlook is decidedly favorable this week. Territorial merino wool, the class grown in Eastern Oregon, has taken a jump 10 per cent higher. Crossbreds go up from 5 to 7½ per cent. A London dispatch under date of March 22d says: "The offerings at the Wool Auction sales to day number 14,740 bales. Operators were free buyers; the attendance was good. Americans competed eagerly for suitable parcels and paid full rates for medium greasy. Superior scoureds and crossbreds were firm. Merinos were generally 10 per cent higher. A small selection of new clip met with a ready sale."

STEELE-JENKINS.

Will R. Steele and Miss Margarette Jenkins were married in Portland last Sunday, March 24th. The happy couple started for Lakeview on Monday, and will reach here tomorrow. F. P. Lane left today with a carriage to meet the couple at Bly. The bride is one of Portland's charming young ladies, and is said to possess many womanly graces. The groom is a well known and popular young man who spent the greater part of his life in Lakeview. He is the son of Mrs. F. P. Lane of the Hotel Lakeview. It is understood that Mr. Steele will take a position in the Bank of Lakeview. He recently graduated in a banking course in a Portland College, and has been clerking in Wells, Fargo Express office in Portland for several months. The Examiner extends hearty congratulations to the young couple, and wishes them all the happiness that mortals are heir to in this life.

Modoc's Sheriff Killed.

News reached Lakeview late last week of a frightful accident that befell Sheriff Hager of Modoc county last Friday. He was driving a spirited team near Alturas, and alighted to open a gate, when, it is presumed, the team ran over him or one of the horses kicked him. There is no way of finding out the particulars, as he was alone at the time, and was so severely injured that at last reports he was still unconscious. He was found some time after the accident occurred lying by the gate where he fell. The horses were found some distance away. A private letter from Alturas, received yesterday morning, states that Sheriff Hager is rapidly growing worse and is not expected to live. His mother and sister have been telegraphed for.

LATER—Word reached The Examiner yesterday morning that Sheriff Hager died from his injuries Tuesday. The dead officer was soon to have been married to a young lady of Alturas, we understand.

Appointment of Deputies.

County Clerk Gunther is now prepared to take affidavits and receive scalps under the new scalp bounty law. The clerk has made one appointment of deputy county clerk, and will make two more during the week. J. J. Monroe of Adel has been appointed for Warner, and the position has been offered to J. C. Conn of Silver Lake and Geo. P. Lovegrove of Paisley, to act in that capacity. The duties of the deputies are to take sworn statements the same as the county clerk in accordance with the new scalp bounty act.

Branded 100 Calves.

W. P. Heryford, L. F. Conn, F. M. Miller and Alex Fitzpatrick went out to the X L Ranch on the West Side a week ago Sunday to witness the "ceremony" of branding 100 X L calves. The boys say that "Mahar" Miller went in the corral and roped the animals in as perfect style as he used to nearly twenty years ago, when he "buccaroed" on the ranges of Lake county. It was the first work of the kind Mr. Miller attempted since he became a banker.

BAILEY & MASSINGILL, ...THE PIONEER STORE...

State Line Notes.

Mr. Owens the Willow Ranch landlord was in Pine Creek Saturday. Chas. Smith, the fruit tree man, was here from Likely the first of the week. Ira Smith has opened tonsorial parlors and is no prepared to fix the boys up and prune their whiskers. Follett & Amick, the merchants, have some fine bacon and hams that are going rapidly at 13 cents per pound. Building is the watchword here this week, and everybody seems to be at it. We are going to have a big town here before another year rolls round, and then, possibly, the move will be to incorporate and put on city airs. New Pine Creek is in it.

Follett & Amick are doing some painting this week, improving the appearance of their store.

Spring is at hand, sure this time. We had a "knockout" in town Sunday afternoon. The Pine Creekers are "hot stuff."

Lemon & Hartzog of the big store appear to be doing a rushing business. The boys of that firm are "up to snuff."

Surprise Valley Notes.

From the Cedarville Record.

George Turner took his band of sheep over on the west side of the mountains last Monday and turned them on their summer range. They are in first-class condition.

A large number of horses have been turned out on the range, and if good weather continues the cattle will soon follow. It is said the green range grass is already good.

The Lakeview Amateur Dramatic Co. will present the play of "Uncle Josh" next Saturday evening. Why not come to Cedarville with it. We believe they would be greeted with a full house.

An epidemic of illis has been rampant in Surprise all winter and the end is not yet. First it was the measles, then the mumps, and now the oil fever is slowly but surely gaining a foothold, and the Lord only knows what'll come next.

W. T. Mitchell arrived at Alturas from Adin last week and will soon commence the erection of a creamery there. This valley will then receive his attention and we predict that a creamery will be in operation in Surprise Valley before this time next year. Mr. Mitchell is a thorough creamery man and responsible for all contracts, which insures success and gives satisfaction.

J. B. Phelps, and old resident of Lake county, died at Grants Pass March 13, 1901, aged 78 years. Deceased was well known in this county. He was at one time owner of the place in Drews Valley known as the 70 Ranch. He was the father of Rufus Phelps of Chewaucan and Mrs. S. P. Cleland of Yreka.
