A letter one day to the editor came. It read: "Sir, your paper is great. But money is scarce, so in payment I send a pair of gum boots—number eight."

An answer to town then the editor penned; It said: "Yours received, thanks to you; But this paper is run by women alone. And the editor wears number two."

Why Tommy Was Retired.

Sue (who has just been asked to play something on the piano)—I really can't play anything.

Tommy—But, I say, Sue, why don't you play that piece you spoke to me about?

Sue—What piece?

Tommy—Why, that one you told me to ask you to play when we had company, 'cause you knew it better'n any of the others. I forget the name!

Then Tommy was sent to bed.—N. Y. Herald.

The British government has decided to discontinue the use of American beef in its army. The action of the English government, along with general conditions that exist, will have a tendency to force the price of cattle downward. The Blue Mountain Eagle of Canyon City notes that yearling steers sold two weeks ago in Morrow county at public sale for only $16 per head, the lowest price paid at this season for this class of stock for years.

"The happy have whole days and those they choose; The unhappy have but hours and those they lose."

The happy people are those who drink good liquors and smoke El Comandante cigars at Post & King's. 1-11

I you want to send a letter away in a hurry be sure to write "in haste" on the corner of the envelope. The postoffice employes will fall all over each other in their haste to get it into the first mail; the postal clerk will yell to the engineer "Pull her wide open! Here is a rush!" And the train will just fly. In case of a washout the railroad company will hire a special messenger, and see that your letter is transferred p. d. q., leaving the rest of the mail piled up at some flag station for a week.

Has it ever struck you that you can buy Jesse Moore "AA" whiskey for almost the same price paid for ordinary whiskey? Your dealer has it. Geo. Jannertbal, sole agent.

The Woodmen of Lakeview had a big time on the evening of April 24th, initiating candidates into the mysteries of the forest. There were seven initiations and thirty-three were elected to the order. The Workmen also had a big round-up on the following evening. Some twenty-five new members have been elected to the latter lodge in the past few weeks. Both these insurance orders are growing rapidly, and each of them are first-class organizations. They offer cheap and reliable insurance, and, besides, are social orders of high standing.

A BIT OF CHEER.

Perchance you feel like sighing, dear,
Just check the sigh and smile;
And cheer some wayworn wanderer
O'er many a weary mile.
A kindly word, a loving smile,
Great blessings doth bestow;
The power have they to charm away,
A heavy load of woe.

Alas! the many aching hearts,
Along the circling years,
Though there be dearth of all things else
Is never dearth of tears.
Then put aside thy griefs, dear heart,
Nor grudge a smile to dole;
'Twill cheer thine own sad lot, and bless
As well thy neighbor's soul.

For there was One whose spirit oft
Was wrapped, methinks, in gloom,
Before Him rose dark Calvary's cross,
The agony of the tomb,
And still He ever strove to cheer
The wayworn pilgrim lone;
Jesus! Imperial Prince of Peace,
From Heaven's eternal throne!

'Tis not the costly gift bestowed
That cheers the aching heart,
It is the kindly sympathy,
It is love's magic art.
And blessed shall thy memory be,
Though naught thou hast to give,
But kindly words and loving smiles;
And lo! thy soul shall live.
—Ingar Ingram, in Minneapolis House-keeper.

It is said that a Methodist minister who spreads the Gospel on a circuit in the northern part of Alabama received for this year's work $2.85, two pairs of yarn socks, one pair of jeans trousers and three pecks of potatoes. With the potatoes the good old lady who sent them made the request that the parings should be saved, as she wanted them to feed her cow.

A liberally attended entertainment in West Virginia the other day was a fight between a wild cat and a bulldog. The animals were confined in a wire cage 15 feet square. At the end of 30 minutes, says a local exchange, the dog was dead, but the cat was uninjured.

In noting the progress of by-products manufacturers begin to doubt if there is any such thing as waste materials. Furnace slag is now turned into fireproof cement, plaster and durable brick of soft, gray color.
