

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

All kinds of News Notes
Taken on
The Fly
By an
Examiner Representative

Joe Jones is over from Plush this week.

Ed. Franklin has proved up on his land near Davis Creek.

Bicycles, at The Monogram.

Al McDowell was in from Warner this week on land business.

Phil Lynch, woolgrower, was over from Warner last week.

A large assortment of Bicycle sundries at The Monogram.

Grass fed cattle are coming into the market in California for beef.

We learn that the fall-sown grain in Goose Lake valley is looking very fine.

Bernard & Son are doing a lively business in the wagon and stove line.

Charlie Sherlock has returned from an extended business trip to Modoc.

Geo. H. Bailey, the stock buyer, is in Modoc looking for the purchase of cattle.

Pay your electric light bills before May 5th, at Reynolds' store. 17-1

Miss Grace Rinehart of Cedarville has gone to San Francisco for Medical treatment.

Mrs. Dora Dewey, wife of Dr. Dewey the dentist, has recovered from a recent serious illness.

The Lakeview Brewery is advertised in this issue. Read the announcement.

We regret to learn of the serious illness, with pneumonia, of J. C. Oliver, editor of the Rustler.

Fine rain Sunday and Monday nights all through Goose Lake valley—and probably all over the county.

See the elegant new late style suits at H. Schminck & Son's. Nobby and low price. 16-2

The N-C-O will soon offer to the public a schedule of excursion rates on its line for campers and pleasure seekers.

Henry C. Sheets of Ashland and Miss Nellie D. Eaton of Parker's Station were married in Ashland April 21, 1901.

The homeliest people are sometimes handsome. Get your various expressions in stamp photographs and see how you look. 17-1

Ted Baister, the Paisley jockey, is riding young horses for George Clark in Modoc, fitting them for the coming races.

Ike Davies has returned from a fishing trip on Sprague river. He reports an enjoyable outing and fairly good success.

Dunlap & Thonston have the kind of bicycles you read about—the Columbia chainless and the Hartford. Go and see them. 17-2

James Stillman has been seriously ill with pneumonia, but is now progressing nicely. The Woodmen of the World are resting for him.

Charles Offer and daughter of Bakersfield, Cal., were guests at Hotel Lakeview several days during the past week. Mr. Offer is in the wholesale cigar business.

Your fashionable Shirt and Collar don't look well without a fashionable Necktie. See the new display at Ahlstrom Bros. 17-2

George H. Bogue, J. C. Hanan and William Hampton were visitors in Lakeview from Paisley last week. Mr. Hanan is arranging to open a meat market in Paisley.

Watch for the big line of fine shoes at the Red Shoe store. Charlie Graves is receiving the swellest line of Keith's fine shoes ever seen in this country. Sole agent.

T. J. Magilton, the Main street hardware man, received this week a lot of new goods in his line. See Magilton for bargains in every line.

Wallace Taylor, superintendent for the Chewaucan Land and Cattle Company, was down from that valley this week. Charlie Trumbo, cattle foreman, was with him.

Frank Ankeny and Miss Mae Jones were married at the home of the bride in Los Angeles on April 17th. The newly married couple will make their home in Klamath county.

If you want to see your wife smile, buy her one of those New Royal Sewing Machines at Bernard's. They are guaranteed for ten years, and are first-class.

J. S. Bush, representing Tillman & Bendel, and Wm. T. Hobson, representing the sporting goods house of Clabrough, Golcher & Co., San Francisco, arrived here Monday night. This is Mr. Hobson's first visit to Lake county, and, like all the other "road agents," it looks good to him here.

The seventy-ninth anniversary of the birth of General Grant was celebrated last Saturday—April 27th.

No change in the wool market since last week. Terri ory and Western medium, 14@16; fine, 11@15; coarse, 11@14.

Come to The Monogram and see some of the things suitable for a nice gift.

Dr. O. F. Demorest will leave for points in Klamath county on June 1st. Dr. Alice Magilton will return from Portland and be in charge of his office during his absence.

It is authoritatively stated that the fruit crop of the Sacramento valley will be a failure this year owing to late frosts, and that the California grain crop will be light owing to scarcity of rain.

Step into the handsome establishment of Schminck & Son and you can find most anything you want—and first-class at that.

Last week Jimmie, the 3-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hawkins of Cedarville, was knocked down by a horse and buggy, one wheel passing over him and breaking the collar bone.—New Era.

J. B. McCullough, the sheepbuyer from Reno, arrived last Saturday and is preparing to make a big drive from Crook county. He is accompanied by E. O'Brien and has a pack train with him.

Stamps! Stamps! Stamps! Everybody wants stamp photographs. Mrs. Knox is now prepared to make all you want, and they are cheap and good, too.

Mrs. F. N. Smith left here for Surprise valley last Sunday where she will spend a few weeks visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prior. Mrs. Smith will then join her husband at Lakeview.—New Era.

D. A. Presley, the Sprague River stockman, was in Lakeview last Saturday making final proof before the land officials. He was accompanied by G. S. Farra, who attended as witness in his land business.

Whorson & Smith of "The Palace" received this week a fine lot of "wet goods" and liquors of every description, consisting of Cyrus Noble, Jesse Moore, Kellogg and other popular brands.

Mrs. W. R. Dyer arrived last week from Sacramento to join her husband, who is engaged at Devine's tonsorial parlors. Mrs. Dyer enjoyed the trip to Lakeview, and is much taken up with this country.

Charlie Morrison, Eb. Follett, Arthur Follett, William Vincent, Guy Hammondsley and Oliver Charlton were among the Pine-Creekers who rode the goats in the Woodmen and Workmen lodges in Lakeview last week.

You like to keep in style, don't you? Let us give you a "tip." To be in the fashion you must wear the latest Shirts—see how "em in all colors, quality and make. AHLSTROM BROS.

R. M. Cannon and wife arrived from Portland last Sunday. Mr. Cannon is a cousin of Fayette, Lum and Miss Lizzie Cannon of New Line Creek, and he and his wife have been visiting their relatives this week.

W. H. Zimmerman, representing the Goodyear Rubber Co., and S. T. Dove, the Oliver plow man, were guests at Hotel Lakeview this week. The gentlemen are from Portland. Mr. Dove left for Silver Lake on Monday.

We are just receiving a complete assortment of Cooking Stoves, and Steel Ranges. Call and examine our stock, and get prices before ordering, and we will save you money. J. E. Bernard & Son.

Spencer Childers and family have reached their former home in Medford, where they will remain during the summer. Mr. Childers is the contractor who put up several brick buildings in Lakeview soon after the big fire.

Charles Hilton, after spending two years at Republic, Wash., has returned to Modoc. He speaks well of the Washington town, and says that Jimmie Powers and family, Billy Combs and Harry Rachford, other Modocers, are doing well there.

You know what a Hat is? A Hat is a thing worn on the head for protection. Some Hats are pretty and some are ugly ornaments. Our Hats are handsome all the time. They keep their shape. AHLSTROM BROS. 17-2

W. R. Bond was here from Warner last Saturday, making proof on his pre-emption claim before the Register and Receiver. Mr. Bond says that while the spring is late, crops in Warner are farther advanced than on this side of the mountains.

NEWTON WOODCOCK.

DIED—In Lakeview, Oregon, April 27, 1901, Newton, beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Woodcock, aged 12 years, 9 months and 13 days.

The end of this young life was unexpected. The sad news fell as a pall upon this community where little "Newt," was known so well. Saturday morning, at 3 o'clock, long before the town, throbbing with the quickening life of Spring, awoke to go about its appointed toil, he closed his eyes on all this existence had given or withheld from him, and sank into the deep slumber of death as peacefully and naturally as a babe falls asleep on the loving breast of its mother.

He was just recovering from an attack of the mumps and was not thought to be seriously ill—nor was he until a few hours before death. He became suddenly ill on the afternoon preceding his death, and complained that his head hurt him. As the hours glided on toward another day the little patient would only complain of his head, and when he died the attending physician said it was congestion of the brain.

"Newt" was an uncommonly bright boy and a close student. He had studied hard over his part of the debate, to be held at the closing day of the school, upon the subject of "Napoleon," and had mastered a fine address for one of his years. The day before his death he recited the address before his parents, and asked them to criticize and tell him where the faulty parts were. Next morning he went before his Maker to deliver it.

It has never before been the writer's experience to witness such universal sorrow and lament over the death of a child. Newt Woodcock was loved and esteemed by all who knew him. At home, on the street, in the school-room and on the school grounds he was ever the little gentleman—the manly little man, with a smile and a courtesy for all with whom he met. And everybody in Lakeview knew him and were as proud of him as were his fond and devoted parents. He will be missed in the school room by the teachers; he will be missed on the school grounds by his playmates, he will be missed on the street by the business man and "man about town."

Many were the tearful eyes at the old church when the good man in the pulpit was reciting Newt's virtues, as his little body reclined in the beautiful basket, covered with flowers—just at the foot of the altar. There were many of his playmates there to hear the sermon, and they seemed truly grieved over the breaking of the ranks—the loss of one whom they all loved.

Newt Woodcock was born in Klamath Falls, and came to Lakeview with his parents, brothers and sisters, about three years ago. The funeral was held from the Methodist Church on Sunday, April 28th, and the church was crowded with people. Many followed the remains to the cemetery. Numerous little boys and girls carried flowers which they placed upon his grave. A prayer by Rev. C. Wesley Raymond, and all was over. The little grave was covered with flowers. To the grieving ones left behind, The Examiner extends its deepest sympathy. The grief, that constant tugging at the heart-strings of the loving mother, the father, bowed down with sorrow at the loss of the son he was so proud of, the bereavement of sisters and brothers, is only known by those who have passed through the same sad trials. Farewell! little friend and noble youth—Farewell!

Must Make Settlement.

I desire to inform those indebted to the old firm of Beall & Willey that their accounts are long since due and payable, and that an early settlement is earnestly desired that the business of the old firm may be settled forthwith. Those who know themselves to be indebted to the firm are notified that their accounts must be settled within thirty days from date or collections will be forced, as I must have my business in Lakeview straightened out at once. All bills should be paid to my former partner, Lee Beall. Respectfully,
J. M. WILLEY,
Lakeview, Or., April 25, 1901. 16-1

Post & King.

G. A. Follett has completed the most beautiful piece of grill work ever turned out in Lake county. The work is on the club-room door at Post & King's, and was turned out by Mr. Follett by hand. It must be seen to be appreciated. Speaking of the Post & King establishment, it is to be, when completed, the finest saloon, club room and bar in the interior of the state. The big beveled French plate mirror, 48x96 inches, with additional mirrors for the ends 30x48 inches in diameter, the solid quarter-sawed white oak wood, grown in Michigan, for the bar with the top piece of solid Honduras mahogany one inch thick and 24 inches wide, without a joint or seam, arrived this week from Chicago. It will be at least a month before the fixtures are placed, and then the Post & King establishment will be something beautiful to look at.

A Store full of Good Things

Easy Buying

There is a whole lot of comfort in buying your goods at this store—you get Quality, Cheapness, and if not fully satisfied with your purchase for any reason, we exchange it, or give your money back. This system makes it safe for even a child to trade here. Our success has been the result of many years, steady, careful study of your wants. We are in business for you, first, last and all the time.

Our Spring Stock is in—Call around—You are as welcome to look as you are to purchase.

Bieber's

GOOD GOODS

In the Hotel Building

25 CTS THE Cottage

..Lodging House Restaurant..

Mesdames Coulter & Day, Proprietors

--The Only 25 Cent House in Lakeview--

Restaurant and Lodging House have both been thoroughly renovated. Good table service and clean beds. The comfort of our parlors will always be our first aim. Call at The Cottage for a good meal and bed.

Swellest Shirts In Town

Have just arrived and are now on display at our store.

FINE LINE OF JEWELRY

FINE SHOES, TO. COME AND SEE 'EM

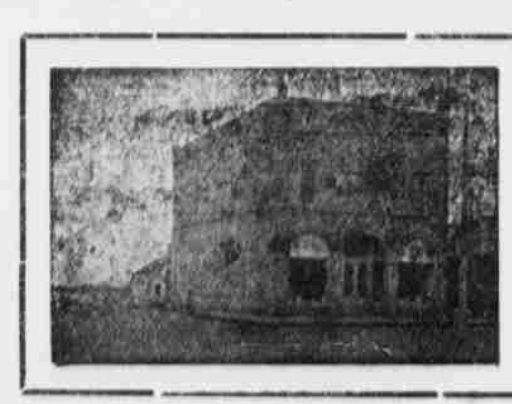

MONOGRAM

WHY FIELD CAN GIVE YOU THE

...BEST BARGAINS IN TOWN...

FIGURE IT OUT YOURSELF, IT WON'T TAKE LONG

I pay no rents, I pay no clerk, but do my own work. IT'S EASY to see how I can give you better bargains than any house in the county

J. S. FIELD

On Main Street - - - - - Lakeview