W. T. Mitchell, the creamery man, was in the valley last week. It is now a settled fact that a creamery will be erected here this summer or fall. When completed our farmers will experience greater benefits than ever before. The near approach of the railroad will solve the difficulty of transportation, and when a revenue of from $2000 to $3000 each month is added to the circulating medium of the valley it will be a decided advance in the prosperity of this portion of Modoc.—Cedarville Record.

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. Lynch, Dorr, W. Va. This remedy is sold by Lee Beall, Druggist.

"There is a charm by sages often told, Converting all it touches into gold; Content can soothe where'er by fortune placed, Can rear a garden in the desert waste."

The contented people about town are those who enjoy their drinks and smokes at Post & King's. 1-1

It is said that the following advice, if heeded, will relieve your home of trouble—some flies, as the season for that pest is now approaching. Try it: Expose a little oil of bay in a saucer on your window-sill, or coat your doors and windows with any color of paint you like containing as little as four per cent of oil of bay, which is far from expensive, and can be had anywhere, and not a single fly will enter your house.

Viewed through an inverted glass, Sometimes makes one see double; Thus four quarts of beer is apt To make a full peck of trouble.

But if purchased at Post & King's (A. B. C.) it will make a barrel of pleasure. 50-1

"I have been suffering from dyspepsia for the past twenty years and have been unable after trying all preparations and physicians to get any relief. After taking one bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure I found relief and am now in better health than I have been for twenty years. I cannot praise Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too highly." Thus wrote Mrs. C. W. Roberts, North Creek, Ark. Lakeview Drug Co.

A. D. Harpold of Bonanza is full of enterprise. He is just now working on projects for extensive irrigation near that town, says the Klamath Republican. Besides his scheme, already inaugurated, to irrigate from a lake near Bonanza, he says he will next begin an enterprise to lift water from Lost river near the Upper Gap, where he proposes to use the falls for power. This will water several thousand acres in Poe Valley.

"I have been troubled with indigestion for ten years, have tried many things and spent much money to no purpose until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken two bottles and gotten more relief from them than all other medicines taken. I feel more like a boy than I have felt in twenty years."—Anderson Riggs of Sunny Lane, Texas. Thousands have testified as did Mr. Riggs. Lakeview Drug Co.

E. C. Peixotto's article, "Paris Types," in the May Cosmopolitan, charmingly illustrated by the author, will interest those whose wish to see Paris has never been gratified, and at the same time arouse the pleasant recollections of former visitors. The fiction includes stories of love, adventure and humor by such well-known writers as Julian Hawthorne, Hayden Carruth, Egerton Castle and H. G. Wells. Send for a copy.

"It seems to be an actual fact that an Indian never laughs." "Nonsense! Didn't Longfellow make Minnehaha?" And everybody else "Ha Ha's," who drink and smoke at Post & King's. 1-1

When you go to Klamath Falls don't fail to see C. D. Wilson the popular caterer at the Gem saloon. He carries the finest stock in town and will treat you right. The Gem is the popular resort. Try the Hermitage whisky there. 25-1

The real estate in Lake county, belonging to the Frankl Co., is now on the market for sale. No reasonable offer will be refused for any part of it. For full particulars call at or address this office, or Charles Umbach, Lakeview, Oregon. 1-1

If people only know what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure it would be used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach or water-brash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation, such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which, with no aid from the stomach, will digest your food, certainly can't help but do you good. Lakeview Drug Co.
