Bly now has a regularly appointed saloon, with W. N. Wilson at the helm. "Carry Nation" drinks are popular there.

The "El Commandante" cigar is a good, honest smoke. There is none quite so good. For sale only by Post & King. 7-11

The track athletes of the University of California defeated the University of Oregon team at Eugene on May 6th, in a score of 75 to 42.

You are much more liable to disease when your bowels do not act properly. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove the cause of disease. Lakeview Drug Co.

John O'Connor and Jerome Moynihan, two gentlemen from the Green Isle, arrived here last week and expect to make their home in Lake county.

Minnie Frazee, a teacher of a county school in San Diego county, has proven herself a hero worthy of a place among the best. One of her pupils being bitten by a rattler she quickly sucked the wound and saved the boy, who is all right now. Man does not possess a corner on bravery.

Many town lots are being sold in Klamath Falls and much land is changing hands in the vicinity of that place. New people are constantly arriving in Klamath.

About 150,000 pounds of wool were sold at the Wasco warehouse this week to Boston buyers at prices ranging from ten to eleven cents, says the Times-Mountaineer.

"Quo vadis, Bomin!"—you know, I always drink the best, and so I go the way that's sure to bring Me to the house of Post & King. 18

Arthur Price, the Clover Flat sheepman, was in Lakeview on business last Thursday. Price is a rustler, from away back, and is taking fine care of the Alex Reid estate sheep.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers search the remotest parts of the bowels and remove the impurities speedily with no discomfort. They are famous for their efficacy. Easy to take, never gripe. Lakeview Drug Co.

The Dave Edler sheep had produced up to May 10th 125 per cent of lambs. It is thought if this warm weather continues the per cent will be greater than ever before in Lake county.

Dr. Meredith of Cedarville has a "cooking" machine, filled with hot air. He places the "old boys" in the machine, cooks 'em for a half hour, and they come out "just as young as they used to be."

"The happy have whole days and those they choose; The unhappy have but hours and those they lose."

The happy people are those who drink good liquors and smoke El Comandante cigars at Post & King's. 1-11

Miss Mabel Trumbo arrived here yesterday from Indiana for an extended visit to her mother, Mrs. A. F. Trumbo, whose health is poor. She was accompanied here by an aunt whom she has been visiting.—New Era.

They sing of spring, these poet men! Their foolishness amazes! A little breath of May—and then 'Tis June—and hot as blazes!

When you get warm and thirsty go to Post & King's and get one of those delicious cool drinks. 19-11

George Reid says the range feed in Lake county is better than it has been for many years at this time, and that the weather is fine for lambing. So far the Alex. Reid estate sheep have produced over 100 per cent of lambs.

The real estate in Lake county, belonging to the Frankl Co., is now on the market for sale. No reasonable offer will be refused for any part of it. For full particulars call at or address this office, or Charles Umbach, Lakeview, Oregon. 1-11

Past Guardian Neighbor Mrs. Zadie Linebarger, of Mountain View Circle, Women of Woodcraft, Lakeview, will soon visit Lake City, Cal., officially, and institute a circle at that place.

Take a look at the Ahlstrom saddlery and harness establishment if you want to see a model of this kind. Few shops in cities of 10,000 inhabitants can surpass Ahlstrom's for beautiful stock and complete line.

The Susanville papers state that Frank Cain has started for Alturas with his famous race horse Baleric, and will train him here for the races at Lakeview in July, after which he will return here again and remain until after the Fair next fall.—New Era.

Viewed through an inverted glass, Sometimes makes one see double; Thus four quarts of beer is apt To make a full peck of trouble.

But if purchased at Post & King's (A. B. C.) it will make a barrel of pleasure. 50-11

Teachers, and school districts employing them as well, will suffer for the non-attendance of said teachers at county institutes. Certificates will be revoked and the district employing the teachers at the time of the holding of the institute will lose $5 school money.

"Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. I quickly secured a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure, giving her three doses. The croup was mastered and our little darling speedily recovered." So writes A. E. Stafford, Chester, Mich. Lakeview Drug Co.

The Klamath Falls Irrigating Company has completed the present widening of its ditch, and it is reported that water will be turned in to day. The services of nearly all the workmen, who were employed, were dispensed with last week and a large number of them have gone to Bly to work on the irrigating plants at that place.—Klamath Republican.

"It seems to be an actual fact that an Indian never laughs." "Nonsense! Didn't Longfellow make Minnehaha?"

And everybody else "Ha Ha's," who drink and smoke at Post & King's. 11-11

News comes from Reno that A. W. Charlton, who is engaged at that place, was kicked by a horse before leaving Modoc county, from which he suffered a bad wound. After reaching Reno the injury became serious, and he just received medical attendance in time to save a dangerous case of blood poisoning. Mr. Charlton is now getting along nicely.

"I have been troubled with indigestion for ten years, have tried many things and spent much money to no purpose until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken two bottles and gotten more relief from them than all other medicines taken. I feel more like a boy than I have felt in twenty years."—Anderson Riggs of Sunny Lane, Texas. Thousands have testified as did Mr. Riggs. Lakeview Drug Co.

John Maher shot John Wyatt and then killed himself at the home of the latter, near Harney City, on May 4th. Both were old men, who were preparing to go to the Baker City hospital. The bodies were found within five feet of each other. Maher suddenly became insane and committed the deed.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY
Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c. 38-11

The machinery for the Alturas creamery arrived last week, and Expert Wm. T. Mitchell is now at work arranging the plant. The farmers are getting their dairy cows together so they can furnish milk just as soon as the creamery machinery is ready to move. Alturas citizens went after this good thing with a vim, showing much enterprise and public spirit.

"I have been suffering from dyspepsia for the past twenty years and have been unable after trying all preparations and physicians to get any relief. After taking one bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure I found relief and am now in better health than I have been for twenty years. I cannot praise Kodol Dyspepsia Cure too highly." Thus wrote Mrs. C. W. Roberts, North Creek, Ark. Lakeview Drug Co.

Thomas Cotter, representing Moses & Co., woolbuyers of San Francisco, arrived in Lakeview last Thursday evening. Mr. Cotter was the first man to buy wool in Lake county in the "early-day" period. He has numerous old-time friends here who were rejoiced to see him after an absence of many years. A. Bieber, the Lakeview merchant, also represents Mr. Cotter's firm. They are sizing up the local wool market.

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. Lynch, Dorr, W. Va. This remedy is sold by Lee Bea'l, Druggist.

De Night-mare.

Did yo evah hab de night mare? E' you didn't, hold yo brel! Twel I tell yo all about 'im. For he skeers yo hat to deef. He's got a lot of heezabones. And gnoas an' gobblins, too. I'd rather hab a thousand dollars Dan de night-mare.

De night-mare comes to see yo When you's had too much to eat, Or you's lyin' on yo back Or else yo livin' in yo feet. A burglar's standin' ovah yo; You wakes up wif a chill. Rattler hab a automobile Dan de night-mare.

He drags yo off o' house-tops An' drowns yo in de lake; He makes yo' believe yo folks is dead, Or you runnin' fum a snake; A big mad bull is after yo An' yo can't budge a flea. Say—I'd rather hab de measles Dan de night-mare.

ALL COONS

Look Alike to Some.
Some people can't see any difference in pictures. A picture may be made of lamp-black, colored chalk or any odd thing—all are the same to them; the "price" is the only difference noticed, and, blinded by the exaggerated statements of some "fakers," they are sometimes induced to give an order for work which is afterwards regretted. "Experiments" are costly. If you have a picture to enlarge keep your orders for HARRISMAN & CANNON. We'll be in Lakeview, Oregon, and Modoc county, Cal., again in May and June. This is your last chance. 19-3 HARRISMAN & CANNON.

"Hurrah for Mac."

An Oregon editor, through whose town the president will pass, breaks out in poetic eloquence as follows: "McKinley's coming to our town— We've got our bib and tucker down; We've creased our pants and blacked our shoes Since we have learned the joyful news. Our whiskers we have trimm'd with care, And we propose to cut our hair And wash our feet and scrub our face Before McKinley strikes the place. We'll give the glad and happy hand And celebrate to beat the band With all the high-toned people who expect to come here on review. We'll tog right up, and we may add, We'll swear we'll not get drunk, begad! Hurrah for Mac! He is the stuff— We'll give him just a daisy puff— For he and Teddy are a pair That can't be beaten anywhere."
