Thos. Cotter, the woolbuyer, is watching the local market with a zealous eye.

Charlie Graves of the Red Shoe Store received a big stock of fine shoes this week.

The Postoffice store will receive a fine line of cigars, tobaccos, confectionery, fruits and stationery next week. 19-1

Dick Wilcox has opened a small store at the postoffice. Watch for his stock of fine cigars and confectionery next week. 19-1

The two little daughters of Attorney W. J. Moore, who have been ill with typhoid fever are convalescent.

C. O. Metzker, the wide-awake editor of that wide-awake, religious journal, the Chewaucan Post, spent a few days in Lakeview last week.

Andy Devine and George Whorton went to Burnt Creek on a prospecting trip last Tuesday. Andy says he has found a mine—too rich to tell about just now.

The Examiner is advised that J. Frank of San Francisco will arrive here in about ten days to look after his business interests and will also make top notch offers for wool.

The ladies should see Mrs. Pepperdine's beautiful stock of millinery before making final purchases. At Lakeview Drug Co's. store, next to Reynolds & Wingfield's. 19-1

Mrs. S. W. Pepperdine, the fashionable milliner of Alturas, arrived here Tuesday evening with a stock of the latest millinery. She can be found at the store of the Lakeview Drug Company, next door to Reynolds & Wingfield's.

R. H. Stanley, editor of the Surprise Valley Record, spent several days in Lakeview last week. Mr. Stanley is a rattling good fellow, and is doing splendid work in his particular field in Modoc county. While in this vicinity he visited his relative O. L. Stanley, south of New Pine Creek.

T. E. Bernard, junior member of the firm of J. E. Bernard & Son, left for the north last Tuesday on a business trip for his firm. Mr. Bernard will visit with the ranchers of Chewaucan and Summer Lake to explain to them the superiority of the line of wagons, agricultural implements, etc., carried by his firm.

C. A. Moore, a prominent attorney of Portland arrived last Saturday to visit with his mother Mrs. E. F. Moore and his brother, Attorney J. W. Moore, for a few weeks, as well as to attend to some matters in the Circuit Court. This is Mr. Moore's first visit to Lakeview in three years. He has numerous old-time friends in Lake county.

E. F. Cheney, the harness maker, received this week an elegant stock of new goods in the line of light harness, saddles, robes, dusters, blankets, bits, spurs, ornaments, etc. Cheney's stock is up-to-date. Call and inspect it.

Dr. Frank E. Smith, of Lakeview, a graduate of the Willamette Medical College, is in this city for a few days' visit with his sister, Mrs. J. N. Smith. Dr. Smith has just returned from New York City, where he completed a post-graduate course. He goes to Lakeview in a few days to resume his practice.—Salem Statesman.

John Wells, the big horseman, recently returned from below having sold a big band of horses at satisfactory prices. While below Mr. Wells purchased a thoroughbred jack which is said to be about the finest specimen of the long-eared family to be found in this part of Oregon. The Wells mules are widely known as fine stock.

Ladies, Mrs. S. W. Pepperdine is prepared to show you something beautiful in 1901 millinery. All the latest novelties in dress hats—"Panache" "Persian" and other late styles. A big line to select from in Walking hats and children's bonnets. Stock on display at Lakeview Drug Co's store. 19-1

Dan Maloy has become a property holder in Lakeview, and is now the possessor of one of the best residence properties in town. Last Monday he purchased the residence of Dr. Dewey, at present occupied by Lee Beall, the druggist. Mr. Maloy paid $1,600 for the place, and considers he has a bargain.

F. A. Fitzpatrick returned Tuesday morning from San Francisco. "Fitz" visited Redding and other points on the trip. He is explaining to the boys how "Terrible Teddy" put it on Oscar Gardner in their recent bout in Frisco. He had a front seat at that exhibition, and thoroughly enjoyed his tour of the Bay City.

The regular term of the Circuit Court convenes in Lakeview next Monday.

M. Lucile Hall and Mrs. O. F. Hunter-daughters of H. B. Helfinstine, of Cottonwood, are here from Los Angeles, having come on a hasty call to see their father who was thought to be dangerous, by ill. Mr. Helfinstine is now on the road to recovery, we are glad to note. M. Lucile Hall will give an elocutionary entertainment next Thursday evening, May 23d, which promises to be a delightful affair.

The firm of Dunlap & Thruston of Lakeview, has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Thruston retiring from the business. The stock of groceries, furnishing goods, etc., was sold to H. C. Rothe & Co. Mr. Dunlap will conduct the business hereafter in a different line. He will carry a full stock of cigars, confectionery, books, stationery, and photo goods, and will have a reading room, icecream parlor and a billiard parlor for ladies and gentlemen.

Messrs. Handley & Clendenen of the Lakeview planing mill, and Messrs. Nail and Bayley did some excellent work in placing The Examiner water motor in working order last week. The former gentlemen had charge of the carpenter work, arranging pulleys, etc., and the latter did the plumbing. The Pelton wheel is now driving The Examiner presses with a stream of water the size of a lead pencil from the Town Water Works. Our friends are all invited to drop in and see the machinery in working order at any time, particularly on Saturday at 11 a. m. and Wednesday at 4:30 p. m.—when the big press is turning off the weekly edition.

On account of the recent change in the schedule on the N. C. O. Ry., establishing a Sunday run from Reno to Terno, and an order from postal headquarters to hold the Sunday mails for the north at Terno, pending the change from Terno to Lakeview to seven times-a-week by stage, no mail arrived from the South Monday night. As a result two mails were due Tuesday night, and the San Francisco papers contained very stale news for the reading public up this way. It is thought the Sunday service from the south will be established between Terno and Lakeview in about a fortnight, when the mails will arrive on time every day in the week.

Real Wood Camps.
An proposition which will be proposed to all the camps of Woodmen of the World of Northern California, and which, if it gain their approval, may be projected widely in Woodmen circles, has originated with the members of Redding camp, says the Redding Free Press. The scheme is to set aside several succeeding days each year when the Woodmen of all Northern California shall gather at a place to be selected and camp in the woods after the fashion of the first woodmen. The gathering will be of the nature of a grand protracted picnic where social and fraternal sentiments shall be daily fostered.

Redding camp is so pleased with its novel idea that it will name committees to place it before the camps of all the towns of the north.

Here is a scheme that might be considered by the Woodmen and Women of Woodcraft of Oregon, and especially of Lake county.

To Improve the Blood.
James Brooks of Ontario, Canada, has been in Lakeview for a week, and will remain for several days yet interviewing the sheepmen of Lake county. Mr. Brooks is representing a thoroughbred sheep farm in Canada, and will introduce his stock among the flocks of Lake county. He sold this week 30 head of Lincoln bucks to Z. Whitworth and 31 head to Dave Elder. His firm has the Point and Fairfield ram, the prize winner of England and the Champion of Canada and of the United States. This animal weighs 456 pounds. His picture will appear in The Examiner soon.

Another Sample Letter.
YOU BET, Cal., May 4, 1901.

EDITOR EXAMINER: Give me some information regarding the timber lands in your county. What chance would there be for a good sawmill up there? The timber in this section is about 'all up.' What is the price of lumber? Is there much demand?

The above is another sample of the many letters received at this office weekly regarding Lake county.

Started for the Railroad.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Beach started Monday morning for Ashland, by private conveyance, Tom Burrs driver. They will go from Ashland to Baker City as delegates from Lakeview lodges to the grand lodges of I. O. O. F. and Rebekahs. Early next month they will accompany the excursionists composed of the members of the Oregon Press Association and their families to the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, New York. Mr. and Mrs. Beach expect to be absent until the middle of January. Miss Rose B. Coleman, late teacher in the Lakeview public school, accompanied them to Ashland, and will go to Eugene to spend the summer. Miss Flo Hall intended going to the railroad with them, to extend her trip to her old home at Myrtle Creek, but finally deferred her departure until a later period. Upon the return trip Mr. Burrs will be accompanied by Mrs. G. A. Follett and children, who have been in Portland for nearly a year, and her sister Miss Grace Beach, who will accept a position as compositor on The Examiner.

Lakeview Water Company.
The Lakeview Water Company is arranging to begin improvements in its water plant. The main object, we understand, is to bring the water direct from their famous spring to a reservoir on the summit of the hill south of Bullard Canyon. Tiling will be manufactured for the purpose of carrying the water. In a conversation with S. V. Rehart, Superintendent of the company, a few days ago, that gentleman said he regretted having contracted for the tiling so early in the season, as he had learned "something new" while on a recent visit below. Mr. Rehart was informed that glass pipe for such purposes is now being manufactured, and can be produced at a less cost than the tiling can be made for. He also states that there is a mountain of glass near Lakeview which will no doubt be utilized some time in the future, when all that will be required are furnaces and a steam blower, with an expert to handle the apparatus to make a complete glass plant.

Frank Lane Retires.
Last Tuesday Frank P. Lane sold his interest in the Hotel Lakeview property and retired from the business yesterday morning. F. M. Miller was the purchaser of Mr. Lane's interest, for which he paid, we understand, $7,700. Mr. Lane is in poor health and desires to engage in some out-door business, which, we learn, was his reason for selling. The Hotel Lakeview property is a good investment, and the fact that Mr. Lane received more than the money he first invested less than a year ago is an evidence that Mr. Miller is well satisfied with the business. There will be no change in the management or arrangement of the hotel. Mr. Lane will probably engage in the sheep business. He still has some valuable landed interests adjoining Lakeview, and owns a half-interest in the brick building adjoining the hotel on the north, occupied by S. D. Coulter & Co., city marketmen. Everybody wishes Frank Lane success in whatever he may engage in.

Sold Lake County Horses.
C. C. Loftus, the horseman of Crane Lake, returned last Sunday from Cottonwood, California, whither he went some time ago with a band of 80 head of horses. Mr. Loftus said it was slow business in the horse market, but he managed to dispose of his band at fairly good prices considering the condition of the country. The farmers and fruit men were not disposed to deal heavily in horseflesh owing to the uncertainty of crops, but as they had a good rain recently all over California they are all jubilant. Mr. Loftus regretted selling out before the rain came, but as that also was uncertain he could not afford to remain all summer "waiting for something to turn up." Had he not sold when he did he would have realized several dollars more on the head. Rain, just at the right time, is a blessing from Heaven to the Californians.

Fine Entertainment Promised.
M. Lucile Hall, elocutionist and impersonator from Los Angeles, will give an elocutionary entertainment, assisted by Mrs. L. G. Beach, pianist at Gunther Hall on Thursday evening, May 23d, 1901, commencing at 8 o'clock. The program will consist of humor, pathos and tragedy; among the former is the "Village Gossip," "McWilliams and Membraneous Croup" etc., and the latter the "Chariot Race" and "Scene from Quo Vadis". M. Lucile Hall comes well recommended, and is a lady of rare culture. She has had years of experience in her particular line, and is a graduate of the Cumnock School of Oratory. Those who may be fortunate enough to attend this entertainment on next Thursday evening will be assured of a grand treat. Admission 50 and 25 cents.
