The choice to be decided by vote of the gentlemen. Each gentleman is to be given a blank card upon which he may write the name of the lady of his choice.

MAY BRIDES.

On Sunday, May 20th, at 12 o'clock, a very happy event occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Rehart, at Crooked Creek, twelve miles from Lakeview, when Mr. W. F. Grob and Miss Ella Rehart were joined in marriage, in the presence of relatives of the bride and a few friends of the contracting parties. At twelve o'clock the couple, attended by Mr. Dan Malloy and Miss Rose Rehart marched into the parlor at the Rehart home, and stood beneath a silver bell while Hon. H. L. Benson, Judge of the Circuit Court, in a few well chosen words pronounced the couple husband and wife. Congratulations followed, after which the wedding party and guests sat down to a splendid wedding dinner. About 3 o'clock the party returned to Lakeview and in the evening a reception was held at the residence of the newly wedded couple, on South Main street, and about fifty well-wishers of the bride and groom were there to offer congratulations and spend a pleasant evening. Refreshments galore were served, and at a late hour all departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Grob much happiness and good fortune.

The bride is the eldest daughter of C. A. Rehart. She was reared from childhood in Lake county, and has many friends who wish her complete joy and happiness. The groom is a well known young man who came here a few years ago from Jacksonville, Oregon, and at once made himself popular with everybody. Everybody likes "Pete," as he is familiarly known, and a host of friends will join with The Examiner in wishing him and his good wife a long life of joy and good fortune.

The couple were the recipients of numerous handsome and useful presents as follows:

Silver tea set	Dr. T. V. Hall
Silver spoons	A. H. Hamilton
Silver fruit stand	Louis' Aunt's
China dinner set	Ayres & Whitworth
Set silver knives and forks	Mrs. C. A. Rehart

SMITH—WALTERS.

On Wednesday, May 23d, at 8 p. m. without ostentation, Dr. Elbert H. Smith and Miss Lillie Walters were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock by Rev. C. Wesley Raymond of the M. E. church. The happy event occurred at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Walters. The parlor was beautifully arranged for the occasion, the floral decorations being white and purple lilacs. The bride looked lovely in white silk and the groom was looking his best in the conventional black.

The bride is the fifth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Walters, pioneer people of Lake county. She is a talented young woman, a vocalist of considerable local notoriety, and is held in high esteem by all who know her. The groom is a young physician of high class who enjoys a remunerative practice. He came here about eighteen months ago from Indian Territory, and engaged with B. Reynolds in the drug business, as well as the practice of his profession. Dr. Smith is a handsome gentleman, a jolly good fellow, and is universally liked and esteemed for his social qualities and rare talent.

Only a few intimate friends and relatives of the bride were present at the ceremony. The happy couple were the recipients of numerous beautiful presents, among which were the following:

Silver tea set; bon bon dish; carving set; water set; large dining room picture; silver pepper and salt shaker; salad dish; Battenberg design sofa cushion and silver olive dish.

A splendid wedding supper was served, and the bride and groom started on their new life with the best wishes of many friends. The Examiner joins with the many in hearty congratulations, trusting that the future of Dr. and Mrs. Smith may be very happy.

RAMSBY—MARTIN.

The marriage of Mr. Carey M. Ramsby and Miss S. Elizabeth Martin was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Martin, Klamath Falls, on Sunday, May 20th at 6 p. m. The groom is a well known young blacksmith, who was formerly engaged by W. D. Woodcock & Son of Lakeview. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ramsby, well known in Lake and Klamath county, and is quite popular with all who know him. The bride is a handsome and charming young lady of Klamath Falls and is highly esteemed by everybody who has the pleasure of her acquaintance. The Examiner joins many friends in Lake county with hearty congratulations, and best wishes for the future life of Mr. and Mrs. Ramsby.

Something New and Valuable.

I have for sale (the exclusive right in Lake county) the famous "Many in One Fruit and Vegetable Press," for the first time introduced in this section. This is an apparatus that will take seeds out of berries, take strings out of turnips, cooks and peels potatoes, renders lard, stuffs sausages and does a hundred other things. This is a machine that is almost indispensable in a well regulated home. I will start out to canvass this county next week and will be pleased to show the workings of this press to all who wish to see it. The price for press complete is $6. I will also sell territorial rights in this state. J. K. FERGUSON, 19-1m New Pine Creek, Ore.
