

SHEEP AND WOOL SALES.

A Few of the Transactions Recorded at Heppner Last Week.

Last week at Heppner, the Penland clip of wool consisting of 150,000 pounds was sold to Judd & Root, of Boston, for eleven cents per pound.

Robt. Hynd, manager of the Morrow County Land & Trust Co.'s warehouse, disposed of his clip of 50,000 pounds to the same firm at ten cents per pound.

A Dakota sheep buyer named Hale shipped 7000 or 8000 head of sheep to South Dakota, and Tage and Gooding will also ship an equal number.

L. Clark has also come to Heppner after a large band of mutton sheep.

Cash McAllister has within the past week purchased over 8000 yearling wethers at prices ranging from $1.60 to $2. The buying was done around Antelope and Shaniko.

Smythe & Son, of Arlington, have sold their wool to J. M. Russell & Co., of The Dalles scouring mills. They had 259 sacks, weighing about 80,000 pounds. The price obtained was nine and seven-eighths cents per pound.

The clip raised by W. H. Herren on lower Eight Mile, in Morrow county, was sold to T. B. Trumbull at nine cents.

Frank Lee paid Hans Miller ten cents for his clip. It was pretty clean. Mr. Lee also secured 137,000 pounds from Joe Cunhua, of Echo, at eight and one-half cents; and 18,000 pounds at ten cents from Henry Haas, of Arlington.

We'll "Meet You Over There."

A strong flow of boiling hot water has been obtained at an artesian well near Vale, Malheur county, Eastern Oregon has always had the reputation of being a "hot place," but we did not know the fiery furnaces were quite so close to the surface.—Salem Statesman.

There is no use intimating that hell is in this direction. That future home of Salem newspaper men and members of the Oregon legislature has long since been located at Amadee, California, on the line of the N-C-O Railroad, where water is so hot it can only be used for cooking purposes. Vale, however is said to be "warm" enough in other respects. There are several hot springs right here at Lakeview, but hell is a long ways from here.—Lakeview Examiner.

When the railroad is extended to Lakeview that place will be only a days travel from Amadee, and that's getting pretty close to "it," in our way of thinking.—Susanville Advocate.

Undoubtedly, then, Amadee is the much-talked-of place where so many people have all our life told us to go to. We will be pleased to meet both esteemed brothers Hayden & McDiarmid, of the Advocate there, and expect to have a warm time.

The Fourth of July.

Well, we presume it is in order, now that the races and baseball tournament in Lakeview promise to be successful, to make some move toward a big celebration here on the Fourth of July. Undoubtedly there will be the largest attendance here at the races ever before witnessed, and as Lakeview was unable to celebrate last Fourth owing to the great fire, it would be an appropriate thing to give a big celebration not only in observance of the Nation's birthday, but in honor of and to dedicate New Lakeview. An early move should be made to carry out a program as there only remain a little over thirty days in which to make the arrangements. A meeting should be called at once, and an executive committee elected to formulate plans. Let us get out of the old time-worn rut and have something new and interesting as an attraction on this Fourth.

The Turkestan Alfalfa.

The Turkestan alfalfa seed, sent to Morris Bros. by Congressman Tongue, and experimented with for the first time in Lake county, has turned out to be the best dry land fodder ever tried in this section. It has surpassed all other seeds by far, and promises to be the popular seed for fodder on the dry lands of Lake county. On the Morris ranch can be seen the remarkable growth of the Turkestan alfalfa, and the farmers and stockmen who have noticed it are well pleased with the experiment. Doubtless many acres of this seed will be planted in Lake county next year. Truly the West Side lands are productive and are bearing out the Examiner's opinion that that section is one of the best in Lake county.

Found $10,000 in Gold.

A Chinaman—a plain, everyday, almond-eyed, pig-tailed, hop-smoking, "chink"—holds the Eastern Oregon record for pure, undaunted luck. In an old cellar beneath a long-deserted cabin last week a placer-mining celestial found an oil can half filled with gold dust worth $10,000.—Baker City Herald.

IN MEMORIAM.

Our Heavenly Father has called to His celestial home our beloved Brother and Patriarch J. W. Loveless to take his eternal rest in the Tent on High.

In His infinite mercy He has relieved our brother from the burdens of life and restored to his clouded soul the brightness of Immortality.

We, as members of Lakeview Encampment No. 18, while deploring our loss, bow in humble submission to the decree which has taken from our Encampment an ardent and faithful member, beloved by all; the community a just and upright citizen, and mankind a true and steadfast friend.

To the sons and daughter of our departed brother we extend our heartfelt sympathy, and pray that the giver of mercy grant them His Heavenly consolation and blessing.

Resolved that the foregoing, as a token of our respect, be entered in full upon the records of our Encampment, and a duly certified copy thereof be transmitted to the children of our lamented brother.

High Life Scandal.

The bride of a brief month crouched in a corner of a divan—crouched among her gorgeous pillows, while the bitter tears streamed down and stained the delicate fabrics, says Leslie's Weekly. This was the end of her young ambitions, her brave efforts to make life one grand sweet song. As she uttered one last sigh of despair her mother entered the room and flew to the divan, casting her arms about her prostrate child.

"My darling girl, what is it that thus wrings your heart?"

"N-nothing, ma; n-nothing. B-but it is all over."

"What is all over?" questioned the mother in affright. "Has your husband abused you?"

"No, ma," said the bride, raising herself upon her elbow and speaking with tragic emphasis. "You remember what my ambition has been for months? W-well"—sobbing—"I cut both bloomers for one leg, and it was a remnant, and I can't match it anywhere."

"My child," said her mother solemnly, "your trouble is indeed too great to bear."

Shocked By Lightning.

Dick Sherlock, the sheepman of the Summer Lake section, arrived from Paisley last Wednesday to attend to some legal matters before the Circuit Court, and remained a few days. He informs The Examiner that Will J. Sherlock met with a peculiar accident about two weeks ago while working with his sheep in the Siccan country. A thunder and lightning storm came up suddenly and Mr. Sherlock took to the timber near by to protect himself from the rain. Suddenly a bolt of lightning struck a big tree within a few feet of where he stood, and the shock threw him to the ground and he was rendered unconscious for the space of about thirty minutes. Mr. Sherlock has not yet entirely recovered from the shock, but considers himself fortunate to live through the experience.

Should Have Bright Future.

H. H. Cutter, the California fruit peddler, who was here two weeks ago with a big load of Northern California produce, gives the Redding Searchlight the following description of a growing town at the Oregon-California state line: "New Pine Creek, just over the Oregon line, is a new town that is growing rapidly, ten or fifteen buildings being in course of construction when Mr. Cutter was there. The town is in the center of a rich agricultural section and should have a bright future. There is not a saloon in the town, for the reason that no land for such purposes will be sold."

School Report.

Following is the report of the Thomas Creek school for the month ending May 24, 1901:

W. H. MUSSELMAN, Teacher.

You may as well expect to run a steam engine without water as to find an active, energetic man with a torpid liver and you may know that his liver is torpid when he does not relish his food or feels dull and languid after eating, often has headache and sometimes dizziness. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will restore his liver to its normal functions, renew his vitality, improve his digestion and make him feel like a new man. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Beall's drug store.

How to Avoid Trouble.

Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over, and if procured now may save you a trip to town in the night or in your busiest season. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful medicine in use for bowel complaints, both for children and adults. No family can afford to be without it. For sale by Beall's Drug Store.
