

LOCAL PICK-UPS.

The N. C. O. surveyors are now working in the vicinity of Likely.

If you like the local baseball boys attend the social dance Saturday evening.

Go to the Baseball Boys' social dance Saturday evening, and have a good time.

Born—At Crooked Creek, near Lakeview, Oregon, June 11, 1901, to the wife of George Lynch, a daughter.

The Lakeview B. B. C. will give a social dance at Gunther Hall Saturday evening. A big attendance is expected.

A proposition is on foot to consolidate two of the largest mercantile firms in Lakeview. If it is to be made at all the arrangements will be completed within the next ten days.

Puls of Susanville, Sharp of Alturas, Zoveley of Bonanza, Parker of Bonanza and others are in Lakeview with their strings of race horses getting in condition for the July meeting here.

A few weeks ago Stonewall Vernon bought the Brown Bros. ranch in Goose Lake valley for $9000. Last Saturday Mr. Vernon sold the same property to W. E. Wheeler of Minnesota at the same price.

A license to wed was issued by County Clerk Gunther on June 8th to H. W. Witzel and Myrtle E. Travillion. Both parties are residents of Paisley, and it is understood the wedding is to take place this week.

Gifford, the Western Meat Co.'s mutton buyer started 12,000 head of Lake county mutton sheep to the railroad at Sisson last week. He is expected to return today after another bunch of fine ones from the Hartman band.

Jim Boydston returned Tuesday from Termo with a big load of merchandise for Lakeview merchants. Jim says they don't make any charge at Termo now for watering stock, but teamsters continue to pay a cent per pound for hay, or at the rate of $20 per ton.

The Chronicle and Examiner of San Francisco had special writers in Alturas and Lookout all week to get the latest news regarding the Modoc lynching. Edward J. Livernash was there to represent The Examiner. Both reporters left for home yesterday morning.

Wm. Smock, who several weeks ago suffered a broken ankle by being thrown from a wagon during a runaway at Crooked Creek, is now about town on crutches. It will be some time before Mr. Smock will entirely recover, or be able to navigate without the sticks.

James Snelling arrived from Cedarville Monday at which place he has been residing with his family for a year past. Mr. Snelling came over to see how the wool market looked up, with all the buyers on the ground, and says he will sell his clip at the best market price.

Gunther Bros. lessees of the opera house, will give the big Fourth of July ball. The best music in the country will be engaged, and the hall will be arranged in first-class style for the occasion. An elegant supper will be given at Hotel Lakeview. Tickets to ball and supper $3.

The small cottage to the north of the Cottage Hotel has been removed to the lot on the opposite side of the street on the W. K. Barry property. The two-story building recently conducted as a lodging house in conjunction with the Cottage will be moved from Main street to the lot vacated.

Marion Barnes, who has been engaged in business at Baker City for a long time, has returned to Lake county, and bought a blacksmithing business at Silver Lake. Mr. Barnes' family accompanied him from Baker county, and are pleased to breathe the pure air of old Lake once more.

S. J. Studley and family have arrived home after a trip to Adin, Modoc county. Mr. Studley returns somewhat recuperated, but says he is glad to get out of Modoc county. Studley thinks he can stand a little shooting, but when it comes to a lynching he wants to "make himself scarce."

Thos. Watson, an old rancher who has been in the Honey Lake valley, Lassen county, Cal., for many years, was shot to death last Thursday near his home by Ben Weisenberger, a miner who had some ground leased from Watson. A dispute over water rights was the cause of the shooting.

A crew of shearers started in on the B. Hartman sheep this week, and after shearing 1/4 of the big wethers went on a strike for 7 cents per head. The going price in this county is 6 cents. Mr. Hartman would not accede to the 7 cent demand and the shearers left the pens. Hartman is said to have some of the largest sheep in the county.

You cannot swap eggs, butter or produce with Sears, Roebuck & Co., Montgomery Ward & Co., or other Eastern mail order houses. It takes the hard cash to buy their goods. Local merchants who buy your produce and extend business favors to you are entitled to your patronage. Think it over.

John Venator is expected to arrive in Burns about July 1, from Ann Arbor, Mich., where he has been taking a course in law. John has completed his course, standing among the first in a class of 28,000 students. On his return to this county he will decide on a place to locate for the practice of his profession.—Burns Items.

Virgil Conn arrived from Paisley Monday evening, and intended going West the same evening to attend the session of the Masonic grand lodge at Portland. He discovered that the stages were not running on time to get him in Portland before the adjournment of that body, and returned home Tuesday morning.

J. F. Adams and Wm. Gupton, the latter a horsebreaker, were in town over Tuesday from Merrill. Mr. Adams has just returned from Steele Swamp where he purchased A. J. Jackson's horses, 300 head of Cleveland bays—all driving horses. He brought 100 head up to his ranch, which he will match up and break to drive, then place on the market.—Klamath Express.

"The Evening of Mystery" show did not attract a big crowd here. Our people are somewhat cautious about patronizing traveling shows, unless they come with good recommendations. Lakeview people need have no fear of spending their money to see the Rudewin Dramatic Company, which will appear here several evenings during 4th of July week. They are first-class.

Cards are out announcing the wedding on June 12th of R. A. Hopkins of Bonanza and Miss Edith Huse of Klamath Falls. The happy man is the teacher of the Bonanza public school, and the bride to be is the daughter of Editor Huse of the Klamath Republican. The couple will reside in Ashland, where the groom has been engaged to teach in one of the departments of the public school.

The burning of the first kiln of native lime rock in the Loftus & Dalrymple lime mine, four miles north of Lakeview, will be completed to-day. About 75,000 pounds of lime will be the result. It is said that it is a fine quality of lime. Lake county people who use lime will now be able to get the stuff right here at home, equally as good, if not better than that shipped in, and at a much less cost.

I. K. Venator was in from his home at Venator a few days the past week. He says that his brother A. Venator, will start for the railroad in a few days with a band of 400 head of cattle, which they recently sold to W. D. Hanley and are to deliver at Ontario. He also informs us that his sister Miss Rose, who has been sick at the home of her brother Grant in Portland since January is improving and expects to return to Harney valley soon.—Burns Items.

Dick Kingsley was in town Tuesday showing a bunch of brome grass grown on his dry land on the West side. The grass is three feet high and has headed out. It never had a drop of water but what nature gave it, and it certainly appears to be the coming thing for fodder on the dry lands of Lake county. The growth is remarkable. Kingsley will have sufficient seed for five acres next season. Farmers of Lake county should all try this grass on their dry lands.

The new bar, made out of oak and mahogany wood, that now graces Post & King's handsome saloon, is the admired of all admirers of the beautiful. No saloon outside of the big cities (and few in the cities) can sport more handsome and costly pieces of furniture than the establishment of Post & King in Lakeview. When the interior of Post & King's saloon is completed there will be nothing outside of San Francisco, Portland or Seattle on the Pacific coast that can touch it.

Hon. R. A. Emmitt of Keno was in town Friday. In relation to the movements of the Southern Pacific R. R. surveyors, Mr. Emmitt substantially confirmed the reports published last week, viz: that the survey up the Klamath was being made. Like the progressive citizens of the county generally, he is anxious to see the early construction of the road. Mr. Emmitt will soon go north to The Dalles to survey a large tract of government timber land near that city.—Klamath Republican.

"The Examiner" Gets the News.

The Examiner furnishes the latest news from the Modoc tragedies by special wire this week. The Examiner gets the news even if it has to pay for it. We realize that nearly all our readers are interested in the tragedies of a sister county, and consequently give the latest happenings by telegraph.

Baseball at State Line.

The Lakeview baseball team went to New Pine Creek last Sunday to play a friendly game with the team recently organized at that place. The Pine Creek boys have not had an opportunity to practice much, but demonstrated that when they get down to good work and get in condition they will prove likely chaps at the tournament. F. C. Easter is the manager and a new player at the state line and is said to be an all-round athlete. The score of Sunday's game stood 17 to 10 in favor of Lakeview. The New Pine Creek team extended generous hospitality to the home team and gave them a fine dinner. A return game will be played here next Sunday when the same courteous treatment will be given the visiting team.

Lime For Sale.

The first kiln of the Loftus & Dalrymple lime mine will be burnt today, and on June 15th the will be on sale at H. C. Rothe & Co's. Parties can be supplied at the kiln four miles north of Lakeview at any time by leaving orders with E. H. Loftus. 23-4t
