LAKEVIEW, OREGON, JULY 18, 1901.

Fine Cherries.

Mrs. A. Amick was in town yesterday and presented The Examiner with a box of cherries of the ox-heart variety. The fruit was grown on the Vernon place, south of New Pine Creek, which Mr. and Mrs. Amick have leased. The cherries are by far the finest we have ever seen in this country, and no better can be found anywhere in California. Those who are in doubt about fine fruit growing in Goose Lake valley should see and taste such cherries as Mrs. Amick grows.

Woodmen of the World.

Wednesday evening July 10th, Lakeview Camp, No. 526, W. O. W., held installation ceremonies, which were witnessed by a number of the Women of Woodcraft. After the officers were installed and several new members were initiated in the camp, a fine luncheon was served. The Woodmen are now the strongest organization in Lakeview, having a membership of over one hundred and eighty, ninety-nine per cent of whom are benefit members.

Tiling Not a Success.

Contractor S. Childers returned from Medford last week, and at once threw up the contract of furnishing tiling for the Lakeview Water Company, as a bad job. Mr. Childers and sons Guy and Gene returned to Medford Monday. S. V. Rehart, speaking for his company, says he regrets very much that the manufacture of the tiling was unsuccessful, and that the season is so far advanced now the company will discontinue further work of improvement until next spring when iron pipe will be shipped and laid from the springs in the mountains to the summit of the hill south of Bullard canyon. The Company expects to continue the work early in the spring and not cease until the water is piped from the springs into a large reservoir on the summit overlooking the town.

Fall River News.

From the Tidings.

Last Saturday some little boys became possessed of a stick of giant powder and, breaking off a piece, applied a match to see what it would do. As a result little Ray Kinyon had the hair burned from his head and his face badly blistered. It is fortunate that it was no worse.

A daughter of the late Calvin Hall, arrived on the Sisson stage Monday night en route to Modoc county, to look after her interest in her father's estate. Mary, as everybody here calls her, was born in this country, but is now the wife of an honest German farmer and lives in the Wallova Valley, Oregon.

Old Mary, widow of Calvin Hall, who was lynched by the Lookout mob, was here last week. She sets up a claim that she is not being fairly treated by the administrator of Calvin Hall's estate and alleges that the administrator has already sold personal property which belonged to herself and two Indian sons who were hauled.

Last The Examiner might be accused by our esteemed neighbor, the Alturas Philadeler, of taking a ghoulish delight in "heaping disgrace on Modoc county," we refrain from publishing the article on Modoc in the San Francisco Chronicle of July 7th.

The Sultan has disgorged. The State Department at Washington has received the amount of the American indemnity for the claim against Turkey, $250,000, through the American legation at Constantinople. The Sultan may now return to his harem.

A great Woodmen barbecue will be held at Portland August 3d. A class of over 1,000 new members will be initiated. Ten thousand Woodmen are expected to be present. Special rates will be secured over the several transportation lines.

The Ohio Democrats in State Convention on July 10th repudiated Col. William Jennings Bryan. There was no mention of previous platforms or of Bryan. Col. James Kilbourne of Columbus was nominated for governor.

President McKinley will be invited to Portland to break ground for the 1905 fair. Doubtless the President will be glad to accept, as he will then have an opportunity to meet with his "old friend" Harvey Scott.

EVADED ARREST

John E. Raker Flees to Escape Incarceration.

It was stated in The Examiner last week that Superior Judge Harrington of Modoc had issued warrants for the arrest of the attorneys for the men charged with murder in Modoc, and that the judgment of the court was that, for an alleged contempt of court, the attorneys pay a fine of $500 or serve five days in jail. Before Mr. Raker could be found and jailed he slipped quietly out of town and hid himself to San Francisco with an appeal to the Supreme Court of the State. In the meantime Geo. W. Harris, Raker's colleague, was arrested and jailed. In referring to the case the San Francisco Chronicle of the 9th inst. says: "The Supreme Court yesterday granted a temporary restraining order in response to the petition of Attorney John E. Raker of Alturas, restraining Judge Harrington of Modoc county from enforcing his judgment against Raker and his associate, G. F. Harris, for contempt of court. Raker and Harris are two of the attorneys employed in defending the three men charged with participation in the Modoc lynchings, and are also employed as counsel for Albert L. Colburn, who is detained in jail at Alturas as a witness against the three defendants. In seeking to secure Colburn's release from custody Raker and Harris presented the Modoc court with a petition for a writ of habeas corpus, the wording of which Judge Harrington considered a reflection on the integrity of the Court. Both lawyers were promptly adjudged guilty of contempt of court and ordered to pay a fine of $500, in default of which they were ordered to serve five days in jail. The Supreme Court's order, which is made returnable on August 5th at 2 p. m., stays all proceedings in the contempt case until that time, but Raker says he is not sure that Judge Harrington will not find him guilty of another act of contempt in evading the Court's order by coming to San Francisco with his petition to the Supreme Court. When the Supreme Court's restraining order was granted yesterday the fact was promptly telegraphed to Alturas, so that Attorney Harris might be released from custody. He was arrested on a bench warrant on Friday last and was kept in jail until released yesterday. Judge Harris was released upon order of the supreme court, and now promises to make it interesting for Judge Harrington for jailing him. It is a merry war that may end in a sensation.

Mr. Loupe's Dinner.

Last Friday evening Arthur Loupe, the well-known manager of the cigar department of the Adams, Booth Company, Sacramento, gave a dinner to several friends at the Hotel Lakeview. The dinner was a most enjoyable affair arranged by the Hotel Lakeview chef by order of Mr. Loupe. All enjoyed the Loupe hospitality to the fullest extent and it was voted by the party that the Adams, Booth cigars and Buffalo Bohemian Extra Pale Lager were the best smokes and drink on earth. Mr. Loupe is one of the most popular commercial men who ever came to Lakeview. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. George Whorton, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Light, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McGarrey, Mr. Heinrich and Mr. Loupe.

All Had a Good Time.

In speaking of the celebration in Lakeview on the Fourth, attended by numerous Cedarville people, the Record has this to say: "They all report having had a fine time and being nicely treated. The boys conducted themselves in a gentlemanly manner, as they always do, and won the golden opinion of all those with whom they came in contact, and the ladies, bless 'em, they are always ladies in every sense of the word. The club proved an invincible and won both games easily, and Cedarville feels proud of them. They returned home Sunday and on Monday evening a social dance was given in honor of them and their triumphs. Rah! for the Stars."

A Modoc Wedding.

The Examiner is in receipt of a card announcing the marriage on Sunday, July 14th, 1901, at Alturas, Cal., of Chris. Rachford and Gladys Keser, two popular young people of Modoc's capital. The groom is a son of U. C. Rachford, ex-sheriff of Modoc county, and is a young man of sterling worth. The bride is the dashing and accomplished daughter of Mrs. W. M. Thompson, and is very popular with all who know her. The Examiner offers its hearty congratulations to the young couple, trusting their married life may be full of sunshine and happiness.
