

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY

All kinds of News Notes Taken on The Fly By an Examiner Representative

E. E. Bond of Plush was with us last week.

George Hankins is laid up with the fever this week.

Dave Edler, the woolgrower, was over from Bly Monday.

M. S. McEwan of Oregon City was at Hotel Lakeview Saturday.

Everything in the harness and saddlery line at Cheney's at moderate prices.

Jim Handley is putting a new roof on the public school building.

A scarcity of hay hands is reported throughout this and Modoc counties.

Last Monday Perry McDaniel bought 200 ewes from Charlie Sherlock at $3 per head.

The "W. O. W.," a fine cigar that all Woodmen smokers use, is now on sale at the Monogram.

J. Todd Bonner, tax collector of Modoc was in Lakeview again on business Saturday.

Mrs. John Scott of Paisley has been visiting relatives here for a couple of weeks.

Hudspeth & Cloud are shipping large orders of their fine soda to Modoc county.

Schminck & Son for summer hats, summer underwear and shirts. Gents furnishings in all styles.

The local Camp of Woodmen and their families will picnic on the 10th of August.

F. R. Remele, commercial traveler of Sacramento, was with our merchants a few days last week.

"Farmer" Greene, the clothing man, was selling goods to local merchants during the week past.

Cheney, the harness maker and trimmer, is making a reputation as a carriage trimmer. First-class work is Cheney's motto.

R. A. Hawkins was in from Crooked Creek last Saturday and reports the saws buzzing lively at the mill.

A. W. Bryan, proprietor of the Northern Stage line was a business visitor in Lakeview several days last week.

Edward R. Cambon and Miss Wynona Adams, estimable people of Modoc, were married at Eagleville July 4th.

Nearly everybody has read Tom Paine. The Tom Paine cigar is as good as the book. A long, sweet smoke. Call for it at Ayres & Schlager's Brewery Saloon.

J. M. Handley and Clint Linebarger erected and connected an Aeromotor windmill at the residence of George Hankins, this week.

The Reno Gazette says that P. L. Flainger has sold ten thousand lambs to U. M. Slater of Oakland, and shipment will begin next Tuesday.

M. J. Barry, owner of the stable and hall property, will take charge of that business himself on August 1st and personally conduct the livery.

Everybody who smokes has heard of the famous La Rosa cigar. It needs no recommendation other than the smoking. When you drop into Cobb Henkle's Alhambra call for a La Rosa and get happy.

Talk about fish stories, big fish and little fish—the biggest fish of the season's catch at Paisley is said to have been captured in a "post hole."

The contract to build the $20,000 store building for E. E. Bond & Sons of Alturas has been let to C. E. C. of Susanville. The lanterns are warm pipes.

W. K. Barry has sold to Willis E. Bond of Bly the 280 acre place on Deep Creek known as the "Tomlinson Place." The price paid was $3000.

La Rosa is a new and pleasing thing to smoke. This cigar is made by the famous Trujillo, and is known as the perfect cigar, manufactured in Key West. Buy one at Ahlstroms Bros., sole agents.

Hattie, Filmore, Kennedy, East, Phelps and Follett, sportsmen who went to Deep Creek for ten days, returned Saturday, and report a pleasant trip.

The Plaiddealer reports another "shooting affray" in Alturas on the evening of July 11th. This is another case of "heaping disgrace" on Modoc.

Rev. Holloman of the Baptist church performed a kindly and christian act when he walked to the cemetery and, unmasked, preached a funeral sermon at the grave of Ruby Clark, the unfortunate who suicided last week. Such acts are the outcome of true religion, and prayers from such men of the cloth are not thrown away.

"Pete" Grob has gone to the railroad with a "drum car."

Geo. Biehn and Anna Newman were married at Klamath Falls on July 4th.

J. H. R. Stearns, an engineer of Gold Hill, is on his way to Lake county.

Burrell Short and Elizabeth S. Rortely of Klamath county were married at the Falls July 3d.

See Schminck & Son for all kinds of hardware and machinery. The McCormick rakes and mowers are having a great run. The McCormick is the "only."

Dr. Demorest and family started for Klamath county yesterday to be absent a month.

Frank Ross has gone to Washington to sell the patent riveter introduced here some time ago by Richard Kingsley.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Beall and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Anderson left Tuesday morning for Little Chewanau for a week's fishing.

Smokers will never know the comfort of a fine cigar until they try the El Comandante. This is a fragrant weed that lulls men to sleep and gives them pleasant dreams. On sale only at Post & King's, Lakeview.

J. H. Houston of Klamath Fall has returned from San Francisco where he left his son J. V. Houston in care of a prominent physician.

John W. Tucker and wife arrived at Portland on the 10th inst. and after a few days sight-seeing at the metropolis started down the coast.

Leon Carrio, a nephew of Chas. Graves, arrived from Ft. Jones, Cal., a few weeks ago, and is now assisting Mr. Graves at the Red Horse Store.

Take a look at the beautiful windows at the Monogram. Ahlstrom Bros. are certainly up to date in their stock as well as their manner of displaying. All their window goods are now displayed from nickel plated pedestals. Their windows are beautiful.

"Doc" Ramsby is now breaking some fine horses at Merrill, Klamath county, for Thos. Martin. "Doc" is a "crack-jack" when it comes to that business.

Drs. Brandon & Breth have gone to Davis Creek for a few days and will return Friday (tomorrow) to finish up their work here before going to Paisley.

The Adin Argus says the Talbot property, consisting of 4000 acres of fine land is being surveyed and platted. The land will be cut up into small farms and sold.

The Robert Mantell is a large and fragrant cigar. Once used you will call for no other, because it is a pleasant smoke and every one in the box is good. Fine tobacco. For sale only by Whor on & Smith, in Lakeview.

Fred A. Grimm, J. J. Sullivan and J. B. Wright, are three commercial travelers from San Francisco who visited Lakeview this week, and were guests at Hotel Lakeview.

Fent Smith went to Cedarville last week on a visit and will be accompanied home by his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will live in the residence of Mrs. M. P. Dodson in Walter's addition.

L. Gerber, the Klamath stockman, while here purchased 1300 yearling we hers of Geo. Hankins and the Cobb Estate. Dave Edler also purchased 1000 ewes from the same parties.

Misses Nellie Heryford and Lottie Ahlstrom started yesterday morning for private conveyance for Cedarville, where they will visit for a week with the Misses May of Hattie Penland.

The North California papers are making a big "hub-bub" about an automobile that has made its appearance in Redding. We'll wager it's the same auto like Davies of Lakeview once owned.

L. B. Whorton has opened a fruit and vegetable emporium in the Huff mill market building. He will carry fruit, vegetables and berries in season. Send orders for your day's vegetables and fruit to Whorton's and the orders will be filled promptly and delivered at your home.

Register E. M. Brattain of the Lakeview land office, who was subpoenaed as a witness in the United States Court at Portland on the 10th inst., was called to testify in the case of the United States vs. Jessie D. Carr. Register T. A. Roseberry of the Susanville land office was also called in the same case.

TEXTBOOKS SELECTED.

Ginn & Co. Get 72 Per Cent of Awards for Books to be Used in the Public Schools of Oregon.

The Oregon text-book commission organized in Salem, Monday afternoon, H. W. Scott, editor of the "Morning Oregonian," was elected president, and Frank Davey of Salem, as Secretary.

The commission is composed of Harvey W. Scott of Portland, Wm. M. Ladd of Portland, Wm. Colvig of Jacksonville, C. A. Johns of Baker City, and Pres. P. L. Campbell of Monmouth.

The commission discussed the matter of receiving bids for school books, and it was decided that, under the law, bids could be received on the second Monday in July, and that to give all an even chance bids would be received up to midnight on the 8th. The book agents present promptly filed their bids, twenty-five sealed proposals being received in less than 10 minutes, including those received by mail by the superintendent of public instruction, which proposals were delivered to the commission. The bids so received were:

- Christopher Sauer & Co. Philadelphia.
- Rand, McNally & Co., Chicago.
- Silver Burdett & Co., Chicago.
- Ginn & Co., Boston.
- The McMullan Co., San Francisco.
- Werner School Book Co., New York.
- Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston.
- Newsom Company, New York.
- The Prang Educational Company, Chicago.
- Union Publishing Company New York.
- The Whiteaker & Ray Company, San Francisco.
- The Western Publishing House, Chicago.
- Scott, Foresman & Co., Chicago.
- E. F. Johnson Publishing Co., Chicago.

- Frye's Geography, Ginn & Co.
- Reed's Speller, Maynard, Merrill & Co.
- Wheeler's Primer, W. H. Wheeler & Co.
- Newland & Row's Vertical Writing, D. C. Heath & Co.

DEATH OF PERRY HOYT.

Perry Hoyt, a pioneer of Siskiyou county, California, and Lake county, Oregon, died at his home in Little Shasta valley on July 12th. Deceased has been an invalid for several years and a patient sufferer from spinal trouble. The immediate cause of death was spinal fever. He was a pioneer of the 50 period in the territory now known as Siskiyou county. He was formerly a big stock grower in this county and owner of the 70 Ranch and brand now owned by Heryford Brothers. He afterward originated the 7-up brand and conducted an extensive cattle business under that iron in this county for several years.

Perry Hoyt was well known by the pioneer people of this and Siskiyou counties, and by many people who came after the pioneers. He was a man respected for his many noble traits of character. He was one of the Old Guard who held honor above all things else. Many will be the sad regrets at the news of the old pioneer's death. He leaves an aged wife in good circumstances, and two daughters, Mrs. H. R. Dunlap of Lakeview and Mrs. Mary Prather of Little Shasta. His age was 72 years.
